Vows Are Read In Stayton

STAYTON — The Church of Christ was the scene of an early spring wedding Wednesday when Miss Verla Carter, daughter of Mrs. Lucile Carter, became the bride of Raymond Frey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frey. The double ring service was read by Jack Tyrell-Baxter at 8 o'clock before an altar banked with spring flowers, ivy and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Wendel Weddel, accompanied by Rose Ward of Salem, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." After the ceremony, Melvin Epley of Aloha sang "The Lord's Prayer." The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Vivian Cantrall of Portland, wore a white satin wedding dress with a train and finger-tip veil. She carried a white Bible with rosebud and gardenia streamers.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Marge Wallen of Salem, who wore a blue net dress and carried a colonial bouquet.

Julian Kimler of Salem acted as best man. Leonard Titus and Donald Hougardy were ushers. The bridal party received the guests in the foyer of the church and later a reception was held in the church parlors. Serving were Mrs. Belle Heater, Sublimity, Mrs. Vivian Cantrall, Portland, aunts of the bride; also her sisters, Mrs. Erna Lang, Portland; and Mrs. Iris Van Houte, Coos Bay; and Mrs. Hattie Schlies.

Mrs. Frey attended school here, later going to Portland where she graduated from Emmanuel hospital. She was a member of the nurses corps in the navy. Mr. Frey also attended school here and was in the service until his discharge a few months ago.

The couple left on a wedding trip and upon their return will reside in Stayton. Both are attending school in Salem.
