Senior Play Is Tonight

"The Great Big Doorstep," a three-act comedy, will be given tonight at 8:15 in the Salem high school auditorium. The play, a presentation of the senior class, is under the direction of Miss Margaret Burroughs.

Action of the play revolves around members of the Crochet family who live in a cabin in Grass Margin, La. The household's favorite spot is on the great big doorstep, rescued from the waters of the Mississippi. The "Cajun" dialect affords much humor in the play.

Mrs. Crochet, strength of the family, and her indigent husband, the Commodore, are leading characters. Jean Mitchell and Jim Baer are starred in these parts. Others in the cast are Barbara Sundet, Evelyn Esau, Doris Walser, Velma Davis, Joe Brazie, Stanley Hawk, Betty Lou Bice, Jim Miller, Bob Pendergraft and Barbara Baldwin.

Manager of the play is Dick Cole and assisting him with publicity are Dale Cleaver, Jim Ragland and Nancy Buren. Tickets will be on sale at the door or may be reserved today. Proceeds from the production will be used to pay for the gift left to the school by each senior class.

Brunks Will Be Supper Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk will be hosts for a supper party Sunday night at their home on North 21st street for members of their club. Contract bridge will be in play after the supper hour. The hostess will use spring flowers and blossoms for decorations.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Harger, additional guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Seamster, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kent, Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowers and Dr. and Mrs. Brunk.

Mrs. Geist Is Elected President

Event of Thursday afternoon was the tea meeting of Town and Gown with a large group of Salem matrons attending. A musical program was held at Music hall on the Willamette university campus preceding the tea. Professor Ralph Dobbs played and Dean Melvin Geist sang accompanied by Mrs. Geist.

At the business meeting new officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mrs. Melvin Geist was elected president; Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatke, vice-president; Miss Olive M. Dahl, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, music chairman; Mrs. James T. Brand, program chairman; Mrs. George Allen, membership chairman; and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, social chairman.

In the receiving line at the tea held at Lausanne hall were the retiring officers, Mrs. Custer Ross, president, Mrs. Melvin Geist, Mrs. Stearns Cushing, Mrs. Maurice Brennen, Mrs. David Eason, Mrs. Harry V. Collins and Miss Olive Dahl.

The tea table was centered with a large spring bouquet of lilacs and tulips in a silver bowl flanked by pastel tapers to match and two small bouquets of the same flowers. Lovely bouquets of tulips, lilacs and yellow daisies were arranged in the reception rooms.

Presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Miss Lorena Jack and Mrs. Ellen Foster. Mrs. Lettie J. Sparks headed the directorate for the affair.

Many Attend Bridge Tea

Over 130 matrons and maids, including many from out-of-town, attended the Junior Guild benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon at the parish house.

The rooms were festive with large bouquets of lilacs, blossoms and spring flowers. The tea table was centered with a bouquet of pastel sweet peas flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. Presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Mrs. Custer Ross and Mrs. George H. Swift.

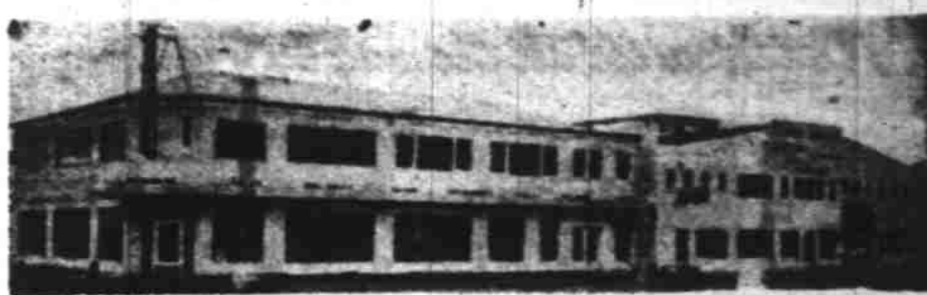

Winning prizes in bridge were Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Mrs. Tom H. Galloway, Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Walter Socolofsky, Mrs. Paul Hale and Mrs. Thomas P. Hill, III.

Mrs. Clarence Keen of Silverton ed the directorate for the successful affair and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn the tea committee.
