Pirates Attack U.S.S. Chief Joseph

WASHINGTON, June 3—(AP)—The stranded American Liberty ship Chief Joseph was attacked recently by 60 Chinese pirates on the north China coast, the navy said tonight.

An American destroyer from Tsingtao went to the rescue after the pirates had been beaten off in a first attack, the navy added.

The ship had gone aground at Shitau bay when the attack occurred.

The Liberty ship was a Portland built ship launched in 1942 by four Indian girls of the Chema-wa Indian school, Salem.

Nominations Open for New Legion Officers

First nominations for 1946-47 officers of American Legion Post No. 9 were made at a meeting Monday night in the Legion hall.

Rex Kimmel was the lone nominee for commander of the post. Other positions and nominees were:

First vice commander, James Turnbull and Lawrence Osterman. Second vice commander, Charles Huggins and James Garvin. Adjutant, Art Johnson. Finance officer, James Lewis. Historian, Irl McSherry. Chaplain, T. V. Richardson. Quartermaster, Jack Edwards. Sgt.-at-arms, Donald Apperson. Building committee, Mose Palmateer. Executive committee, I. N. Bacon, Walter Kirk, Buckler Lewellen, Dick Meyers and Austin Wilson.

Nominations were also opened for delegates to the state convention in Portland in July.

Prosecution Opens Fire in Jap War Trials

TOKYO, Tuesday, June 4—(AP)—Prosecution of Japan's top militarists as war criminals "will be no ordinary trial," but part of a battle "to preserve the entire world from destruction," Allied Chief Prosecutor Joseph B. Keenan told the international tribunal today, in his 55-page opening statement as the prosecution opened its cases against the 26 Japanese defendants.

CHIANG, MARSHALL TO MEET

NANKING, Tuesday, June 4—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who must choose between peace and civil war for his stricken nation, scheduled an important conference today with General Marshall, special U. S. envoy to China. Chiang and Marshall were expected to spend most of the day going over the Manchurian situation.

Vote Split in French Ballot

PARIS, June 3—(AP)—The socialist party, despite its losses in yesterday's election, appeared today to have retained its strong position in the direction of France's provisional government.

While the moderate popular republican movement (MRP) ousted the communists as France's largest single party, the basic factor dominating French postwar politics remained: That no single party is large enough in itself to command a majority in the assembly, and thus a coalition government is the only formula.
