

Hobarts Sell Family Home

SILVERTON, April 18 (Special) Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hobart have sold their farm to M. E. DeGurre. The place has been in the Hobart family almost 50 years, having been owned by Mr. Hobart's father, A. F. Hobart prior to the son's ownership in recent years. The elder Mr. Hobart makes his home with the T. R. Hobarts.

Mr. Hobart has accepted a position as a labor coordinator with a group of canneries including some at Salem, Woodburn and Stayton, and has already gone to work. The family plans to remain in the home for the summer months and have made no definite plans for the future.

Offer Old Army Trucks For Sale to Dealers

SEATTLE, Wash., April 18 (Special) Approximately 175 used military type trucks—the majority of which are in poor condition—will be offered to qualified dealers by the war assets administration, at the Mt. Rainier ordnance depot, Tuesday, April 23, starting at 9:30 a. m.

The vehicles may be inspected between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3:30 p. m., April 18, 19 and 20. All of the trucks have been previously offered to priority claimants and preference buyers.

Style Show Set For Elsinore at 1 p. m. on Monday

Recognized as an authority on women's fashions, beauty care and home-making problems, Miss Judith Lane—widely known through her radio program "Housewives, Inc."—will be narrator for the Charmode Corsetry style show of Sears Roebuck at the Elsinore theatre at 1 p. m. Monday, it is announced by Gene Vandeneinde, manager of the Salem Sears store.

The show is being produced by A. M. "Bill" Close and directed by May Morgan Sears, noted as a corsetiere consultant. Popular artists on the program include Eddie Zollman, organists; Maxine Carroll, known for her Irish ballads; Sayings of acrobatic-dance fame, and the dance team of Roland and Reid.

Vandeneinde termed the event "an unusual and important fashion show" and said the public was cordially invited to attend without charge.

Capt. Don Wooden Homeward Bound From Nuernberg

A cablegram from Capt. Don K. Wooden to his mother, Mrs. Marion F. Wooden, Salem, informs her that he left Nuernberg for port on April 12, homeward bound from Bavaria.

Captain Wooden has been with the 1260th engineer combat battalion since its organization in December, 1943, first as a company commander and later as battalion executive officer. They went overseas in November, 1944. After discharge, the officer, whose wife, the former Janis Howell Men on Visits at Home

CENTRAL-HOWELL, April 18 (Special) Wayne Lovre, USN, was home over the weekend and returned to Astoria Sunday, to receive his discharge from the navy later in the week. He plans to come home and take over the operation of the farm. Louis Lovre is still confined to his bed following an operation some weeks ago. Ralph Steffen, USN, based at San Diego has had a week at home. He will return to his base Friday.
