Carolyn Brown a Bride Today

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Miss Carolyn Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ivan Brown, will change her name to Mrs. Charles L. Otten this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Congregational church. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Otten of Topeka, Kansas, arrived Thursday for their son's marriage.

Dean Daniel Schulze will officiate before a spring setting of lilies and snapdragons. Lighting the tapers will be the bride's cousins, Miss Betty Lou Brown and Mrs. Gene Irons (Marilyn Wyatt). Wendell Johnson will play violin selections and Mrs. W. H. East will be the organist.

Mr. Brown will give his daughter in marriage. She will wear an exquisite Victorian model of white marquisette, fashioned with full skirt and fitted bodice. The high round neckline is edged with a row of orange blossoms and a wide ruffled bertha enhances the bodice. The skirt is designed with ruffling which begins in the front and forms a cascade of ruffles in the back. The long, full sleeves end in cuffs edged with orange blossoms.

For "something old" the bride is wearing her mother's fingertip length silk net veil held in place with a single band of orange blossoms and caught with a cluster of blossoms. She will wear marquisette mitts with a ruffled cuff outlined in orange blossoms and her small Victoria nosegay will be of gardenias, lilies of the valley and pink rapture roses edged with a net ruffle.

The Honor Attendant

Miss Jere Simmons will be honor maid. Her gown is of rust pink lace fashioned with a full skirt, long sleeves and a low rounded neckline. She will wear a blue flowered hat with blue grosgrain ribbon streamers and her blue bouquet will be of bachelor buttons, iris and sweetpeas.

Robert D. Brown, jr., cousin of the bride, will be best man and seating the guests will be Thomas Hill, jr., Ollie Williams and Reid Shelton.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Brown has chosen a navy blue sheer wool costume dress with which she will wear a white feathered hat and white accessories. Pinned to her shoulder will be a white orchid. Mrs. Otten will attend her son's marriage in a navy blue two-piece suit with pink accessories and pink orchids.

The newlyweds will receive at a reception in the fireplace room. The bride's table will be centered with a tiered cake encircled with lilies of the valley. Miss Lena Belle Tantar and Mrs. LuVerne Hardwick of Corvallis, aunt of the bride, will pour and Mrs. Robert W. Wyatt will cut her niece's cake. Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell is in charge of the dining room and Mrs. Ollie Williams will pass the guest book. Serving will be Mesdames Dean Trumbo, Arthur Thom of Portland, Harland Sheldon, Merie Hayes, Ewald Franz, the Misses Barbara Bentley, Marguerite Iverson, San Francisco, Dorothy Brown, Portland and Gladys Edgar.

After a trip to the coast the couple will drive east to Topeka to live. For traveling the bride will wear a chic brown wool tailleur with brown lizard shoes and bag, and a white straw hat trimmed with brown lilacs.

Let (ja) and Mrs. Walter L. Berg (Rosemary Bell) whose marriage took place on April 27 at the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd V. Bell and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berg, Tacoma. The couple will live in Tacoma this summer while he completes his studies at College of Puget Sound. He arrived several weeks ago from the Philippines.

Queen Paula I, left, pictured with her princesses, Virginia Case and Janice Patterson, who ruled over the 40th annual May weekend festivities on the Willamette university campus. Queen Paula, in private life Paula Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Smith of Stayton, received her floral crown from Betty Hanauka, last year's queen, at colorful ceremonies in the May court on the campus Saturday afternoon. Miss Case is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case and Miss Patterson is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Frank B. Patterson, all of Salem. Highlighting the traditional May coronation were the formation of a daisy chain by 40 sophomore women and the winding of the Maypole by the junior girls. A May weekend ball in honor of Queen Paula and her court was held Saturday night in the campus gymnasium, bringing the festivities to a close. (Kennell-Elliott photo).
