In answer to a number of inquiries, the Harland Clift here with Yakima in the last home series is the same third baser who had almost 10 years of major league service with the St. Louis Browns and Washington Nationals. In fact, Clift played the hot corner for Washington last year and was the gent largely responsible for that lateseason Nat drive which almost copped the American league pennant. He heated up to rap nine homers in 12 days . . Baseball being the battle for positions it is this year, Clift didn't go back to the Nats. Instead, he asked to stay on his cattle ranch near Yakima, which he calls his hobby, and to play for the home-town nine. And we might add that it's too bad his ranch isn't located near

Many Attend 36-Hole International Golf Duel Opens Today Edwards Rites

Final services for the late Salem Senators Manager Leo (Frisco) Edwards were held yesterday at the Clough-Barrick chapel and at Belcrest Memorial park. The funeral was one of the largest ever attended in Salem, according to Dr. L. E. Barrick of the funeral home, as many of the baseball man's thousands of friends came to pay final respects. The dozens of floral pieces amounted to as many, during "the last thousand funerals" handled by the parlor.

Dr. Seth Huntington of the First Put on Teams Congregational church officiated and burial rites were conducted by Commander Ike Bacon and other members of Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, of which Edwards was a member. Senators players, plus Portland Beaver officials Bill Klepper, Mary Owen, set the opening game in the "B" Bill Garbarino and Ted Gullic and Salem Business Manager George Cleveland Indians to five hits to Emigh were active and honorary hurl the champion Detroit Tigers pallbearers.

Soderburg Winner; Wyatt vs. Anderson In Tonight's Tilt

Long and likeable Ted Gullie the veteran Portland Beaver all around man the past three years who was named manager of the Senators late yesterday afternoon, last night waded into his debut as a skipper by smacking out a tenth inning single to coral his deter-mined charges a 5-4 victory over the Vancquver Capilanos. Big Ted, the man the Solons wanted as successor to departed Frisco Edwards had himself in the lineup at thir base. And he had quite a night for himself as a starter.

After the 20-year baseball veteran delivered vocally to the Senators before game time, asking of them the same determination and nustle they gave Manager Frisco, he almost personally pushed them into the win column in the first of the eight-game series with Sylvester Johnson's athletes.

Gullic "brained" in the first Salem run in the second when, after George Vico doubled and went to third on Ted's hard single to left, he manegvered Cap Server Ray Orteig into a balk to force in Vice, Gullic's sacrifice and Orteig's wild throw on the bunt after Hal Summers had singled in the fourth brought in another Solon tally. Then in the tenth after Vico led off with a line single to right and Summers pasted a drive against the left field fence to send Vice to third, Ted pasted Orteig's first pitch into left for the ball game. It was quite a splash the new skipper made in his tough job et replacing Manager Frisco. And If the cheers rendered him last night by the shivering gathering of 1202 is an indication, Gullic will be a popular shepherd for Frisco's

Thin Man Steve Gerkin started out with Orteig and pitched well enough to win his eighth game of the season. But awry Salem fielding, the same kind that has plagued the club the past few weeks, daused three unearned runs of the four Vancouver got off Steven. Two outfield errors amounted to the three tallies, and up until the last of the ninth it looked as if Gerk was to take a Orteig and his blazer had the Solons on his hip despite the fact that the Ex-Carl Mays baseball schooler was himself victimized by two unearned runs. But in the ninth he practically walked himself right out of the ball game with free tickets to Ted Kerr and Pinch-hitter Woody Salmon, batting for Gerkin. Up came Vern Reynolds, more new blood for the townies at second base, and he pasted a sharp single to center to score Kerr, deadlocking the ras-

Tonight it's to be Lefty Ken Wyatt for Salem against another fireballer, this one Hunk Anderson, recently shipped to the Caps by Seattle, Last night's game was preceded by a brief ceremony in memory of Manager Frisco. The center field flag will fly at half staff all week in his honor.

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. J., May 28.-(AP)-There is always an explosion of one sort or another going off in a Billy Conn training camp. Today's sizzler was a nice quiet brawl between Johnny Ray, Billy's manager, and Promoter Mike Jacobs.

The rhubarb between Johnny and Mike began with Ray asking for some tickets within radar distance of the Yankee stadium ring for "Junior's" June 19 jame boree with Louis.

Before it was over, Johnny had charged Jacobs with being "Louis' manager and protector." and the next step was for Mike to order Ray out of his offices and leave instructions to bar him whenever he makes an appearance in the future.
