

Pages Hosts At Dinner

Judge and Mrs. E. M. Page were hosts at dinner Thursday night at their home on Court street for the pleasure of their club. Contract bridge was in play after the dinner hour.

The Easter motif was carried out in the table appointments and bouquets of spring flowers were used for decorating. Covers were placed for Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Titus of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cutsforth of Gervais, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McLellan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. Max Rogers and Judge and Mrs. Page.

Lilies Garnish Easter Roast

Sometimes try carving flowers out of raw white turnips and golden yellow carrots. They make easy and most effective garnishes for the meat platter. To make white lilies, leave turnips out of refrigerator for a day or two; then pare and cut in thin slices. Roll each slice like a cornucopia, and fasten with a toothpick. A thin strip of carrot may be inserted for the yellow center of the flower.

A National Officer Visits

Mrs. Harry H. Power of Austin, Texas, arrived in the capital Thursday to make her first official visit to the Beta Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega on the Willamette university campus. Mrs. Power came west from Denver and has been a guest of the two other Oregon chapters at Oregon State college and University of Oregon.

Mrs. Power will be a special guest at the alumnae meeting of Alpha Chi Omega tonight at the North 24th street home of Mrs. Burton A. Myers. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Stearne Cushing, Mrs. Homer Richardson and Mrs. William DePew. A dessert supper will be served preceding the meeting and program.

Saturday night the active members and alumnae will gather for dinner in the Marine room of the Marjon hotel at 8:30 o'clock to honor Mrs. Power.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Denbo (Lovena Clark) whose marriage took place on April 10. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clark and her husband is the son of Mrs. R. R. Denbo of Louisville, Kentucky. The groom is stationed at Camp Atterbury, Indiana. The couple will live in Salem after his discharge. (McEwan photo).

Many Attend Convention

Over three hundred Royal Neighbors were in attendance at the state convention which convened in Salem on Tuesday and Wednesday, forty Oregon camps sending delegates. The meeting on the first day was given over to the school of instruction on the ritualistic work, which was supervised by the state supervisor, Mae E. Logan of Portland. Mrs. Frank Hoyt, Salem orator, presided at the meeting the first day.

Following the evening banquet the meeting was open to the public and the Veterans hall was filled to capacity for the program. A candlelight memorial service was put on by the camp from Albany. Music was furnished by the Wallace Graham studios and the Meisinger studios. David O'Hara welcomed the delegation to Salem on behalf of the mayor. Greetings were extended by Fred O'Donnell for the Modern Woodman and by Maurice Hudson, past president of the Oregon Fraternal Congress.

Deputies attend Eleven district deputies were in attendance: Mamie Secoy, Ontario; Gertrude Weiser, Bend; Nellie Redinger, Portland; Marjetta Jones, Milton; Katie Fairfax, Portland; Elsa Walker, Medford; Anne Montgomery, Coos Bay; Alice Breedlove, Forest Grove; Mabel Miles, Salem; and Sarah Peterson, Salem; Gladys Huff, La Grande. Miss Betty Jean Persons of Albany sang two numbers and Betty Groves of Labish gave a humorous reading. The Marguerite camp of Portland closed the evening with a fancy drill.

The second day's meeting was in charge of Mrs. Sarah Peterson of Salem, state orator, and handled the business of the session. Mrs. Mamie Secoy of Ontario and Mrs. Sarah Peterson of Salem were elected delegates to the national convention to be held in Cincinnati in June, with Mrs. Katie Fairfax of Portland and Mrs. Mabel Miles of Salem elected as alternates.

Klamath Falls was chosen as the next meeting place, with Anne Montgomery of Coos Bay and Mabel Carlson of Portland elected as orator and recorder. The evening meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Weddle of Salem and consisted of fancy drills, humorous stunts including a double-faced drill from Silverton, and special music provided by the Meisinger studios.

The Parrish 9th grade Girl Reserves at their meeting this week voted to assist in the national food and clothing drives for the needy in European countries.

Mrs. Joe Kelly was guest speaker for the meeting of Marion Cuthbert chapter of Tri-Y, Wednesday morning.

Late in April local Tri-Y members will put on the spring recognition service at Silverton high school, with Mary Reinhart, Jean Doolittle, Shirley Kinnane, and Pat Long arranging the event. The cabinet and choir will take part in the ceremony.

meat is brown on one side (8 to 10 minutes). Turn meat; add more potatoes, building them up as high as the meat. Finish broiling until meat is brown on one side (about 8 minutes). Place ring of cooked peas around meat and arrange carrots at four corners of mashed potato border. Serve immediately.

PLANK TECHNIQUE
If desired, meats may be cooked almost done before being placed on a plank; then the final browning is done in the broiler. Vegetables are always cooked before they are added to the plank, unless canned vegetables are used. Care should be taken not to expose the uncovered plank to the direct heat of the broiler.

Mashed potatoes are usually used for a border, and may be put through a pastry tube if desired. Using vegetables of contrasting shapes and colors will add to the interest of the plank.

OTHER COMBINATIONS

- Besides the foods used in the above recipe, here are a few other combinations that would go very well with the hamburger steak:
- (1) Mushroom caps, tomato halves, and green beans.
- (2) Brussels sprouts, carrot strips, panfried sweet potato slices.
- (3) Green pepper halves filled with celery stuffing, sliced beets, cauliflower flowerets.
- (4) Stuffed whole onions, green peas, julienne carrots.

Yes, it's just plain hamburger—but oh, what it seems to be! Shaped into one large "steak," it's framed in a border of fluffy potatoes, with green peas and slim, golden carrot strips to give color contrast. Magic with the aid of a plank!

Glorify Hamburger

Good Old Ground Beef Becomes Quite A Glamorous Dish if Cooked on Plank

By Maxine Buren

At least, there's always hamburger. And nobody needs to be disrespectful to this good old American standby, because a little beef will go a long way when it becomes hamburger. Of course we don't recommend the use of entirely strange hamburger, better to get round steak and grind it yourself than to trust a strange butcher. But if you know him, and trust him for other things, you'll be safe on hamburger.

Hamburger can be glorified to almost any heights the cook desires. Take plank hamburger, for instance:

PLANKED HAMBURGER STEAK
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3/4 cup milk
Mashed potatoes
Julienne carrots
Green peas

Combine ground beef, salt, pepper and milk; mix thoroughly. Shape in one large "steak" in center of plank. Around the edge put border of mashed potatoes half as high as the meat, leaving about 1/2 inch space between meat and potatoes. (This makes it easier to turn the meat.)

Insert plank in broiler about 2 inches from heat. Broil until

June Hope Is Review Producer

Friends and former pupils of June Hope West will be interested to learn of a very successful musical review "Stage One" produced and directed by her under the professional name of June Hope. The review, costumes and dances for which were original with Miss Hope, was given twice, in Hollywood and repeated in Whittier, Calif. Miss Hope formerly taught dancing in Salem. She now has some 200 pupils, 21 of whom are screen children, and many others "line girls" in her schools in Hollywood, Whittier and Glendale. She takes only professional students, according to a letter received by Salem friends.

Incidentally, June Hope's young daughter Tamara is the cover girl on a current "Picture Wise" magazine. A story about the dance review "Stage One" in a Hollywood paper lists some of the pupils of Miss Hope, who are now in the show business, mostly in the movies. It tells of one of the line groups taught by her, which flew from camp to camp entertaining servicemen during the war.
