

Miss Taylor Bride of Mr. Tye

Attractive, blonde Helen Taylor became the bride of Warrant Officer Litton Tye, USN, Saturday night at a beautiful ceremony at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Bozeman, Montana, who came west for their daughter's wedding, and the groom is the son of J. Edward Tye of Jamesport, Missouri.

The Rev. Chester W. Hamblin performed the nuptials before an all white setting of anaspdragons and stock flanked by tall white tapers. The bride's two sisters, Miss Janet Taylor of Oregon City and Miss Agnes Taylor of San Francisco, lighted the candles. They wore identical frocks of dawn blue fashioned with gathered net skirts and jersey bodices made with low waistlines and three quarter length sleeves. Each skirt was enhanced with a band of jersey and a bow. They wore crownless hats of blue pleated tulle and pink baby roses and wrist bands of roses. Mrs. Ralph Dobbs played organ selections and the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a picturesque gown of white French drop stitch organza designed with a full skirt which terminated in a train. The dress was fashioned with a bustle in back and the fitted bodice was made with a low waistline and a sweetheart neckline edged in lace. The long sleeves were full and puffed above the elbow and fitted tightly with points over the wrists.

Her fingertip length veil of bridal illusion cascaded from a Dutch half hat of the material enhancing with heading. She carried a French nosegay of white camellias, roses and forget-me-nots. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls which belonged to the groom's mother. For "something old" she carried a lace handkerchief which her mother had carried at her wedding.

Groom's Sister Attendant

Miss Marjorie Tye, the groom's sister, was the honor attendant. She wore a heaven pink taffeta gown designed with a full skirt, fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and three quarter length sleeves. The gown was embellished with pleated ruching on the bodice and a bow in back with bustle effect. She wore a crownless hat of pink pleated tulle and baby roses and carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink camellias.

William H. Trindle, jr. stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were Glen Holt of Dallas and Ben Newell.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Taylor chose a black print dress with black straw hat with satin trim of pink and fuchsia. Her flowers were talisman roses.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the William H. Trindle home on South Commercial street. Greeting the guests at the door were Miss Emma Freehling of Gresham and Miss Faye Nichols of Hillsboro. Miss Eleanor Trindle invited guests into the dining room. Dr. Mary B. Purvine cut the bride's cake and Mrs. H. R. Woodburn presided at the coffee urn. Serving were Mrs. William H. Trindle, jr. and Mrs. Manfred Olson. Appointments on the bride's table were all white and silver.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to San Francisco and to Missouri to visit with his family, the bride donned a black tailleur with mist pink blouse, black straw hat and corsage of pink roses.

The new Mrs. Tye is home demonstration agent for Polk county. Her husband, who just arrived in the states from Spain, will report to Norfolk, Va., for reassignment.

Dean Geist in Concert Today

Melvin H. Geist, dean of the Willamette university school of music, is being presented today in a concert at the Portland art museum. His program of tenor art songs includes such composers as Handel, Schubert, Besley and Griffes. He is accompanied by Bennet Ludden, music school piano professor.

Presented each Sunday in the art museum, the series is a regular feature in Portland's music curriculum. Prof. and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, also of Willamette, will appear at the museum on April 23.

Mrs. Carl Ankeny, assisted by Mrs. Charles Fowler, Mrs. Jason Frizzell and Mrs. Laurence Walworth will be in charge of the noon-luncheon to be served on Tuesday to members of the Eastern Star social day club at Masonic temple. The meeting opens with Red Cross sewing in the morning.

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet for Red Cross sewing at 9:30 on Tuesday morning. The committee for the noon lunch includes Mrs. Rue Drager, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. Arthur Bone and Mrs. Elmer Smith. This is to be a united thank offering meeting.
