

Valley Briefs Model Planes To Fly Today

Silverton—(Special)—Mrs. Felix Wright, who has been confined to the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland following an operation, is expected to return to her home here early in the week and Mr. and Mrs. Wright will leave Tuesday or Wednesday for a several weeks motor trip through eastern Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Washington where Wright will inspect some of the turkey flocks he hatched and shipped from his Silverton plant.

Silverton—(Special)—Members of the Silverton Rotary club will gather after their Monday luncheon on the lawn of Dr. R. E. Kleinsorge to make the annual presentation of the calf and sheep to the outstanding FFA boys for the past year. Leonard Hudson and Elmer Lorence are in charge.

BIBLE SCHOOL PLANS
SILVERTON, June 7—(Special) The Bible school held at the grade school during the past school year and sponsored by the Silverton Ministerial association had a total of 486 pupils from the first six grades enrolled, reports Mrs. Clara Brockie, teacher. Certificates were presented to 354 pupils for memorizing the alphabet verses. Thirteen children memorized 100 verses. They were Shirley Greenfield, Rachael Almie, Barbara Faaborg, Eloise Moppin, Shirley Field, Glenn McKinney, Olive McClasson, Carolyn Miller, Bill Dickenson, Sandra Larsen, Dorothy Stubbiefield, Lois Bruton and Faye Rose.

Mrs. Larson resigned as teacher as she is moving to Salem.

Woodburn—Considerable street work for the city has been assured for the summer as interest of property owners has prompted the city council to call a special meeting for Tuesday, June 11, to get the street improvement program under way. Widening of Young street from the Methodist church east to Highway 99E has been estimated at a cost of $66,156, of which the state highway commission will bear $43,719.

Woodburn—Election of officers will be the feature at the June 11 picnic meeting of the Garden club at the country home of Mrs. Roy Kuns. Members and their families are invited and asked to bring food for their group. Mrs. L. S. Mochel and Mrs. Nellie Muir are in charge of the program. Mrs. George Jones will be flower chairman for the competitive rose arrangements, and hostesses will be Mrs. Kuns, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Paul Magnuson, and Mrs. Herman McClain.

Woodburn—Corn Donnelly and Paul Halter are operating the Union Oil station at the intersection of the Silverton and 99E highways. The two veterans are continuing a partnership which began before the war and lasted through the war years when they served together in Australia, New Guinea and the Philippines.

SPEAKER SLATED
STAYTON, June 8—(Special)—Miss Sara C. Palmer, field representative of the national committee of the WCTU will be here for a few days in the interests of the group. She will speak at the Church of Christ Sunday.

WOODBURN—The second annual free flight model airplane contest will be held here Sunday at the John Wenz farm, formerly Henry Benjamin's place, which is located between Woodburn and Gervais on the St. Louis road. The contest is sponsored by the Portland Gashoppers and sanctioned by the Academy of Model Aeronautics Northwest Gas Model association. Entries are expected from Vancouver, B. C., Seattle Tacoma, Olympia, Spokane, Walla Walla, Woodburn, Salem, and other northwest cities.

Registration of models will be held from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. More than $350 in prizes will be available for the expected 300 entries in the meet, prizes being given for the longest flight, worst crack-up, highest junior average, highest senior average, scale free flight, and appearance and workmanship.

The model planes are built to closely follow the construction of standard aircraft, with the exception of alterations to insure better control of the models after take-off. Model plane power plants are one-cylinder, two-cycle gasoline engines which burn a mixture of white gasoline and motor oil with a pair of small flashlight batteries. Balsa wood is used in the construction, the planes averaging a cost of $40 a piece.

Stayton War Bride Arrives

STAYTON—(Special)—Mrs. William Lambrecht, Italian war bride of Lt. William Lambrecht, arrived in Stayton Tuesday, tired but expressing happiness to be in the United States. She was met in Portland by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Lambrecht and her sister-in-law, Miss Angeline Lambrecht. The new arrival, formerly Margaret Miel, was educated at an Italian university and speaks several languages including English. She and Lt. Lambrecht were married in Germany in December. He is expected home soon.

BOYS TO MEET

STAYTON—(Special)—The Marion district of the Boy Scouts of America will hold a court of awards Monday at the Women's clubhouse. Scouts from Mill City, Idanha, Aumsville, West Stayton, Detroit and Stayton will receive awards.

LOW RECEIPTS

SILVERTON—(Special)—Silverton postal receipts for this year are lower than a year ago, Henry Alm, postmaster, reveals. During May the local office took in $2300.99 in comparison to $2505.42 for May a year ago.

representative of the national committee of the WCTU will be here for a few days in the interests of the group. She will speak at the Church of Christ Sunday.
