Stocks End Losing Week

NEW YORK, May 4-(AP)-Stocks, with scattered exceptions, today by displaying further downward Orange, N. J.

As throughout the 6-day stretch, light selling was blamed mainly on the country's coal crisis, affecting widespread industries, and threats of a railway walkout. Good earnings, dividends and splitup prospects failed to inspire much bidding in the short session.

The turnover of 460,000 shares compared with 590,000 last Saturday. Closing declines ranged from 10 fractions to 2 or more points although extreme recessions were reduced here and there or replaced with minor gains.

The Associated Press 60-stock 14.95 at 78.1, its fourth successive dip, and for the week showed a net fore returning to this country. decline of 1.2 points.
