

Nuptials in Portland

Of interest to the bride's many Salem friends is announcement of the marriage of Miss Kathryn Dorothy Crozer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Crozer, former Salem residents, to Harle L. Stott which took place on Sunday at 4 o'clock at the Rose City Park Methodist church in Portland with the Rev. Ray S. Dunn officiating.

Attending the couple were the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Dykeman of Castle Rock, Wash. The bride wore a two-piece navy blue ensemble with white lace insets over the shoulders and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and Cecile Brunner roses. Mrs. Dykeman wore navy blue and white and her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Stott has been on the teaching staff for a number of years of the Hillsboro high school in the homemaking department. Her husband, a resident of Portland, is working with the secretary of the state board of examination of watchmen.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bernard Morse, in Mt. Tabor. The couple spent their honeymoon at Oceanlake and Delake beaches.

Miss Hill Weds Mr. Parker

At the Seventh Day Adventist church in Lebanon Sunday night at 8 o'clock Miss Marjorie May Hill, daughter of Mrs. Hester E. Hill of Salem, became the bride of Glenn Howard Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker of Tangent. The Rev. Patterson of Albany officiated.

The bride wore a white nylon gown made with short sleeves, a pleated yoke on the bodice and a full floor length skirt. Her fingertip length veil fell from a gathered coronet of the material. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and carnations centered with a lavender orchid.

Miss Josephine Hill was her sister's only attendant. She wore a yellow marquisette gown trimmed in lace and carried lavender carnations and snapdragons.

Woodrow Parker was his brother's best man and ushers were Denton Hill and George Parker. A wedding reception was held in the Mosaic Temple.

The couple will live on the groom's farm at Plainview near Tangent.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Duffy (Lucile Pettyjohn) of New York City, guests here the past two weeks of Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn, left Monday night for Burlingame, Calif., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foley (Helen Pettyjohn) and daughters. Both families plan to return to Salem in July for an extension of their vacation visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tueski of Los Angeles have been visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Marie Thompson. The Tueskis have decided to remain in Salem and he will open a jewelry store here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz spent the weekend in Portland as guests of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lietz.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker had as their guests Saturday friends from North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kruse and sons, Frederick, Jr., George and Keith. The Parkers entertained at dinner at the Marion hotel for the Kruses with Dr. and Mrs. William Parker and Miss Mary Parker bidden as guests. Later in the evening they attended the wedding of Frederick Kruse, Jr., and Miss Una Lee at the Lutheran church in Silverton.

Lt. Andrews and Family Visit

Lt. Lee H. Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Andrews of Woodburn, Fla., has arrived from Orlando, Fla., where he attended a special course in statistical control and is on a 21-day leave enroute to an Alaskan air base (Dalk) and two-year old son, Johnny, have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalk, Salem, the past month. They will join Lt. Andrews in Alaska as soon as possible. He has been stationed at Augusta and Atlanta, Ga., air bases as assistant operations officer for the past three years.

Couple Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon G. McDermitt (Charley Hayes) have returned from an extended wedding trip following their marriage on March 30 at the Maple Leaf Evangelical church in Seattle. The Rev. John Pike, pastor, formerly of Salem, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse T. Hayes of Salem and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McDermitt of San Diego, Calif.

The newlyweds went to Canada and then motored down the Pacific coast and into Mexico. After visiting with his parents in San Diego for six weeks they came north to Salem.

The new Mrs. McDermitt is a graduate of Salem schools and was employed at the state industrial accident commission. Her husband returned in March from Germany. He took his training at Camp Adair. He attended schools in Kansas City, Kansas.

A garden party will be held this afternoon in honor of the second birthday of Michael Ray Genna at the North Summer street residence of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed R. Gregson. The afternoon will be spent in play. Guests bidden are Mrs. Elliot L. Nichols and Janice Lea, Mrs. Lawrence Monner and Linda and Judy, Mrs. Dale Bials and Richard, Mrs. Clinton Lammers and Dean, and Mrs. E. R. Bryan. Mrs. Ed R. Gregson, Michael's grandmother, and Mrs. Vince M. Genna, his mother, will serve.

Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the church. The worship service will be conducted by Mrs. D. B. Kleihege with the theme "Christian Education." The Rev. Francis Chambers is in charge of the program and a group of young people, Pat Pearson, Lois Kearns and Bonnie Barton, will explain the organization of Westminster Fellowship and Missionary work of the Youth of the Church. All women interested in work of young people are invited to attend.

Mrs. Steed Goes East

Mrs. J. Lyman Steed has enroute for the east coast where she will be met by her daughter, Elizabeth, who has been released from the SPARS in Norfolk, Va., and son, Herbert, who will be released from the army in the near future in Maryland.

The three will visit in Boston and other eastern points with relatives and friends before driving home in two months.

Mrs. Steed's other daughter, Mrs. Wallace Wittwer (Virginia Steed), who has been living in San Francisco, is expected to arrive in Salem June 19 for a few days visit before returning to the bay city to await orders to sail for Korea to join Lt. Wittwer. She will visit at the home of her husbands parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wittwer, and with her brother, Wallace, who is at the family home.

Mrs. Eleanor Irons of Seattle, who often visits in Salem, returned to her home Monday after a several days stay in the capital as the house guest of Mrs. George E. Allen.
