

Miss Wyatt A Bride Today

The fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church will be the setting for an impressive ceremony this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Marilyn Wyatt, brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Wyatt, becomes the bride of Gene Irons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Irons of Denver.

The fireplace will be banked with arrangements of apple blossoms, dogwood, white stock and snapdragons. The Rev. Chester W. Hamblin will officiate at the double ring ceremony. Before the bridal party enters Miss Carolyn Brown, the bride's cousin, will sing "Through the Years." Miss Joan Tredt will play the wedding music.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a smart dove grey gabardine tulle for her wedding. She will wear a white sheer blouse, a white flowered bandeau and white gloves. Her flowers will be white carnations and bouvardia.

Miss Bonnie Burnet will be the bride's only attendant. She will wear a cocoa brown suit with dark brown accessories and a brown straw bandeau. Her corsage will be of yellow rosebuds. Attend the Groom

Richard Wyatt, brother of the bride, will stand with the groom. Ushers will be the bride's cousins, George Robinson and Gordon Wyatt.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Wyatt has selected a brown bengaline suit with aqua bow trim at the shoulderline, brown straw hat and brown accessories. Her flowers will be gardenias and bouvardia. The groom's parents were unable to come west for their son's marriage.

The wedding reception will be in the church parlors immediately after the rites. The bride's of the bride, Margaret Booth, Elaine Wyatt and Marjorie Osborn, will assist in serving. After a wedding trip to the coast the newlyweds will leave for Denver where they will make their home. Mr. Irons will be associated in business there with his father.

Diana Percy to Have Birthday

Diana Percy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Knight Percy, will celebrate her fifth birthday on Monday afternoon when she entertains a group of friends at the Percy home.

Late in the afternoon a birthday cake and refreshments will be served. A Maypole cake with streamers extending to each place will be the centerpiece. Placecards will be crocheted yarn dolls and nursery rhyme animals will be arranged on the table.

Honoring Diana will be Rosemary Myers, Gail Ziesch, Peggy Ann Lucas, Pamela Lindhold, Jane Baker, Edith Gayle Brown, and Marydene Halvorson.

Additional guests will be Mrs. A. V. Myers, Mrs. A. F. Ziesch, Mrs. Harry Lucas, Mrs. E. S. Lindhold, Mrs. Warren Baker, Mrs. Leon Brown, Mrs. Robert Halvorson, Mrs. A. E. Robins, Mrs. R. C. Hunter and Mrs. Harris Lietz.

Banquet For Methodist Youth

A banquet will be given at the First church for seniors in the Methodist Youth Fellowship on Monday night at 6:30 by the Women's Society of Christian service. The Rev. Roy A. Fedje will be the speaker.

Richard Cocking is to be toastmaster. Donna Jane Macklin and Grace will play a piano solo. Grace Widdows and Janice Middleton will play piano duets and Barbara Halvorson will lead the group in singing. Sally Smith will give a brief talk on the Maltese cross, emblem of the MYF around which the decorations will center.

A worship service is planned for after the banquet, with Sally Smith in charge. Joe Brazie will play the organ and Janice Middleton and Lois Ruecker will sing.

Nile Bridge Benefit

One of the larger social events of the week will be the spring bridge benefit for which members of the Salem club of Daughters of the Nile will be hostesses at the Masonic temple Tuesday.

Guests are asked to bring table accessories. Playing will begin at 2 o'clock. Additional guests are invited to call during the tea hour. Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. Thomas Luke of Portland, queen of Nydia temple, and Mrs. David Wright, a past queen. A group of Rainbow Girls will serve.
