Miss Reidy Announces Betrothal

Today's romantic news concerns the engagement and coming marriage of Miss Honora Reidy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Reidy, to Louis B. Hodak of Detroit, Mich., son of Mrs. Catherine Hodak of Detroit. The wedding of the couple will take place at St. Benedict's Catholic church in St. Joseph on June 29.

The announcement was made known Sunday afternoon at an at-home for which the bride-elect and her cousin, Miss Ann Gearin, were hostesses at the Reidy home. Guests called between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Little cards in envelopes bearing the names of the engaged couple and date were hidden in the napkins. The table centerpiece was of white iris and bouvardia flanked by white tapers. Other spring bouquets were used about the rooms. Mrs. James Frederick Reidy assisted the hostesses informally.

Bidden to Party
Bidden to the announcement party were Mrs. Floyd Rudie of Corvallis, Mrs. Melvin Dunstan and Mrs. Curtis Coleman of Newberg, Mrs. John Enschede and Mrs. Fred Gearin of Donald, Miss Frangetta Mitchell of Oregon City, Miss Berniece Davidson, Miss Maxene Coleman, Mrs. Cornelius Gearin, Miss Beth Holcomb, Miss Adeline Coffey, William Norlander, all of Portland, Mrs. Carl Noeski of Seaside and Mrs. Charles Gooding of St. Paul.
