Tension Eased, Idaho River Starts Retreat

BONNERS FERRY, Idaho, June 1—(AP)—An air of confidence pervaded this area tonight as the swollen Kootenai river, which had threatened dikes guarding 40,000 acres of crop land, receded after crawling to within less than a foot of the tops of river barriers.

The river had dropped to 29 feet this evening, one foot, and three inches under yesterday's crest, and Capt. Ray D. Besing, army officer who has been aiding in the battle against the river said "Unless we have heavy rains, it looks like we'll be all right."

The 90 miles of dikes still held firm and the crews of tired farmers and volunteers, many of whom have gone sleepless while battling numerous leaks in the silty dikes, were promised relief from another quarter.

Democratic State Central Committee to Meet

PORTLAND, June 1—(AP)—The democratic state central committee will meet here Saturday to consider a new constitution and by-laws.

A dispute over distribution of funds between the women's division and the general party was foreseen. Celia Gavin, state vice chairman, asserted the 50-50 split of funds had been eliminated from the by-laws up for adoption.

engineers from Fort Lewis, Wash., were to take over part of the work after being dispatched to Bonners Ferry in convoy.

DAV to Hold Annual Vote

Disabled American Veterans, Salem chapter 6, will hold its annual election at 8 p.m. Friday at the Salem Woman's club, with all new members particularly asked to report for initiation.

Delegates to the state convention also will be elected. The state convention will be at Pendleton June 19-22. Charles M. Peterson has been nominated for commander.

Verne Ostrander, chairman for the building committee, reported Saturday that all plans have been laid for an extensive drive for

Krug Sees Early Mine Restoration

WASHINGTON, June 1—(AP)—Secretary of the Interior Krug predicted early restoration of soft coal mines to their owners under contracts like the government's pact with John L. Lewis — and a 25-cent a ton increase in coal prices to the public.

Krug, federal administrator of the seized mines, expressed belief that some operators would "reach agreement within a week or two" with the AFL United Mine Workers.

Preparation of Food For Locker Is Planned At Three Demonstration

Three demonstrations on preparing food for the frozen locker have been scheduled for the first week in June by the home demonstration agent's office. On Tuesday, June 4, the first demonstration will be given at the Rebecca hall in Hubbard at 1:30. On Thursday, June 6, at 1:30 a similar demonstration will be held in the cafeteria of the Eugene Field school in Silverton. On Friday, June 7, at 1:30 the third demonstration will be given at the YMCA in Salem. The demonstrations will include the preparation of fruits and vegetables for freezing.

Contracts Awarded

Contracts for construction of two bridges on The Dalles-California highway near Chiloquin was awarded by the state highway commission Saturday to Angelo A. Doveri, Klamath Falls, on a low bid of $49,969.50. There were three bids submitted for the job.
