ORTSLIGHTNER

Sunday sorties: Nick Goulish, Danny Escobar, Frank Shone, Ted Gullie, Mayo Smith, Herman Reich, Harvey Storey, and Danny Amaral constitute EIGHT Portland Beaver outfielders. Salem Senator Skipper Frisco Edwards "would like one more hitting outfielder." Listening, Mr. Klepper? Loren Mort, the Independence man who did a good job coaching Leslie junior high's football team before the war, is now back after army service as a lieutenant, and adds he "might return to Leslie" to pick up from where he left off. Mort, gone since 1941, was in India for a spell as part of his GI service. . . . Any dubiousness still held concerning Salem high's ambition to hit the prep sports top in the state should be amply subsided with the school board's recent announcement of assistant coaches who have toined the Villa family. Len Warren, able assistant to Al Simpson at Medford last fall, comes to town to help the boss again, this time with Vik football. And Ellroy Jensen, like Simpson another U of Oragon man, joins the staff as "B" football coach. Jensen has been coaching at Creswell, a wee berg south of Eugene. So if it's coaching dupth the Viks will need, they're in. And we might add, sarcastically of course, that it's about time the coaching men at Salem high got a liftle help. The Vik megaphone jobs of the past haven't been enviable—they've been more Pack; like mankillers. Hillsboro Hurdler Jack Doyle, state champion due to repeat, and a ripe prospect for intercollegiate barrier skimming, according to his coach, Al Bogue, doesn't even hesitate to say, "I'm going to the University of Oregon," when asked where he will do his college stretch. Which could be one of the reasons why Col. Bill Hayward just doesn't get old despite his 70-odd years. Ed Ryan, new Klamath Pelican grid coach who also bosses the current pitching of ex-Salem Joe (Cowboy) Carroll for the Pells, drops us a note (with picture) informing that Cowboy Joe is still the prep pitching sharpie he was a year ago for the Viks. "Joe is all you said he'd ant. be for us," says Ryan. "It's a shame that the rest of the fellows are so inexperienced in baseball down here-we haven't had baseball in 10

JOE CARROLL

'Over 6000' Goal for Tuesday Opener

The town Senators, brand new from "S" to "S", open the home season Tuesday night. Biz Boss George Emigh anticipates, along with wood; Jonas and Finley.

Cliff Parker and his boosters, a welcoming gathering of "over 6000." Should Tuesday night be mild and cozy they're sure to get the 6000. Biz Boss George has set another goal, too. This one a season's attendance goal of 100,000. Which is considerable when you realize the 1940 Solons, during the best drawing year in the club's three-year history, played before less than two-thirds of that figure. Around 25,000 paid their way in during the dismal 1942 campaign. Seventy home games into years, you know."

Emigh's averages 1428 and a small boy per game. But Mr. E. calculates the club will do it. Given good weather, a winning ball club a follow-through by the Booster organization, we have no doubt the 100,000 goal will be reached. But all three items are musts.

Free Night' Tops

What is the Waters park attendance record? The files say Huskies Upset free game with Wenatchee, when Howard Maple was biz boss, holds the top rung with 5243. Second the top rung with 5243. Second best is the 4865 of the park's first opening night, May 1, 1940. Those two bumper crops are tops and prove that the over-6000 capacity arena has never been filled. What with interest as it is at present, however, a new record will certainly be set Tuesday night, weather cooperating. Mr. E. may have to get out the ropes to hold 'em back. Quite inviting too is the fact that there will be plenty of seats for the first 6000. Fivethousand of these go on sale at the park at 6 p.m. Tuesday.

The all-time high in yearly attendance for the league is held by Spokane's great 1939 season. The Inland Empire city set a national record for class B baseball villages that year by pulling 220,000 into Ferris field. It was a big year for two-thirds of the circuit, for even pennant-winning Wenatchee, slumbering little Columbia river town that it was, pulled 84,000. Vancouver was third with 81,000 and Tacoma fourth with 74,000. Yakima didn't even draw the flies that refused to habit the scads of empty perches in the Bellingham park. Salem's 1940 attendance, as near as we can find out, was near the 60,000 mark.

Jolt for Pass-Seekers

Incidentally, if you're one who hopes to make a habitual pal of Annie Oakley at the ball park this summer, you've a surprise coming. A league rule says, in part: Clubs will be limited to 35 passes per game, each ducat to carry a 16c government tax and 34c "service" charge with it-making the toll four-bits for each holder of a "free" pasteboard.

Oregon Sweeps Cinder Meet

EUGENE, April 27-(AP)-The University of Oregon won all but two firsts in a triangular track meet here today with Willamette and Portland universities and piled up 11014 points to 1415 for Willamette and 101/4 for Portland. Times and distances were not Willamette took points on Cookingham's first in the shotput, Mulkey's third in the mile, Preiss' third in the 880, Cookingham's third in the discus, and a tie for third by East and Hardy in the high jump.

up a string of three or four straight titles in Salem golf club tournies, moved within one notch of another Saturday afternoon when he defeated Jack Russell 1-up on the 19th green in the semi-finals of the current city open. The other semi-final will be gun off starting at 10:30 a. m. this morning and pits tourney medalist Jack Brande against Frank Shafer.

Cline's win Saturday took one of the most spectacular comebacks seen in recent years on the Salem course, a rare thing for the perennial champ to have first nine, Cline a 36, and the former held a one up lead.

At the 13th tee Russell had stretched the margin to 3 up with 6 to play, and Cline's title looked pretty shaky. However, and got the win, although he Cline won the 13th, 15th and 17th holes to square the match. Umpires: Lieser. 36, Russell a 37 on the back loaded at the time.

A large gallery followed the pair over the route. Finals in all flights but the first will also be run off Sunday.
