

Dedication to Attract Many From Salem

Mrs. James W. Mott will dedicate Mott Basin, Tongue Point naval station anchorage on Wednesday afternoon at a ceremony which will be broadcast on the major networks at 2:30 o'clock in Astoria.

Mrs. Mott, her family and special guests will be honored at a dinner given by Captain E. B. Baird, commander of Tongue Point naval base, on Tuesday night.

Members of the family attending will be Mrs. James W. Mott, her sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Whisenand and Beverly Mott, Dr. and Mrs. William Mott of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Shaler and Capt. James B. Shaler of Pittsburg, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stewart of Oswego, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walling, Miss Charlotte Best and Jerry Walling and Mrs. Prince W. Byrd.

Among the additional guests going to the dedication will be Miss Dorathea Steu-loff, Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Mrs. Wheeler Rilea, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Viesko, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Dr. and Mrs. William Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hickok, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Brazier Small, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hogg, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lampont, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander and Mrs. Donald Pague of Seio.

Betrothal Revealed

Announcement is being made this weekend of the engagement of Miss Jean Hazelton, daughter of Mrs. Lucy R. Hazelton, to Robert B. Loomis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Loomis of Forest Grove.

Miss Hazelton attended Salem schools and is now employed as a stenographer in the Ladd and Bush Salem Branch, United States National Bank. Mr. Loomis attended Portland schools and is a student at Pacific university.

He spent 44 months in the South Pacific with the 41st division and at the time of his dis-

Miss Mary Kathryn Finney, above, whose betrothal to Stuart H. Compton was recently revealed at the Sigma Kappa house on the Oregon State college campus. Miss Finney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Finney of Hood River and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton of Salem. No plans have been made for the wedding.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Hood River high school, where she received the DAR pilgrimage award. She is now attending Oregon State college and is a member of Sigma Kappa. Mr. Compton is a graduate of Salem high school and is now taking his navy reserve officers training at Oregon State college. He plans to take law at Willamette university next year. The young navy man served a year in the South Pacific.

North Section of the Women's Guild of the First Congregational church will meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. Mrs. George Durham and Mrs. C. P. Richards will be hostesses.

Salem Junior Woman's club will hold an important business meeting Monday night at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock. The board meeting will precede at 7 o'clock with Mrs. Fred Gast presiding.

Chapter AB, PEO will meet Monday night at 7:45 o'clock with Mrs. Roy R. Hewitt at 630 N. Commercial st. Miss Beth Stewart will be the assisting hostess.

change was wearing the bars of a 1st lieutenant.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Tea to Fete Workers

Women who worked in the production department of Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, are invited to attend the informal tea and program planned for Tuesday afternoon, April 23, especially in their honor. The meeting will be at 2:30 o'clock in the Salem Woman's club.

Mrs. George Rossman will preside at the tea table. Members of the canteen corps of the chapter will serve the tea, with Mrs. George Fake as chairman. Featuring the short program will be a Red Cross news reel.

The Sojourners club will meet on Tuesday for a 1 p.m. dessert luncheon and afternoon of bridge.

Seen and Heard . . .

By Jerome English

WEDDING ECHOES . . . A happy couple was Lorah Kate Griffith and Ensign John Copenhaver at their wedding Monday night in the First Presbyterian church. . . Smiles from both as she walked down the aisle and more smiles when receiving the congratulations of friends. . .

A beautiful ceremony, complete in every detail, even though the bride's mother only had three days notice . . . the reason, because John is only home on a two weeks leave. . . He was expected momentarily from Japan, but didn't think everything could have to be done on such short notice. . . so orchids to Mrs. Griffith for a lovely wedding and reception. . . she was attractive in a mist blue silk crepe and white camellias. . . Lorah Kate's only attendant, Janet Rogers, showed up at five o'clock that afternoon with a dress, after a mad day of shopping.

Gorgeous flower arrangements at the church and reception. . . Lots of color in shades of red and deep pinks interspersed with the white to compliment the pre-Easter bonnets worn by the guests. . . Mrs. Roy S. Keene in a pretty small flowered hat in shades of blue with touches of lavender. . . Mrs. Frank H. Spears, sr., in a fetching small brimmed sailor of rose beige taffeta with two large taffeta flowers of the rose and blue in front. . . Mrs. Karl G. Becke smartly dressed in a sage green suit with beautiful cherry koke patent shoes with nail head trim, and purse and hat to match. . . her small straw hat trimmed with a wreath of sage green flowers in front. . . Mrs. Edgar Pierce in a good looking high pillbox of black straw. . . Mrs. Breyman Boise in a distinctive black and white striped silk suit with peplum effect in front. . . Mrs. Hollis Huntington in a stunning navy blue ensemble with the new beau brummel sleeves, long honey beige suede gloves, and a navy straw hat. . . Mrs. Beryl Holt and Mrs. Arch Jermain wore smart black dresses, Miss Holt's trimmed in aqua and with it she wore aqua gloves. . . Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, home from New York, in a striking black ensemble fashioned with cape, the blouse and cape lining of fuchsia and white print. . . Her wide brimmed sailor with tiny crown of black straw and a ruffling of lace edging the brim. . . Nice to see Mrs. Elliott Price (Roberta Mills) from Camas for the event. . . she wore a becoming pink and black silk print. . . Friends were greeting Fritz Deckebach, just home from Europe, who accompanied his parents, the senior Frederick Deckebachs. . . Mrs. Lloyd Griffiths (Virginia Pope) home for a short visit before leaving with her small daughter, Frances, to join Ensign Griffiths in Miami. . . They have been living in Corpus Christi, Texas, where little Frances was born. . . Lloyd plans to remain in the naval air corps as he enjoys flying. . . Two who presided at the bride's table, Mrs. Roy H. Mills and Mrs. John Griffiths, the bride's aunts. . . the former's gown of white with red and green print and a design of red sequins at the shoulder and Mrs. Griffiths in a soft blue gown. . . Mrs. Bruce Spaulding in a beautiful black gown with draped bodice and skirt with a blue figured inset on the waist and gardenias worn in her high hair-do.

TIDBITS OF NEWS . . . Captain William Mudd, who has been in Salem visiting with his parents, the Clifton Mudds, is now in the south with his wife, Joan, and young son, Billy, at Modesto, Calif. . . This weekend they are having a reunion at Carmel with Lt. and Mrs. Harry Burns, with whom they lived while in South Carolina. . . Before entering the service Lt. Burns was private physician to the Duke of Windsor in the Bahamas. . . Captain Mudd expects to return to Fitzsimons General hospital, Denver, next week.

From Hollywood comes news of the birth of a son, Jeffrey, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Darby (Belle Church), former Salem residents. . . The Darbys have four other children, Joseph, Jr., Christopher, Betty Jo and Sally Jo. . . Joe's parents, the Ira Darbys, now live in Hollywood. . . Joe, still in the orchestra business, has contracts with studios.

Captain and Mrs. Henry H. Marsden, Jr., drove east last week from Camp Roberts, Calif. . . He is now at Camp Campbell, Kentucky, and while he is awaiting orders his wife and children are visiting in Lincoln, Neb., their former home.

TO HONOR Mrs. T. N. Alford of Coronado, Calif., editor of the Pi Phi Arrow, the Pi Beta Phi girls entertained with a tea last Sunday at the chapter house. . . Mrs. Alford wore black and her flowers were gardenias. . . Pretty Lorraine Murdock, house president, in a becoming gown of deep purple and fuchsia. . . A gorgeous purple orchid pinned to Evelyn Johnson's white and black gown. . . flowers in Addysse Lane's brunette curls. . . and a stunning bouquet of American beauty roses on the mantle, a lovely contrast to the pale turquoise walls. . . the roses a gift to Clarice Busselle from her fiancé, Fritz Anunson, still overseas. . .

Blonde Sally Smith, who will be a senior at high school next year, one of the guests. . . also Mary Elizabeth Sisson, who is taking her last semester at Willamette, but will receive her degree in June from the University of Washington. . . she looked attractive in a green frock with green shoes and navy blue coat. . . with her was titian haired Marianne Low. . . Patricia Waters with Margaret Allen, who wore a fetching white flowered hat. . . Among other guests the Rev. and Mrs. John L. Knight, the T. W. Creeches, the Charles Colemans, Judge and Mrs. James Brand with Miss Mabel Robertson. . . Miss Leila Johnson and Miss Lillian Davis, Miss Lois Latimer and Mrs. E. C. Richards. . . a group of mothers, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. Stuart Johnson, Mrs. Addison Lane and Mrs. C. L. Carson.

Chadwick chapter Eastern Star Social Day club will meet for Red Cross sewing Tuesday morning at the Masonic Temple. Luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. E. W. Peterson heads the committee with Mrs. J. E. Van-Wyngarden, Mrs. A. N. Copenhaver and Mrs. H. A. Gueffroy assisting.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY on page 10

Just In! RAYON PRINT Gowns

by Bennington!

Lace Trim
Floral Patterns
in
• White
• Pink
• Blue

4.98

Exclusive at

Sizes
32
to 38

ANNOUNCEMENT

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING

AT PRE WAR SERVICE

Jewelry Repairing

Diamond Setting

in Vogue with Charmode Bras

For Ease • Comfort • and • Silhouette.

Your silhouette . . . individual as your personality . . . will please you most enhanced by Charmode.

BRAS
With "Cordeau"
The beauty gift that both you and your friends will love. 30 to 34. 1.50

NEW "LO-KUT" GLAMOUR BRA
Rayon fabric with built-in padding. For extra support. Size 30 to 34. 1.50

NUMERAL BANDEAUS
1.00
Circular stitched underbust style. Adjustable straps. Elastic back. 32-34.

ROUNDED UP-LIFT
Quality fabric tested with adjustable straps and contour, able elastic back inserts. 1.00

59c

69c

484 STATE ST. - SALEM