Price of May Rye Driven Down Limit

CHICAGO, May 7 -(AP)- May rye ran into profit cashing during the last hour of trading today which uncovered stop loss selling that drove the price down the full five-cent daily limit at the Strong at the opening, the price advanced on the strength of a daily limit advance at Minneapolis. Traders watched the Winnipeg price decline the full limit before partial recovery developed there.

Toward noon some light profit cashing uncovered stop loss orders. Prices held fairly well for a time, but toward the close there were no takers

At the close, wheat, corn and barley held at their respective ceilings, $1.8312, $1.2112 and $1.261/2. Oats were unchanged to 16 higher than yesterday's close, May 83. Rye was unchanged to 5 cents lower, May $2.77%

Stock Market in Rally Tuesday

NEW YORK, May 7 -/P)- The stock market rallied today, on the anniversary of victory in Europe, as hopes for a break in the coal strike stalemate revived.

Not overlooked by cautious confingents, though, was the fact that the big bull swing was now in its fifth year and that, since the surrender of the nazis, the Associated Press over-all average had climbed 13.5 points and quoted values increased roughly $15,000,-000,000.
