marriage to Donald Everett McCall of Salem. The marriage will take place in the Willamette Methodist church at 3 o'clock.

Miss Zaniker has asked her sister, Naideen, to act as maid of honor. Misses Ruth and Dorothy McCall of Salem, sisters of the groom, Ruth Schandel and Ione Hugget of Oregon City, will be bridesmaids. The flower girls, cousins of the bride, are Suzanne Selby, Oregon City, and Frances Davidson of Park Place. The ring bearer, also cousin of the bride, will be Terry Barnes, Jr., of Astoria.

To act as best man, Mr. McCall has asked his brother, Howard, and as ushers Edwin McCall, also a brother, Wallace Gemmell, James Gemmell, all of Salem, and Linton Hoff of Forest Grove.

The Rev. Edgar, who will perform the ceremony, officiated at the bride's parents' wedding twenty-three years ago on the same date.

Young Matrons club will meet on Thursday, June 20 at the YWCA for election of officers. Mrs. Jack Lachelle, who recently came here from Brazil, will be a special guest. A 1:30 dessert luncheon will be served.

Parties For Miss Reidy

Miss Honora Reidy is the incentive for much entertaining prior to her departure for Detroit, Mich., where she will be married to Louis Hodak on June 29.

Saturday night Miss Pearl Bairry will entertain at her home on Spruce street for the pleasure of Miss Reidy. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-elect. After an informal evening refreshments will be served by the hostess.

Bidden to honor Miss Reidy are Mesdames Margaret Hall, Portland, Agnes Schlotthoefer, Eugene, Charles Coffey, San Jose, Philip Jaskoski, Lyle Shepard, Edward Heenan, Cyril Suing, Miss Ann Gearing and Miss Agnes Meyer.

A family reunion and farewell for Miss Reidy will be held Sunday at the St. Paul hall at St. Paul when descendants of the bride-elect's grandfather, W. P. Davidson, an early settler at St. Paul, gather. Over 150 are expected to be present for the occasion.

Invitations In Mail to Weddings

In the mail Wednesday were invitations to the wedding of Miss Nancy Lou Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Black Wallace, and Lt. (jg) Robert Warren Gormsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gormsen of Spokane. The 8:30 o'clock rites will be held at the First Presbyterian church on June 29 with a reception following at the Wallace home at Wallace Orchard.
