

Rites Read At Church Ceremony

Peach and white gladioluses with blue delphiniums formed the setting at the First Methodist church Friday night for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Ann Bruckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle D. Bruckman, and Leighton Charles Fairham, USNR, son of Dr. and Mrs. Silas E. Fairham.

The Rev. John L. Knight performed the 8 o'clock nuptials. The groom's sister, Miss Edith Fairham, sang, and Prof. Maurice Brennan was the organist. The brides were lighted with white tapers with flowers marking the pews.

Mr. Bruckman gave his daughter in marriage. For her wedding she chose a handsome model of white lace over satin. The fitted bodice was made with lace-covered buttons extending from neckline to waistline. The skirt was a flared train with lace ruffles. The low neckline was square with a lace ruffle across the bodice.

Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a beaded coronet. For "something old" she wore an antique pearl necklace with a gold pendant which belonged to her mother. Her Victorian bouquet was of gladioluses, Ophelia roses and stephanotis.

The Bridal Party
Proceeding the bride to the altar was her sister, Mary, as maid of honor, and Miss Lorraine Murdoch and Miss Clarice Buselle as bridesmaids. They all wore identical frocks of nylon, fashioned with fitted bodices, cap sleeves, full skirts with peplum effect and sweetheart necklines. Miss Bruckman wore peach with long blue gloves and carried delphiniums and Enochian roses. She wore a wreath of the same flowers in her hair. The bridesmaids wore mist blue and carried arm bouquets of achias gladioluses tied with blue net and wore blue flowered hats with matching veils.

Miss Thelma Wilcox and Miss Carmen Campbell lighted the tapers and wore powder blue frocks with bouvardia in their hair. Lawrence C. Wills of Rogue River stood with the groom as best man. Seating the guests were Reed Shelton, Rupert Park, William Stortz and Dave Geddes.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Bruckman selected a green sheer print with draped skirt and her Millie Modiste hat was of white tissue straw with green veil. Her flowers were Elf roses and stephanotis. Mrs. Fairham attended her son's marriage in a navy blue ensemble with pink trim and her hat accessories were blue. Her corsage was of American Beauty roses.

At the Reception
At the wedding reception in the Carrier room, Miss Mabel Rickert of Corvallis poured and Miss Eva Rickert of Corvallis served the tea. Mrs. Josephine Lange out the bride's cake, and Mrs. George Kettelberg of Portland presided at the punch bowl. At the gift table were Miss Donna Shafer, Miss Leona Tingelstad and Mrs. F. A. Bruckman. Mrs. Stephen Smith of Madras, Wis., sister of the groom, passed the guest book. Assisting were Mesdames Douglas Baker, Lawrence Feldschau, Misses Bernice Bowersox, Thelma Wilcox and Carmen Campbell.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon, the bride donned a grey pin-stripe, three-piece suit with pink flowered hat and pink gloves. Pinned to the lapel of her suit was a white orchid.

After a stay at the beach, the couple will leave July 1 for Vancouver, B.C., where they will attend the Jubilee Week celebration. They will occupy a cottage on English Bay while in Vancouver. Mr. Fairham and his bride will be at home in Salem after July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Glenn have returned from a several weeks' stay at Manzanita beach. Mrs. Glenn's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yeaton of Bend, accompanied them to Salem for a brief visit here.
