cause he had no bell on his bicycle. And it seemed that all the best people had bells on their bicycles. After getting his son and heir out of hock, our furious father, who somehow didn't believe in good little boys being picked up by police, rode back and forth past the city hall on the same bicycle, daring to ing for rain last week anyway. All the little

MONDAY

TUESDAY

ish house

THURSDAY

tian church.

WEDNESDAY

seedlings were on a sitdown strike.

Old Weatherman. . . he had them cry-

. . . Maxinə Burən

CLUB CALENDAR

Past Regents, DAR, with Mrs. C. A. Sprague, 423 N. 14th st., 1

Theater Arts group with Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, 219 West Lin-

Woman's guild, First Congrega-tional church, 2 p.m. in church

Inn. 6 p.m.
St. Paul's guild and auxiliary joint meeting, covered dish luncheon, 1 p.m., Episcopal par-

Royal Neighbors of America, VFW hall.

Ladies of Grand Army of Re-public, all day meeting, YWCA, no-host luncheon at noon.

Raphaterians, 2.30 with Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert

Fellowship Day, Council of Church Women at First Congre-gational church, 10 a m

Miss Eleanor Roberts, chairman of the Emblem committee, announces that a large class of new Business & Professional Women will be initiated at the service to be held in the chamber of commerce Wednesday,

May 1, at 8 o'clock. New members will be introduced by Miss Effic Smith, membership chairman, and welcomed by Miss

Ida Mae Smith, club president.

The membership committee has charge of the decorations and the hospitality committee, whose chairman is Miss Irene Hollenbeck, is planning the refreshments. Participating in the ceremony will be Mrs. Effie Arehart.

Miss Ruth McAdams, Mrs. Anna

Morgan, Miss Phebe McAdams,

Mrs. Rose Devine, Miss Josephine Evans and Miss Helen

The program given by the First Presbyterian choir under the direction of Virginia Ward

Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph day afternoon will be repeated

Ceremony on

Wednesday

Woman's Council, First Chris-

PEP Teachers club, Cheerio be arrested!

Seating guests were Gordon

Mrs. Bell selected a black crepe dinner gown for her daughter's nuptials. Her flowers were deep pink camellias and lillies-of-the-valley. Mrs. Berg chose a lime crepe gown and a corsage of rhododendrons and

The newlyweds received their Mayflower room. Mrs. William friends at a reception in the E. Kirk presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Edmund O. Pratt, aunt of the bride, cut the tiered cake. Serving were the Misses

Mary Parker, Jane Mathers,

Geraldine Nelson and Delvon

Long. Mrs. Douglas Parker pass-

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride donned a chic black and white checked wool dressmaker suit with peg-top skirt and short fitted jacket,

She wore a white straw sailor, white gloves and black accessories. Her corsage was of white camellias. Lt. Berg and his bride went north to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., on their honeymoon. They will reside in Tacoma this summer while he completes his senior year at College

Au revoirs will be said this week to Mr. and Mrs. Thorne H.

Hammond and daughter, Patricia Kathryn, who are leaving Tuesday for Portland to make their home. They have taken a house at 2444; N. E. 40th street.

Mr. Hammond, who has been in dministrative assistant with the Portland since last month, is an Dobbs, duo pianists, last Sun-

Portland office of Oregon Phy- at the Portland art museum this lillies-of-the-valley.

At the Reception

ed the guest book.

of Puget Sound.

Park Keith and Victor Collins.

Panel Talk

The Salem Woman's club heard a panel discussion on Problem Countries conducted by members, at their Saturday

The panel was organized by Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff with Mrs. E. F. Carleton, chairman. Mrs. Claude Glenn discussed Yugoslavia; Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Iran; Mrs. R. B. Lesher, Palestine and Mrs. Carl Nelson, Korea.

At the business meeting over which Mrs. George Rossman presided Mrs. Ratcliff presented resolutions from the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's clubs. These resolutions endorsed by the Salem club pertain to the following: Endorsement of full participation by the United States in the U.N.O. and in special agencies for international cooperation; creation of an opium advisory commission; full cooperation in planning "Living Memorials"; creation of a new executive department to the president's cabinet to promote national health and welfare; to to aid in rehabilitation of war veterans; the continuance of the social protection division of the federal security agency; to approve the establishment of national policies for the creation of opportunities for employment; to support continued federal legislation for equitable wage and price control and last, to study all proposals for providing adequate defense and for training of men.

Mrs. J. M. Devers reported on the Marion County federation meting at Stayton. Mrs. Percy R. Kelly spoke in the interest of the building program of the local Y.W.C.A.. Note was made of the fact that the Salem Woman's club sponsored the YW in its early days here.

The social hour was in charge of Mrs. Claude H. Murphy who was assisted by Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. L. O. Arens, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. Harry J. Weidmer, Mrs. J. E. Kirk, Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, Mrs. J. M. Chambers, Mrs. Charles Strickfadden and Mrs. J. F. Swigart.

The tea table at which Mrs. Charles Cole and Mrs. F. A. Doerfler poured was covered with a lace cloth and centered with white lilacs, red tulips and Mrs. Sarah Chamberlain was hostess to the Happy Hour-Pinochle club Friday for a desluncheon and afternoon of cards. Guests were Mrs. Len. Wilkerson, Mrs. Archie Bones, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Todd Walker, Mrs. Fred Kuhn, Mrs. Herman Kortemeyer and Mrs. Harry White.

The Theatre Arts group, meeting at the home of Mrs. Bruce Spaulding on Tuesday afternoon, will hear recordings including the reading of "White Cliffs of Dover" by Lynn Fontanne and other selections.

Women Hear Don't Look Now ...

but 4. after carrying a gallon can of elder brother was held at the city hall begasoline around all during the war years, expecting any minute to run out, what with the gasoline ration so low, I never needed it. Then Friday night the dear little car sighed and stopped -- and the gallon of prewar stuff went into the tank and I can't decide whether to be ashamed or pleased.

History repeats. . . Hearing about bicycles being picked up by the police if they have no licenses, reminds us of one of the most chefished memories of our youth. A long time ago, maybe 35 years or more, our

Rosemary Bell Weds Naval Officer at Church Rites

A a beautiful spring wedding ceremony Saturday night Miss Rosemary Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd V. Bell, changed her name to Mrg. Walter L. Berg. Lt. (jg) Berg, just home from the Philippines, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berg of Tacoma. The First Congregational church was the setting for the 8 o'clock nuptials. The Rev. Seth Huntington officiated, Mrs. Craig Coyner sang "Because" and "Thine Alone" and Miss Alice Rose was Tacoma stood with the groom.

The altar and chancel rail were decorated with pink snapdragons, white stock and white tulips. The pews were marked with white tapets tied with white flowers. Lighting the tapers were Miss Geraldine Nelson and Miss Delvon Long, Alpha Chi Omega sorgrity sisters of the bride. They wore pink and blue frocks and on their single tall white tapers were pastel nose-

The petite brunette bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a white satin gown which she designed and made herself. The Jull, gored skirt over crinoline was hoop style and ended in a short train. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a wide pointed girdle outlined in satin braid and the long sleeves ended in points over the wrist. The neckling was sweetheart

Her full length net veil cascaded from a coronet of bouvardia and her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried a French nosegay of white stock, sweetheas and stephanotis encircled with a white net ruf-

The Bridal Farty

Immediately preceding the bride were her honor attendants, Mrs. Gordon Park Keith (Bar-bara Jean Fincent) and Miss Pearl Peterson of Portland. Next walked the bridesmaids, Miss Evelyn Collins of Corvallis and Miss Nadine Putnam of Seattle, cousin of the bride. The girls wore identical frocks of sheer nylon wool designed with deep scalloped necklines, little cap sleeves, full gkirts and fitted bodices. The honor attendants wore icicle Bue and the bridesmaids were of frosting pink. The girls wore velvet bands in their hair to match their frocks and cerried old fashioned nosegays of sweetpeas, stock, Cecile Brunker roses and bouvardia edged with net ruffles. Clasped around their necks were narrow velvet bands fastened with Cecile Brunner roses. Lt. (jg) Norman Anderson of

The Commercial Book Store

141 N. Commercial St.

Phone 4534

Salem, Oregon

Mrs. Craig to M Head Clubs

Elected at a meeting of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs at Stayton on Friday was Mrs. Hugh C. Craig, member of the Aumsville Woman's club, who will serve as president. Her staff includes Mrs. Hazel Yergen, Aurora, vice president; Mrs. Paul Griebenow, Salem Heights, secretary; Mrs. Maurice Heater, Union Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Alvin Hartley, Silverton Hills, auditor: Mrs. Donald Shythe, retiring president, of Mill City, and Mrs. J. M. Devers of Salem, directors.

The fall meeting is set for Union Hill.

Organist to Give Recital

Mrs. Ralph Dobbs is presenting Miss Alice Rose, junior in the Willamette university school of music, in organ recital Tuesday, April 30, at the First Presbyterian church. Miss Dorothy Detrick, soprano, accompanied by Miss Katherine Schissler, will assist at the 8 p. m. recital.

Miss Rose, member of Mu Phi Epsilon and of Alpha Chi Omega, is majoring in public school music. The first group in her program includes: "Psalmo XIX" by Marcello, "Largo" by Divalde-Bach, "Praeludium" in G mi-

Miss Detrick will sing: "Vedrai Carino" from Don Giovanni" by Mozart, "Have You Seen but a Whyte Lillie Grow?" by Jonson and "To a Hilltop" by Cox. The second organ group:

"Song of the Basket Weaver," Russell; "Dreams," McAmis; "Now Thank We All Our God," Karg-Elert. In the fourth group: "Benedictus," Reger; "The Squirrel," Weaver: "Toccata" on "O Filli et Filiae," Farnam.

By Maxine Buren

Special note should be made today, of changes of time for some radio programs. Indications are that clocks will not be changed in Oregon, so a checkup on program times should be Harvest of Stars is listed this では大は大は大は大は大は大は大は大は大は大は大は大 morning at 10 o'clock on NBC and will include an Indian medley sung by the Lyn Murray chorus with the orchestra under Howard Barlow, a Cadman number sung and "By the Waters of Minnetonka" sung by Mona Paulee, soprano and two other Indian numbers by the chorus and orchestra.

The hour of symphonic music will continue at noon, this time with the Columbia Broadcasting symphony playing under the direction of Valdimer Golschmann.

The General Motors hour is set for 1 o'clock on NBC and the orchestra will be directed by Dr. Frank Black. Isaac Stern will he violin soloist in Mendelssohn's violin concerto in minor opus 64. Included also in the orchestra's numbers will be "Finlandia".

The Sunday Evening hour on ABC is listed for 5 o'clock as usual and the Standard hour at 7:30 on NBC.

given tonight at the First Evan-gelical church at 7:45 by the A complete program will be Cascade college choir of Portland under the direction of W. R. Hallman. Numbers include the works of Beethoven, Christiansen, Vandenberg, Noble, Wilder and others. A group of Negro spirituals is included.

Word Comes of Wedding, South

Word has been received in Salem of the marriage of Lita G. Sills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tanner of Salem, to Glenn Duerre at the Baptist parsonage at Napa, Cal., on April 21.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore of Healdsburg, Cal. They will live at Santa Rosa

Members of the Little Garden club of Salem Heights, meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Louis Anderson, heard a discussion of primulacae led by Mrs.

Alvin Stewart, Mrs. C. A. Kells presided. Others present were Mcsdames Lewis Judson, Vern Bain, Monroe Barr, R. D. Cooper, Ralph Cartwright, Carl Harris, Charles Sawyer, H. R. Woodburn, F. J. Bradshaw, J. W. Douglas, Nellie Falk, Paul Griebenow, D. D. Dotson, Joseph Van Cleave and W. B. Johnston.

"Holly" Says:

fool you fellows; it will be like this all through life. Select your diamond how before the June rush starts-avoid the long tiresome waiting in line later on. Right now

Don't let the showers our stock is complete with just the right diamond at just the price you want to pay (and we won't try to up you, either).

Seriously, we do have a nice stock of fine diamonds -we will be glad to talk with you about them.

Jackson Jewelers 225 No. Liberty-Opposite Paramount Market

Buy time Furs

Ed Hamilton Furs

Are Four Seasons Furs

It's wise to buy enduring furs now! . . . Enduring fashions! . . . Enduring qualities!

Now that quality furs are considered four season furs, it's downright good judgement to select your fur coat now while prices are down to bedrock. Come see this great showing of Ed Hamilton furs tomorrow . . . invest now and save money!

-Natural Muskrat .......... $240, was $300 -Squirrel Locke ........... $239.20, was $299 -Northern Muskrat ............ $384, was $480 .... $384, was $480 -Russian Squirrel ...... $480, was $600 $680, was $850 -Persian Lamb ..... $1200, was $1500

... and many, many others from which to choose.

Tax Included

Exended Payments

Capital Drug Store Corner State and Liberty - Phone 3118

Buy several jars while great offer lasts-regular $1.00 2-02.

jar at half price. Money can buy no finer deodorant for checking perspiration 1 to 3 days. Delightfully spicy in fragrance, Fluffy texture. Stays soft, doesn't cake in jar. Vanishes on application. Harmless to sheerest fabrics.