

Social Whirl . . .

One of the first post-Easter social events will be the dessert supper and bridge party for which Mrs. Irvin Hill and Mrs. Bothwell Avison will be hostesses Tuesday night at the former's country home for the pleasure of Mrs. Douglas Thompson, a newcomer here. Dr. Thompson has recently been appointed assistant superintendent at Fairview Home.

Guests will be seated at small tables, where contract bridge will be in play during the evening. Bouquets of spring blossoms and flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bidden to honor Mrs. Thompson are Mrs. George Neuner, jr., Mrs. Paul Wolfe, Mrs. Eugene Tupker, Mrs. Daye Idleman, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Mrs. William Cole, Mrs. Lewis Clark, Mrs. Carl Stamey, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Willard Thompson, Mrs. Tom Dunham, Mrs. Francis Smith, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, Mrs. George Williamson, Mrs. William Lidbeck, Mrs. A. Terrence King, Mrs. Hugh Adams, Mrs. Wilmer Smith and Mrs. Neville Challenger.

To Honor Mrs. Elle

Mrs. Robert Stanley will entertain informally Tuesday night at her home on Rose street in honor of Mrs. Martin Elle, who is leaving this month for Portland to make her home.

A dessert supper will be served by the hostess with several hours of contract bridge following.

Saying au revoir to Mrs. Elle will be Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. Harry Lucas, Mrs. Glade Follis, Mrs. Garnie Cranor, Mrs. Lester Wilcox, Mrs. Estill Brunk and Mrs. Stanley.

Travel Notes . . .

Mrs. James Craig (Priscilla Walsh) and year old daughter, Priscilla, are leaving Monday by plane for Natal, Brazil, to join Major Craig who is stationed there as wing engineer of the South Atlantic division of the air transport command.

The travelers will be accompanied to Portland by her mother, Mrs. Raymond Walsh. Their first stop will be in Miami and from there they will take the Pan American airlines to Natal, where Major Craig already has a house. Mrs. Craig and her daughter have been here the past two and a half months awaiting orders.

Mrs. George Abbott and her small son, George, jr., are departing Monday for Whittier, Calif., to join Mr. Abbott, who is studying for his master's degree in physical education at the University of Southern California. Mrs. Abbott and her son have been spending the winter here at the home of her brother-in-law and sisters, Dr. and Mrs. Leon Barrick.

Eastward Bound

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell and children, Timothy, Mary Ellen and Catherine, are leaving Saturday for Indiana for a five weeks stay. Dr. Campbell will be at the Indiana University Medical Center in Indianapolis while his wife and children visit in Winamac with her family.

Mrs. Ray Yocom and son, Raymond, are leaving by car this afternoon for Chicago, where they will make their home. Mr. Yocom preceded his family east two weeks ago. Enroute they will stop in Logan, Utah, to visit Miss Rachel Yocom. They also plan brief visits in Hood River and Caldwell with friends.

Easter Entertaining . . .

By Jerome English

Statesman Society Editor

Easter is always the occasion for many traditional breakfasts and dinners in honor of members of the family and friends.

Traditional Breakfast

Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, sr., will entertain with her annual Easter breakfast this morning at her home on South High street. This will be the first Easter gathering of the family since before the war.

The large breakfast table will be decorated with roosters, hens, eggs and bunnies. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Orris Fry of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., Dan Fry, III, Mrs. William Earl Snell, Danna and William Lee, Miss Jane Walsh of San Mateo, Calif., Mrs. James Craig and daughter, Priscilla, Raymond Walsh of Oregon State college, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shattuc, Billy, Jeanette and Danny, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. Fry.

Dr. and Mrs. George E. Lewis will entertain with their annual Easter dinner today at their North Winter street home. The group has been together on Easter for the last twenty years.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Leopold and daughters, Ruth Ann and Georgia of Portland, Miss Elsie Miller, Miss Florence and Miss Barbara Lewis, Eugene Olson, and Dr. and Mrs. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Brady, sr., will be hosts for an Easter dinner today at their suburban home on the Garden road. Covers will be placed for 14 guests.

A Farewell Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yocom will preside at a family dinner today in compliment to Mrs. Ray A. Yocom before she leaves for Chicago this afternoon, following the Easter services at the First Congregational church.

Places will be laid for Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, Raymond and Richard Yocom, Miss Roberta Jean Yocom, Don Fox of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yocom, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carlin, Mrs. Grace Dunaven, Deryl Yocom and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yocom.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Murphy have invited guests to dinner today at their suburban home on the Portland highway. A bouquet of spring flowers and Easter candles will decorate the dinner table.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Stuart of Corvallis, Kenneth Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Murphy.

Weekend Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, jr. have as their Easter guests their son-in-law, daughter and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck and son, Billy, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Paulus and children, Jean, Teddy and David of Grants Pass are here for Easter to be the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feike have as their Easter guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slottee of Astoria and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Slottee of Portland.

Spending the Easter weekend at Yachats are Dr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons, Margaret Jane Emmons and her Oregon State college classmate, Chris Gilbert of Burlingame, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Paulson, sr.

All On A Spring Day

A bright sunny day and the opportunity of making friends with an Easter bunny brought out plenty of lively little subjects for the photographer's camera.

Two-year-old Cheryl Porter, above, daughter of the Carl Porters, is all smiles with her Easter greeting amidst a setting of tulips and lilies and the Easter bunny, (Jesten Miller).

Bridal Parties Named . . .

Three popular brides-elect are revealing plans for their weddings. Invitations are in the mail this weekend for the marriage of Miss Carolyn Brown, daughter of the Francis Ivan Brown, and Charles L. Offen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Offen of Topeka, Kansas, which will be an event of Sunday afternoon, May 5.

The ceremony will be performed at the First Congregational church with Dean Daniel Schulze officiating at four o'clock. Mrs. W. H. East will be the organist and Wendell Johnson will play violin selections. Miss Betty Lou Brown and Miss Marilyn Wyatt, the bride's cousins, will light the tapers.

Mr. Brown will give his daughter in marriage and she has asked Miss Jere Simmons of Monmouth to be her honor maid. Robert D. Brown, jr., cousin the bride, will stand with the groom as best man and ushers will be Thomas Hill, jr., Ollie Williams and Reid Shelton.

The wedding reception will be held in the Mayflower room of the church immediately after the ceremony. The couple will drive to Topeka, where they will make their home. Mr. Offen is expected to arrive in the capital the end of the month.

Bridal Party Selected

The First Congregational church has also been chosen by Miss Rosemary Bell and Lt. (jg) Walter L. Berg, USNR, for their wedding on Saturday night, April 27. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd V. Bell and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berg of Tacoma.

The Rev. Seth Huntington will officiate at the 8 o'clock nuptials. Miss Geraldine Nelson and Miss Delvon Long, Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters of the bride-to-be, will light the candles. Mrs. Craig Coyner will sing and Miss Alice Rose will be the organist.

Mr. Bell will give his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Gordon Park Keith (Barbara Jean Vincent) will be the matron of honor and Miss Pearl Peterson of Portland will be the maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Evelyn Collins of Corvallis, formerly of Salem, and Miss Nadine Putnam of Seattle, cousin of Miss Bell.

Lt. (jg) Norman Anderson of Tacoma will stand with the groom as best man. The ushers will be announced later.

The wedding reception will be held in the fireplace room of the church.

Lt. Berg, who arrived in Salem last week from the Philippines, has been a guest at the Bell home last week.

Ritchey-Taylor Rites

On Wednesday night Miss Betty Taylor, daughter of the A. A. Taylors, and Thomas B. Ritchey of Independence will be married at the First Congregational church with Dean Daniel Schulze officiating at 8 o'clock.

Lighting the altar candles will be Mrs. Robert C. Taylor and James G. Taylor, brother of the bride. Carolyn Gaskins Sullivan of Corvallis and J. P. Smart will sing. Mrs. James Smart will be the accompanist.

Mrs. Lloyd D. Reilly will be her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Robert Worrall and Miss Elizabeth Dolsch. Paul Carey of Independence will be best man and ushers will be John Holeczek and Guy Travis of Independence, Lloyd Reilly and James G. Taylor. The wedding reception will be held in the fireplace room.
