Miss Lois Hammer a Bride

The First Congregational church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Lois Hammer. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hammer, to Edward Neufeldt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Neufeldt, on June 1 at 4 o'clock. Jean Hobson Rich, sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." Miss Anna Neufeldt, sister of the groom, and by her father, wore an ivory of the Multnoman hotel at 4 o'clock. satin gown fashioned with a gathered bedice, long sleeves going from Salem for the rites. which ended in points over the Dr. Menry Berkowitz officiated wrists and a court train. Her at the ceremony and F. W. Goodtulle veil was fingertip length rich was the pianist. and she carried an orchid with satin streamers marked with improvised altar at one end of To Marry orange blossoms.

Mrs. Eric Prebilsky, sister of changed their vows beneath a the groom, and Miss Dorothy Holcanopy of white peonies, delphinlis were the attendants. They wore jum, iris, snapdragons and gladiblue gowns and corsages of gar- oluses flanked by tall white tapers denias and sweet peas. Mr. Prebilsky was best man press trees and fern resembling and ushers were Roy Hammer, a garden scene Large bouquets of uncle of the bride and Clarence the same flowers were arranged in the corners. On either wall in Mrs. Jack McNeil cut the cake ered scrolls of white peonies. The ceremony. and Mrs. Earl Hammer presided bridal party entered through a at the punch bowl. Mrs: Roy Ham- bower of the same flowers and

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hammer wore an aqua crepe entered on the arm of her father, gown and Mrs. Neufeldt wore a wore an exquisite white satin Vic-

For travelling the bride chose ted bodice embellished with cryse check suit with black coessories tal and pearl embroidery. The and an orchid corsage. The couple petal shaped neckline was also will live in Coquille where he edged in the embroidery. The is manager of a Safeway store. sleeves were long and the full The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and her husband was released from the marines a year

Miss Florence Wallace is leav-Calif., for a visit with her sisterin-law, Mrs. Charles Wallace. She lanopsis orchids. will be away ten days.

Judge and Mrs. Claude McCollach of Portland were visitors in Salem Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, sr.

Ladies of the Keizer Sewing beaded in lavender and silver and club will meet all day Thursday she wore long purple gloves and at the home of Mrs. Ben Claggett. carried geranium blossoms and A no-host luncheon will be served stock in shades of orchid and pink at noon to be followed by quilting with a hair ornament to match. and a white elephant sale

Pre-War DELAICE DIS Watch Repairing

Diamond Setting

Jewelry Manufacturing

ore Hours: 9.30 to 6 P.M.

Society Clubs Music The Home

MAXINE BUREN JERYME ENGLISH Women's Editor Society Editor

The Rev. Sam P. Nessfeldt, cou-sin of the groom, performed the Ralph Schlesinger Takes double ring ceremony. Miss Ar-lene Hilflicker, accompanied by Bride at Sunday Rites

One of the largest weddings of the season took place in Portland Miss Elnore Francisco lighted the Sunday afternoon when Miss Bernice Weiner, daughter of Mr. and quets of spring flowers will be Mrs. Joshua Weiner, became the bride of Ralph D. Schlesinger, son The bride, given in marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Max D. Schlesinger of Salem, in the grand ballroom

Five hundred guests attended the nuptials with over a hundred in wrought iron candelabras, cy-

The petite, brunette bride, who skirt ended in a court train.

Bloomberg, as matron of honor.

Her gown was of mist rose chifwith matching hair ornaments.

Atlanta, Ga., for the wedding.

MARK'S MARKET

Corner Church and Hood

Announces

OPEN for BUSINESS

This food market formerly known as Wilbur's Grocery has been closed for several days to get installed in our new building. We thank all our patrons for their patience in waiting for our opening and for the interest shown in our new undertaking.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. 15.

was ring bearer.

The Bridal Party

sticks.

Miss Bates All white flowers decorated the rr the ballroom. The couple ex-

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Bates are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Bargara Ellen, to ville, Va.

The wedding will take place Thursday night, June 6 at the A reception was held in the the large windows were green the Rev. Oscar N. Brown of Rosefireplace room after the nuptials. panels decorated with white flow- dale Friends church reading the Following a wedding trip the bride-elect. couple will be at home in Port-Serving were Misses Beverly Mc, with white roping and single white employed. He just recently re- Charles A. Sprague, Stuart Mc- the Rev. C. Alton Brostrom offi-Cabe, Vonna Martin and Shirley tapers in tall wrought iron candle- ceived his discharge from the Elhinny, Robert Burns, Misses ciating.

Weiner selected an ice blue crepe dinner gown slightly entrain torian gown fashioned with a fitwhich was ornamented with silver sequin flowered sprays outlined in silver beads. The long sleeves were enhanced with the sequin flowers at the wrist. She wore pink phaelanopsis orchids in her hair. Mrs. Schlesinger attended her son's marriage in a silver Be Feted Her flowing veil of illusion was ornamentated with tiny circles of blue crepe dinner gown printed seed pearls. The veil cascaded with flowers in shades of fuchsia, from a high peaked, coronet of grey and purple. The skirt was illusion and petal embroidered in draped and ornamented at the ing by plane today for Fresno, seed pearls. She carried a white waistline with sequins. She also Bible showered with white phae- wore pink phaelanopsis orchids in her hair. Mrs. C. Weiner of Baltimore, Md., who came by plane Preceding the bride to the altar for her granddaughter's wedding. was the groom's sister, Mrs. Saul wore a black gown to which was pus. pinned a purple orchird.

Dinner Dance Follows

fon designed with a Grecian bo-The wedding dinner for the dice and full skirt. The girdle was scheme was further carried out ty Randall and Ann Strother. in the table decorations. The long The bridesmaids were Miss tables were centered with small charge Shirley Rotstein of Chicago, Miss bowls of white gladioluses, snap-affair. dragons and stock and white ta-Bess Weiner of Montreal, Canada, Miss Gloria Taub and Mrs. Eric pers. The tiered wedding cake Goldenberg of Portland, who wore identical frocks of moon blue with centered the bride's table where A Supper immediate family were seated. taffeta bodices and full net skirts. The gowns were made with sweet- Large bouquets, of white flowers heart necklines and three-quarter and white tapers in silver candelalength sleeves. They all carried bras flanked the cake. A string bouquets of geranium blossoms ensemble played during the dinand stock in shades of magenta ner hour. Dancing followed in the grand ballroom to Ron Salt and an informal supper party Wed-

Theodora Schlesinger, niece of his orchestra. The couple flew to Vancouver the groom, was flower girl. She wore a pink sheer frocks and car- and Victoria, B. C., on their wedried a small bouquet of lavender ding trip. For travelling the bride stock with a cluster of the same donned a chic wool tailleur of ments of late spring flowers will flowers in her hair. Alan Sey- navy blue with lime jacket lined mour Weiner, the bride's nephew, in white with hand painted roses to match the blouse of her suit. Sol Schlesinger stood with his Her accessories were navy and brother as best man. Ushers were she wore a scarf of natural Rus-Sidney Schlesinger, also a broth- sian sables. Her corsage was of er of the groom, Saul Bloomberg, white phaelanopsis orchids.

Abe M. Weiner and Mel Silver- Mr. Schesinger and his bride man, who came by plane from will be at home in Salem at the nor Trindle and the hostess. Devereaux apartments after June

Brides-elect Are Honor Guests

June brides-elect are the incentive for much entertaining these

Miss Lorraine Murdock and Miss Clarice Bugselle will entertain Wednesday night at the latter's home on Stewart street for the pleasure of Miss Elizabeth Bruckman, bride-elect of Leighton Fairham, USNR.

- Bridge will be in play during the evening with a late supper following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. Bouused about the rooms.

Honoring Miss Bruckman will be the Misses Marilyn Nelson, Leona Tingelstad, Mary Bruckman, Edith Fairham, Thelma Wil- Liberty st., no-host luncheon, noon, cox, Donna Shafer, Bernice Bowersox. Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. Douglas Baker and the hostesses.

For Nancy Wallace Mrs. Brown E. Sisson and her Portland of daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Sisson, were hostesses for a smartly arranged bridal party Monday night at their Center, street home Joseph W. Ridgeway, jr., of Band- in honor of Miss Nancy Wallace, June bride-elect of Lt. (jg) Robert Gormsen

A dessert supper was served with guests seated at individual home of the bride's parents with tables centered with bouquets of mer Salem residents, to Robert A pastel spring flowers. The evening hours were spent informally and a kitchen shower feted the Honoring Miss Wallace were Mabel P. Robertson, Kit Feuille of Seattle, Joan Remington, Donna Eleanor Brostróm played the wed-Duffy, Sarah Ann Ohling, Roberta Jean Yocom and Marianne Low bridegroom from Cairo, Egypt, and the hostesses.

Seniors to

Mrs. Daniel Schulze will open chids. her country place on Hanson ave- Mrs. Olin Attendant nue Wednesday night to the Delentertain in honor of the gradua-Willamette university cam-

An outdoor supper will be servplace at 5:30 o'clock The honor guests will be the newlyweds and guests was held Misses Miriam Day, Virginia and ushers were Gideon Rudberg.

in the assembly room after the Case, Ruth Farmer, Lovicy Jones, O. L. Withrow. Kenneth Jones ceremony. The all white color Mary Nims, Janice Patterson, Bet- and Fred Schafer. Mrs. Edwin L. McEwen is in tables were centered with small charge of arrangements for the

Mrs. Kenneth Hanson has in vited a group of her friends to nesday night at 6:30 o'clock at her new home on Saginaw street. After the supper hour contract bridge will be in play. Arrangeprovide the decorative note.

Covers will be placed for Mesdames Melvin T. Hurley, of Richmond, Calif., Norman Nelson of Lexington, Manfred Olson, Wheeler R. English, Roswell Beach, Harold Shogren, Misses Julia Johnson of Chicago, Elea-

Picnic to Honor High Point Women

This afternoon a picnic honoring sophomore women of Willamette university, who have the highest qualifying grade point averages of their class, will be held at Silver Creek Falls by Cap and Gown, senior women's scholastic honorary. Women to be honored are Kay Karnopp, Joyce Furman, Evelyn Jory, Lora Ellen Bates, Frances Sopp, Roberta Besul, Ruth Bain, Winona Dillard and Maxine Mey-

Faculty guests will be Dr. Helen Pearce, who will speak, Dean Olive M. Dahl, advisor of the group, and Miss Lois E. Latimer. Cap and Gown members are Delvon Long, president; Dorothy Hoar, Jane Fitzsimmons, Ann Strother and Miriam Day.

Miss Carmen Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Van Wieder, who has completed her junior year at Mills college, is expected home on June 11. She is now visiting in San Diego with one of her classmates, Miss Sterling Loftin.

Mrs. M. P. Adams will be a hostess this afternoon at her country place for the first meeting of her summer bridge club. A salad luncheon will precede several hours of cards.

GIRLS ENTERING WOMANHOOD...

This great medicine is famous to relieve pain, nervous distress and weak, 'dragged out' restless feelings, of 'certain days'—When due to func-tional monthly disturbances, LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE

CASTLE PERM. WAVERS

OPERATORS—ZANA, BLANCHE AND ETHEL Phone Your Appointments Now CLUB CALENDAR

TUESDAY Missouri club auxiliary, with Mrs. Wade Weekly, 790 South st., 2 p.m. Chadwick chapter, OES, Masonic Temple, 8 p.m.

WEDNESDAY Pythian Sisters, 248 North Commercial st., 8 p.m.

Presbyterian church circle meetings. Women's guild, First Congregational church, Eric Butler home, Halsey Road, p.m. covered dish picnic luncheon. p.m. covered dish picnic lu Woman's auxiliary and St. guild, St Paul's Episcopal parish house, 12:30 luncheon and meeting. WSCS of Leslie Methodist church, with Mrs. J. S. Murray, 390 East Washington st., 2 p.m.

Woman's council groups, First Christian church, 11:30.

Degree of Honor covered dish din-ner. Salem Woman's club, 6:30 p.m. Raphaterians with Mrs. Ray Smith, 1895 Center st. 2:30 p.m.
Ladles of Keizer Sewing club, all day, with Mrs. Ben Claggett, no-host luncheon.

Sojourners, dessert bridge, Salem
Woman's club, 1 p.m.
Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club with Mrs O. L. Scott, 1560 S.

Nuptials in Interest

Of interest to the many Salem friends of the bride is news of the marriage of Miss Ruby Eastman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eastman of Portland, for-Clark, jr. of Pelham Manor, New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Clark, also of Pelham Manor. The ceremony took place Saturday night, June 1 at the Englewood mer presided at the coffee urn. walked down the aisle marked land where Mr. Ridgeway is to be Mesdames Paul B. Wallace, Christian church in Portland with fic City.

> Harvey Adams sang and Miss Unruh, Delphine Riney, Florence ding march. The ceremony followed the return of the bride and where they were serving with the American diplomatic corps.

The bride, given in marrige by her father, wore a traditional white satin dress with full tulle veil edged with Madagascar lace falling from a tiara of seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis, roses and white or-

Mrs. Daniel D. Olin of Salem. ta Gamma alumnae when they matron of honor, wore a blue marquisette dress with short veil o ting seniors of Delta Gamma on matching tulle. Bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Schumann and Miss Clare Combs, who wore dusty pink faille frocks with matching veils. ed in the garden by the fire- They all carried bouquets of roses and delphinium.

> Daniel D. Olin was best man A wedding reception followed in the church parlors. The newlyweds have gone to the east coast and Niagara Falls on their honeymoon. They will live in Arlington, Virginia for a year while he is in Washington, D. C. and then will be sent to Paris. He is continuing his work with the diplomatic corps.

A Dessert Lüncheon

Mrs. U. Scott Page will preside at a smartly arranged dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon at her North Summer street home for the pleasure of Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, who has come west from her new home in Chicago for the wedding of her daughter, Miss Roberta Jean Yocom, on June 8. After the luncheon hour, conract bridge will be in play. The hostess will use early summer garden flowers for decorating.

Sixteen of Mrs. Yocom's intimate friends have been invited to the

Contest Winners Announced

Winners of the annual Iva F. Turner Memorial contest held Saturday night at Waller hall were Donna Jane Macklin, violin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Macklin, and Jewell Gueffroy, piano, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Gueffroy.

Miss Macklin is the pupil of Mary Schultz Duncan and Miss Gueffroy is the pupil of Mrs. David Eason.

The girls receive a cash award and will play at the State Music Teachers convention at the past president's concert in Portland on June 10 and 11. The contest is administered by the Oregon State Music Teachers association.

Lancefields Feted

Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Lancefield will be honored at an at home ter of Mrs. D. C. Vaughan and Wednesday night at the Center the late Dr. Vaughan, became street residence of Dr. and Mrs. the bride of Emery E. Hendrick-Kenneth Power. Assisting the son, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Powers as hosts will be Dr. and E. Hendrickson, sr., at an after-Mrs. A. Terrence King, Dr. and Mrs. Vern W. Miller and Mrs. First Presbyterian church at 1:30 Wolcott E. Buren.

Over a hundred guests have been invited to call between 7 and 10 o'clock to welcome home the Lancefields, who recently returned from a two years stay in San Diego, while he was stationed there with the navy.

Assisting the hosts informally will be Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. George and delphinium.

with Lt. (jg) Snell in Maryland apartment of the bride's mother. and Washington, D. C. for the Mrs. Vaughan wore a pastel blue past month. Lt. Snell is now sta- gown with white accessories and mount Hill home of his parents, tions. Gov. and Mrs. Earl Snell.

FROM OUR

PYREX WARE COUNTER

...THAT WILL THRILL HER

NOW AND PLEASE

HER LATER!

WEDDING AND

SHOWER GIFTS

This handsome Pyrex Cake Dish is grand for baking layer easily because food won't stick to satin-smooth glass. 35¢ cakes. Can be used for cooking, serving, and storing. Washes

The Pyrex Utility Dish above should be in every bride's kitchen.

Cooks grand roasts, chops, hot breads, cakes and a dozen other luscious things. 2 sizes. Larger size, only 65¢

Satisfaction guaranteed SEAR

The Oregon Statesman, Salem, Ore., Tuesday, June 4, 1946—3

Rites Read At Church

Miss Audrey Vaughan, daughnoon ceremony on June 2 at the o'clock. The Rev. Chester W. Hamblin officiated and David Copeland was the organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Ellis Vaughan, wore a pastel blue gabardine suit with white hat and accessories. Her flowers were red rosebuds.

Miss | Cherie Raines was the Weller. The buffet table in the bride's only attendant, wearingdining room will be centered with a suit of aqua with white accesan all white arrangement of roses sories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and gardenias.

Henry Hendriekson, uncle of Mrs. William Earl Snell arrived the bridegroom, was his best man. in Salem last Thursday from the A reception for close friends east coast where she has been was held at the Royal Court tioned at Cherry Point, North pink carnations, and Mrs. Hen-Carolina. Mrs. Snell and their drickson wore an ivory gown. twin children are at the Fair- white accessories and pink carna-

The young couple both attended Salem schools. The bride at-Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Chambers tended Oregon State college and and son, David, and Mr. and Mrs. her husband served in Europe Richard Chambers have returned with the army for three years. from a several days stay at Paci-| Following a trip to Ontario, Canada, they will live in Salem.

The Highlight group of the Junior Catholic Daughters held a banquet Tuesday, May 28 at the Salem hotel. After the banquet the girls presented a going away gift to Mrs. John E. Manthe, who was leaving for Lebanon. Mrs. Ray D. . Whelan was welcomed as the new

Additional Society on Page 10

WHAT'LL WE DO FOR SOAP THIS

LADY, YOU CAN HELP GET MORE SOAP. JUST SAVE

GEE, MOM, IT'S LOTS EASIER NOW-AND DON'T FORGET, WE GET 44 FOR EVERY

Where there's fatthere's soap

KEEP TURNING IN USED FATS TO HELP MAKE MORE SOAP

A Necessity for Your Kitchen Enameled All Metal KITCHEN STOOL

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back \LAK\

24" Height

484 State St.

A comfortable and convenient all metal kitchen stool for use throughout the house. Semi-tubular legs are flared at bottom to guard against tipping. Bright, baked-on enamel finish. Seat is 12 Inches in diameter. All edges are smoothly rounded. Assembled.

> Support the YWCA Building Compaign Give Generously

484 STATE ST.

WE'LL BE SEEING YOU

THANKS AGAIN! Mark and Marian Wilbur