

Seen and Heard....

By Jeryme English

FOR QUEEN PAULA I... her Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters entertained at tea Thursday. Paula, Princess Jan Patterson and Virginia Case, and their mothers were a pretty picture in their pastel gowns and spring corsages. Noted a number of the faculty men who came to honor the queen and her court... Lovely garden flowers arranged about the rooms and centering the tea table a miniature May pole with flowers in the center... Mrs. Ernest C. Richards' white straw worn with her navy blue silk suit... Last year's queen, Betty Hanauksa, wearing a good-looking sky blue wool bolero jacket suit with draped skirt... Miss Marion Morange already making plans for a summer in Vermont and on to France to study... Mrs. E. P. Gerth from Atherton, Calif., to spend May weekend with her daughter, Mary Phyllis, smart in a print dress and black straw chapeau... Mary East all excited about going east in June to attend the Pi Phi convention at Swampscott, Mass.

OUT TO THE BALL PARK... A grand turnout for home opening of the Salem Senators on Tuesday... In the park box were Mrs. George Emigh, wife of the business manager, wearing a beige coat with brown hat with clusters of colored bows and flowers... and Mrs. Leo Edwards, the manager's wife, in a grey and white pin striped suit with black and white hat with black top coat... Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. George Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Klepper of Portland, the latter wearing a shiny black straw with white feather trim... The Andrew Cooks of Vancouver, Wash., and the William Garbarinos from Portland.

Spotted the Earl Snells, the George Flagg, she in black with a perky black shiny straw sailor...

Mayor I. M. Doughton and son, Wayne, the George Swifts, Cliff Parkers, George Alexanders and Robert Farrell... In another box were the Loring Schmidts, Harold Oliners, Vernon Perrys and the Clayton Foremans... the latter looking her usual chic self in a heaven blue suit with matching felt hat with blue pom pom feathers in front... W. W. Chadwick with his son-in-law and daughter, the Cedric Reaneys... Mr. and Mrs. James Humphrey with their two sons and the Charles Clarkes... Always enthusiastic when Spokane comes to town are Ken and Esther Manning, as Ken formerly played with the Spokane Indians...

FROM ACROSS THE OCEAN... comes news of the wedding of Major Farley Mogan and Nell Young, March 15 at Frankfurt, Germany... First in the morning a German service read by the German mayor of Frankfurt and under German laws... the mayor had practiced the words in English and was able to marry them in English and German and their papers are in both languages... At 5:30 this afternoon a wedding in the post chapel and a reception at the officer's club... As the couple left the church they ran down the steps to the waiting wedding carriage, which was drawn by two grey horses and a driver and footman in uniform with tall silk hats... the interior of the carriage was decorated with flowers... A gay drive to the club as their friends followed in jeeps... The Mogans left on their honeymoon by jeep, driving through Germany and France and seeing the sights... In Mulhouse, France they took the train to Switzerland and St. Moritz, the famous mountain resort, where they enjoyed skiing in the Alps for a week... At the hotel they met Baron and Baroness DeReuter, with whom they became friends... Baron DeReuter owns the Reuter News Agency, similar to our Associated Press... Enroute back to Germany they drove along the Rhine... The newlyweds have lots of movies and pictures of their wedding and trip to bring home this summer... also a sterling silver tea service with tray, which is handmade and bought by Farley's fellow officers in Holland.

DANCE NOTES... At the Town club dinner dance at the Marion hotel last week... Welcome home for Lt. and Mrs. Alex DeSchweinitz... Mr. and Mrs. Ward Davis... the Asa Lewellings... the Phil Brownells, she a brunette from Arkansas, wearing a red and green flowered silk jersey... Navy Lieutenant William Sheehy down from Portland, guest of his brother-in-law and sister, the Homer Goulets... Commander and Mrs. Maurice Crothers and Lt. Col. and Mrs. Eugene Laird... The Peter Bucks here from Portland, she in black and wearing a gorgeous purple orchid... Newcomers in the capital, the Joseph Stuchlers, he the concessions manager at the ball park... Lovely spring gowns... Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine's stunning silk crepe model of white printed with large purple flowers and green leaves... Mrs. Harvey Quistad's chic black frock with white eyelet bodice fashioned with peplum edged in black... Blonde Mrs. Wallace Hug wearing a white pique gown with white eyelet trim and white camellias in her hair... Mrs. Bruce Williams in a pastel flowered print silk with soft blue girdle... and Kathryn Foreman's dashing plaid taffeta in shades of blue and red with a huge bow at the hipline.

Invitations were in the mail this week for a one o'clock bridge luncheon for which Mrs. Abner K. Kline will be hostess at the Normandy Manor on May 15 in honor of her sister, Mrs. Viola B. Shaffer.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs.

Nuptials to Be Read at Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ruecker will be the setting tonight for the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Galen Blackmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Blackmore of El Dorado, Kansas. The Rev. H. W. Gross will perform the rites at 8:30 o'clock before an all white setting of snapdragons and lilacs with candles arranged on the mantle. Miss Lois Ruecker will sing "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" at her sister's wedding. Miss Irene Roemhildt will be the pianist.

The bride, who will enter on the arm of her father has chosen a white bridal gown of nylon twill fashioned with a full skirt which terminates in a short train, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and buttons down the back. Her fingertip length tulle veil will cascade from a half hat caught with stephanotis. She will carry a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Judith Jensen will be maid of honor. Her gown is of pink satin with a full net skirt and half hat will be of pink. She will carry a bouquet of rose tulips. Wilfred Ruecker will stand with the groom as best man.

A Friendship Tea Slated Friday

One of the largest affairs scheduled for the coming week will be the world friendship tea for which members of the Salem Council of Church Women and the YWCA will be hostesses on Friday, May 10 at the Salem Woman's club from 2 to 5 o'clock. The affair will honor all women of Salem and vicinity who were born outside the United States. Invitations were in the mail last week to the honor guests. All interested persons are invited to attend the tea.

The program will be from 2 to 3:30 and the tea hour will be from 3:30 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. L. H. Randle is president of the Salem Council of Church Women and Mrs. O. I. Paulson, sr. of the board of directors of the YWCA. Mrs. C. W. Stacey is general chairman of the tea.

The honor guests will be introduced and a program, representing different nationalities, will be presented. The program is as follows: Mrs. Sam Neufeldt, vibra harp; Delia Saabye, Danish song; Miss Ruth Field, talk on Tibet; Miss Carmela Navarro, Mexican folk dance; Sophi and Mary Polales, vocal duet; Ruth Holtzman, reading; entertainment from Chemawa Indian school; an Irish Jig; Patsy Fitzsimmons, piano solo; Anita Aguilar, baton twirling; and Hurdie Michelson, Norwegian song. Music for the tea hour will be furnished by an accordion quintet from the Meisenger-Wiltsey studio and by Mrs. Sam Neufeldt on her vibra harp.

Pouring at the tea hour will be Mesdames L. H. Randle, S. B. Fong, C. W. Parker and Earl Shreve. Serving will be Mesdames George Rhoten, Waldo Zeller, Leslie Carson, Oscar Luidahl, Floyd McNeil and Arnold Pederson.

The committees include: Mrs. Roy Genre and Mrs. Neil Brown, program; Mrs. W. A. Barkus and Mrs. Julia Kotts, flowers and tea table; Mesdames U. G. Shipley, L. J. Stewart, T. S. Mackenzie, B. F. Shoemaker, James B. Manning and Esther Little, hospitality; Mesdames J. J. Nunn, Mason Bishop, A. A. Schramm, Zella James and E. W. Stripling, refreshments.
