

July Date Is Set

Adding her name to the list of July brides is Miss Marian McCormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. McCormack, whose marriage to Weld Wilkie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Wilkie of Chula Vista, Calif., will take place on Saturday, July 6 at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Miss McCormack graduated from Mills college a year ago and several of her classmates are coming north to be members of her bridal party. Mr. Wilkie attended the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco and is now a commercial artist in the bay city. The couple will live in Mill Valley.

Dr. Stuart Lancefield and his two children, Margaret and Neil, who recently returned to Salem after a two year stay in San Diego, while Dr. Lancefield was in the navy. They will be at home on Father's Day at their Fairmount Hill residence. (Jesten-Miller).

Clarence S. Emmons will celebrate his first Father's day at home in several years with his four young sons, pictured left to right, Patrick, who is six, Terry, nine years, David, who is 13, and four year old Michael. Mr. Emmons served as a lieutenant in the navy for two years. (Jesten-Miller).

Father's Day is always strawberry time for the Maurice Heater family, who live at Union Hills. Pictured left to right with Mr. Heater are Jimmie, six years old, Johnnie, four, and Jerry, who is two. The boys have great times with their father in the strawberry fields this time-of year. (Jesten-Miller).

Summer Travelers

Summer travelers and vacationists are leaving and arriving in the capital each day as the season gets in full swing.

Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist are leaving by car on Sunday, June 23 for New York City, where he will study with Bernard Taylor for the summer. Dean Geist will also take work in French literature from Maggie Teyte, who has just returned from Europe, at the Juillard School of Music. The Geists will be away until September and have sublet an apartment in New York.

Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell and her aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Ovelman of Portland, are leaving today by plane for Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Cleveland, where they will visit relatives for a month. They will also make the return trip by plane.

Eastward Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Ostlund and her mother, Mrs. Fronia Mullica, will leave by car today for a visit with relatives in Montana, Iowa, Illinois and Minnesota. Their destination is Detroit, where they will visit Mrs. Mullica's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Mullica. Mrs. Mullica will remain in the east for an extended visit, but the Ostlunds will return west in a month. They will come back by way of Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake City, Reno, and San Francisco.

Leaving Monday for Chicago will be Mrs. Ray A. Yocom and her daughter, Miss Rachael Yocom. Mrs. Yocom came west for the marriage of her daughter, Roberta Jean, and Don Fox, last week. Miss Yocom, who has been head of the women's physical education department at Utah State college, Logan, Utah, has taken a year's leave of absence from her work to go to New York City. There she will study for her doctor's degree in education, with a major in physical education, at New York university, where she will also teach during the year.

Miss Yocom, who does not leave for New York until fall, plans to spend two weeks in Chicago at the new family home, after which she will leave on a motor trip. She will be accompanied by May O'Donnell, who dances with Martha Graham, and her husband. They will first drive to Mexico and then over to Los Angeles and up the coast to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland G. Brock, Miss Patricia Brock, who graduated from St. Helen's hall the first of June, and Bud Brock, have already left for the east coast on a motor trip. They will go to New York City and into Canada before returning home.

Wedding Plans Told

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Highlighting all social news this month are the many June brides and the parties given in their honor. Wedding plans are being completed each week for ceremonies to be performed later in the month.

Gormsen-Wallace Nuptials

On the wedding calendar for June 29 is the marriage of Miss Nancy Lou Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Black Wallace, and Lt. (jg) Robert Warren Gormsen, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gormsen of Spokane.

The 8:30 o'clock nuptials will be performed at the First Presbyterian church. Bishop Bruce R. Baxter of Portland will officiate at the ceremony, assisted by Dr. Chester W. Hamblin. Mrs. Bruce Spaulding will be the soloist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs the organist.

Mr. Wallace will give his elder daughter in marriage. The bride-to-be has asked her sister, Pauline, to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be two Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters, Miss Catherine Mary Fenille of Seattle and Miss Marianne Low, Chester W. Gormsen of Stockton, Calif., will come north to be his brother's best man.

The wedding reception will be held at the country home of the bride's parents, Wallace Orchards.

Barclay-Simmons Rites

Invitations were also received last week to the wedding of Miss Mary Jane Simmons, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Simmons and Charles A. Barclay, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barclay, which will be Friday, June 28.

The rites will be read at St. Paul's Episcopal church with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating at 8 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Vandeneysde and Miss Miriam Becke will light the tapers.

Miss Simmons, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked her sister, Mrs. James B. Haley, the former Betty Simmons to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be four young matrons, Mrs. Robert E. Barnett, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. James Bennisson and Mrs. Donald Ellingson of Klamath Falls.

Orville Varty of Seattle, formerly of Salem, will stand with groom as best man. Seating the guests will be Robert E. Barnett, Rupert Park, Rex Adolph and Lawrence Anderson.

The wedding reception will be held in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel.

Bridal Parties Named

The coming weekend will be marked with several large church ceremonies.

Saturday afternoon, June 22, at 4 o'clock, Miss Ruth Nelson, blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nelson, will be married to Rulo Elliott Minard, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Minard of Oakland, Calif., at the First Congregational church. The groom-elect is arriving Tuesday and his parents and sister, Marjorie, will come by plane on Friday.

The Rev. Seth Huntington will officiate. Miss Edith Fairham will sing and the groom's father will sing "The Lord's Prayer" during the nuptials. Prof. Maurice Brennen will be the organist. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Marjorie Minard and Miss Florence Nelson.

Mr. Nelson will give his daughter in marriage. Miss Dolores Schmierer will be the bride's only attendant. Cleburn Best, of Oakland, will be the best man.

A wedding reception will follow in the fireplace room. The couple will live in Oakland after their wedding trip. The groom-to-be recently released from the navy is attending the University of California. The couple met at Willamette university while he was taking his navy V-12 training.

Trudie Meier Tells Plans

Planned for Sunday afternoon, June 23 is the wedding of Miss Trudie Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Meier, and C. Dale Brookins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brookins of Portland. The nuptials will be performed at the First Presbyterian church with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiating at 1:30 o'clock.

The bride-elect's sister, Mrs. David Dierbaugh of Portland, will sing and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs will be the organist. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Joan Beckey and Miss Patricia Viesko.

Mr. Meier will give his daughter in marriage. She has asked Miss Betty Staab to be her maid of honor and Miss Mary Ana Bollinger and Miss Ethel Lawless her bridesmaids.

Gilbert Antomini of Portland will stand with his brother-in-law as best man. Ushers will be Edward Porter, Robert Busck and Richard Page.

The couple will receive guests at a reception in the church parlors.

To Fly East

Miss Honora Reidy is leaving by plane Thursday for Detroit, Mich., where her marriage to Louis B. Hodak, son of Mrs. Catherine Hodak of Detroit, will take place on June 29.

The nuptial mass will be read at ten o'clock at St. Benedict's Catholic church. Miss Reidy will have as her only attendant her cousin, Miss Ann Gearin. A wedding breakfast will follow the ceremony.

Miss Gearin, Miss Bernice Davidson of Portland, another cousin, and Paul Reidy, brother of the future bride, are leaving Salem on Saturday by car for Detroit. Miss May Reidy of Minneapolis will be the only other member of Miss Reidy's family in attendance at the ceremony.

Couple Weds

An eleven o'clock ceremony Saturday morning in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church Miss Dolores Culver exchanged wedding vows with Robert D. Lindstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lindstrom, sr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Culver.

The mantle and fireplace were backed with bouquets of pink and white flowers. Mrs. Mabel Powers played the wedding music and the Rev. Seth Huntington performed the nuptials before members of the immediate family.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a soft pearl grey dressmaker suit with bustle effect in back for her wedding. She wore white accessories and a white crownless flowered hat with pale green trim. She carried a prayer book marked with a white orchid.

Mrs. Darv Mason was the bride's only attendant and she wore a pastel turquoise two piece dress with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of white baby gladioluses and Ceole Brunner roses. T. A. Lindstrom, jr., was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Kenneth Karns of Oregon City, who received with the bridal couple, wore a black and white dress with corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. Mrs. Lindstrom attended her son's marriage in a blue and white dress with gardenia and stephanotis corsage.

After the newlyweds greeted their guests they left by car for honeymoon to Carmel and other California points. They will live in Salem this summer and in the fall will go to Corvallis where he will attend Oregon State college.

Social Whirl

Visitors and brides-elect are sharing in much entertaining this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maison have invited a group of the young college and married set to an informal at home Tuesday night at their Bellevue street residence for the pleasure of their son, Lt. Mack Maison, USN, who is home on leave, and for Miss Mary Jane Simmons and her fiance, Charles A. Barclay.

Thirty friends of the honor guests have been invited to call between 7 and 9 o'clock. Arrangements of early summer flowers will provide the decorative note. Lt. Maison will leave Friday for Norfolk, Va., to receive his new assignment in the naval air corps.

For a Bride-to-be

Miss Mary Jane Simmons will be honored at two pre-nuptial parties, Monday night Mrs. Carl Porter has invited guests to a desert supper and bride's party at her home on North 23rd street for the pleasure of the popular bride-to-be.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Wayne P. Loder and Mrs. James B. Young will preside at a one o'clock bridge luncheon in honor of Miss Simmons and a few of her intimate friends. The affair will be held at the Loder home on South High street.

Covers will be placed for Miss Simmons, Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, Mrs. James B. Haley, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. James Bennisson, Mrs. Robert E. Barnett, Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst, Miss Dorothy Vandeneysde, Miss Miriam Becke, Miss Patti Holt of Portland and the hostesses.

Chapel Rites

At the Little Chapel of the Chimes in Portland Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock Miss Marjorie Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Reid of Salem, and Arven R. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Scott of Danville, Calif., will be married at a quiet ceremony.

For her wedding the bride has chosen a pearl grey dressmaker suit with matching straw hat with black veil and black patent accessories. Pinned to the shoulder of her suit will be a lavender orchid.

The couple will be attended by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Reid of Corvallis. She will wear a dove grey suit with blue hat and black accessories. Her flowers will be roses and gardenias.

A wedding dinner will follow the ceremony, after which the bridal couple will motor south to Danville, where they will live. Mr. Scott is with the personnel department of Associated Oil Co. in Martinez, Calif.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Calvin W. Crawford (Jean Gemmell) who were married on June 9 at St. Paul's Episcopal church with a reception following at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gemmell. The groom is the son of Mrs. Lera Crawford of Berkeley, Calif., who came north for the nuptials. The couple will live in Eugene. (Jesten-Miller).

Pictured in her white satin gown with pearl embroidery, is Mrs. Don Fox, who was Roberta Jean Yocom before her marriage June 8 at the First Congregational church. Inset shows the bridal couple walking up the aisle. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, now of Chicago. The groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Irvin R. Fox of Eugene. The newlyweds will make their home in Portland while he is attending the University of Oregon Medical school. (Jesten-Miller photos).

Mrs. Philip H. Jaskoski, the former Helen Stevenson, whose marriage took place on June 9 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Beas Stevenson and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Jaskoski. The couple will live in Salem. (Kernell-Ellis photo).