

Betty Viesko, Leon Everitt To Wed at Garden Rites

Several hundred guests, many coming from out-of-town, will motor out to Mission Bottom today to the Fred Viesko country home for the garden wedding of their only daughter, Betty, and Leon Everitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Everitt of Springfield, Mo. The afternoon nuptials will be read at 2 o'clock by the Rev. George H. Swift. Mrs. Frank Kellogg will play the wedding music.

The blonde bride, on the arm of her father who will give her in marriage, will approach the improvised altar at one end of the garden, through a bridal aisle marked with white posts and white satin ribbon. Against a setting of greenery will be the altar table with bouquets of white gladioluses and lapers.

The bridal gown is of white silk tulle, which has been in the family for many years. The dress is designed with a fitted bodice with buttons down the back, a rounded neckline fashioned with a wide bertha which forms cap sleeves. The full skirt ends in a short train. Her lace edged fingertip tulle veil will cascade from a lace and tulle headdress enhanced with pearls. Her elbow length mitts will be of white lace and for "something old" she will wear her grandmother's pearls. She will carry a bouquet of white gladioluses, stephanotis, and bouvardia centered with a white orchid.

Proceeds the Bride

Preceding the bride to the altar will be her Sigma Kappa sorority sisters, Miss Patricia Vincent, Del Rev. Calif., the honor maid, Miss Mildred Winchester, Medford, and Miss Patricia Kroeger, Hillsboro, as bridesmaids, Sally Beth Jones, niece of the bride, will be flower girl and Steven Crane, son of the J. W. Cranes, the ring bearer.

The feminine attendants will wear identically styled gowns made similar to the bride's with full skirts, rounded necklines with a yoke, fitted bodices and cap sleeves. The maid of honor will wear a champagne net with a wreath of flowers, with matching shoulder veil and will carry purple stock and lily. The bridesmaids will be in lime green silk net frocks and will wear flowered hats and carry bouquets of lavender stock and lily. The flower girl's dress is of yellow net and she will have a wreath of flowers in her hair and carry a green and lavender basket of flowers.

Emmett Alexander of McMinnville will stand with the groom as best man and seating the guests will be Alvin Jones, Portland, Herbert Jones and Earl Viesko, Salem, Creighton E. Jones and John Paton, Gervais.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Viesko has chosen a delectable blue silk crepe gown with bodice and sleeves of matching chantilly lace. Her hair is of blue and orchid with ribbon trim and she will pin a lavender orchid to her gown. The groom's parents were unable to come west for the ceremony.

Reception on Patio

The newlyweds will receive before the fireplace on the patio. Cutting the cake will be Mrs. F. F. Brackett, Redwood City, Calif., and Mrs. J. W. Crane. Presiding at the coffee urns will be Messdames C. G. Hillbrand, Mission Bottom, Robert Sears, V. O. Kelly, and George Hurley, Albany, Mrs. A. W. Jones, Portland, will be at the punch bowl. Mrs. R. V. Jones, Portland, will be in charge of the serving assisted by the Misses Lorraine Folsom, Mary Wilhelm, Clarabelle Jeppesen, Mary June Jones and Mrs. Russell Wilkinson, Portland, Misses Beverly Jones, Barbara Viesko, Marie Ann Newman, Patricia Viesko, Civilla Reeber, Salem, Marjorie Schroeder, Mill City, and Angela Kleut, Reedsport, Peggy Van Doren, Three Hills, Alberta, Canada. Mrs. Clara Ray will pass the guest book and in the gift room will be Mrs. Gordon Hull.

Pendleton, and Mrs. O. B. Willett, Torrance, Calif.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Viesko will be hosts for a buffet supper on the patio between 6:30 and 8:30 o'clock to which invitations have been sent to relatives and close friends. The newlyweds will be at home at Mission Bottom following their wedding trip. For traveling the bride has chosen a handsome ensemble with print silk dress in shades of oyster white, grey, Havana brown and black with three-quarter length wool coat of brown with tuxedo and cuffs of the print. Her white straw hat is crownless and her accessories are white. Pinned to the shoulder of her coat will be a white orchid.

Portraits to Be Shown

Mrs. Fay Hoffman Church of Oswego, a portrait painter, will display her paintings this week at Elfstrom galleries opening on Tuesday. Mrs. Church, who came west a year ago from Boston, will be here on Tuesday and will greet her friends in the galleries between 2 and 5 o'clock. The Alpha Chi Omega alumnae, of which Mrs. Church is a member, will entertain at tea during the afternoon for the artist. All interested persons are welcome to attend. Her paintings will be on display here for two weeks.

Mrs. Church is a graduate of Syracuse University college of Fine Arts and studied in Paris on a Hiram Gee fellowship from Syracuse. She has exhibited in Boston, Santa Barbara, Milwaukee, Wis., and Oswego Country club. The ten portrait paintings to be exhibited include her two sons, Stuart Hoffman Church and Peter K. Church, Mary Gertrude Burke, Alice Alma Dickie, Mrs. George W. Dickie, James Lewis Martin, Timothy Ray Martin, Mrs. Mary O'Brian, Carol Ann Smith, Tanya Sayre and Peter Jan Venneitz.

WCTU Institute To Be Tuesday

The Central WCTU will hold its institute meeting June 18, at the YWCA, 768 State St., at 10 a. m. The work of the WCTU including children's work, the L. T. L. educational program and the work of Mrs. Frances Willard Liu in China will be discussed.

Mrs. Necla Buck, past state president, now field worker, will speak in the afternoon session on "Woman's Responsibility in the Home." Everyone is invited.

Stoudenmeyer-Swart

To be married the same weekend is Miss Velma Swart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hedda S. Swart, who will become the bride of Donald Stoudenmeyer, son of Mrs. Lily Stoudenmeyer, on Sunday, June 30 at the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock.

Dr. Chester W. Hamblin will officiate at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Max Barhyte will sing and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs will be the organist.

Mr. Swart will give his daughter in marriage. She has asked her sister, Mrs. Arthur Roethlin, to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Francis Toier and Mrs. Henry Stoudenmeyer. Joanne and Jimmy Roethlin, niece and nephew of the bride, will be flower girl and ring bearer.

Henry Stoudenmeyer will be his brother's best man and ushers will be Robert Brown, Richard Plank, Richard Kemper and Allan Robertson.

The wedding reception will be held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown on Mission street.

To Attend Summer Session

Miss Faye Sparks is leaving Wednesday for Los Angeles where she will complete work this summer on her master's degree in music at the University of Southern California. She will give a public recital during the summer in Los Angeles. Miss Sparks will return to Canby high school in the fall where she is head of the music department.

Mrs. Andrew Hammond Burnett is arriving by plane Saturday from Santa Barbara, Calif., for a several days stay here with her mother, Dr. Mary B. Purvine.

Two Salem girls, who will enjoy the summer at Four Winds camp, Deer Harbor, Wash., are Sally Farrell, daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, jr., and Margie Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith. Sally will leave on June 24 and Margie, June 30.

Two early June brides are left, Mrs. Dale Snow, the former Elaine Marquardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marquardt, who was married at a home rite June 9. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snow of Yachats. The newlyweds will live in Salem. At the right is Mrs. Wilford Perkins (Doris Kruger) whose marriage was an event of June 7 at the Court Street Christian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kruger and her husband is the son of A. J. Perkins. They will live in Salem. (Jesten-Miller photos).

Home Rites On Friday

Miss Doreen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Smith, became the bride of Roy W. Nelson, son of Mrs. M. Nelson, in a double ring ceremony Friday night, read by the Rev. Clay Pomroy, assisting pastor of the First Christian church.

The couple exchanged vows at the home of the bride's parents, North 17th street. Miss Estella Smith played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and Cecile Brunner roses. She wore a gold bracelet that has been worn by brides in the family for generations.

Readjust Camp Schedule for Girls

The YWCA summer camp directorate announces that the camp for 9th, 10th and 11th grade girls, June 26-July 2, has been abandoned and the girls planning on going at that time have transferred to the junior high and grade school period later.

The change was made because so many girls in that age bracket are assisting with harvest of crops in this area. The junior high and grade school period at camp opens July 8. Registrations are still being received for this period of camp, as well as for the young adults camp opening July 2 at Smith Creek camp.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a black and white dress and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Nelson chose a printed silk and her corsage was of red roses.

At the reception Mrs. William McMorris cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Arnel Smith presided at the punch bowl. Miss Doris Smith, sister of the bride, and Miss Estella Smith served.

Howard Smith, brother of the bride, now with the Fourth air corps stationed in California, was home for the ceremony. The couple attended Salem schools and the groom is employed by the state highway department.

but... Large and well polished discharge insignia on some passenger cars around town make us wonder why they don't put them on some of the jeeps and army trucks being used by civilians. Some, from all indications should also display the purple heart.

Short cut... as an expedient to save paper we might put an editors note at the top of the society page. "the bride wore traditional white satin with sweetheart neckline, self covered buttons down the back and the long sleeves terminated in points at the wrist. The veil was fingertip length. The bride's only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom," then in the stories we can merely say, "See above for details."

Oh my goodness!... The society editor has listed 52 weddings to be held in this city in June. That doesn't include all the other Willamette valley youngsters being married nearby and far away.

Appearances deceive... If you see some very young citizens scooting around in wheel chairs in the vicinity of Court-Winter-Chemeketa-Cottage streets, don't shed too many tears over their helpless condition, they are merely enjoying the wonders of the machine age. And anyway they have a delightful grandfather who collects the strangest things. Incidentally, one of the girls received a slight remuneration one day from a sympathetic passerby.

Obligato... Willamette university trustees would do well their next meeting to budget some oil for the seals in Waller hall. You can't even breathe without squeaking. ... Maxine Bureau

Miss Shephard to Be Speaker

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Carrier room Wednesday, June 19. The all day meeting will start with the business session at 10:45 a. m. A sack lunch will be held at noon with the hostess circle No. 6, serving coffee.

The afternoon program begins at 1:30. Mrs. D. H. Schulze has the devotions. The speaker will be Miss Maggie Lucile Shephard, who is the first girl the Oregon conference of the WSCS sent to Bennet college for negro women in Greensboro, N. C. After the program there will be a tea under the direction of Mrs. Darrell Jones, honoring the new members of the society.

Members of the Salem district of the Oregon Music Teachers association and the Salem Federated Music clubs will meet at a luncheon at Nohlgren's Tuesday at noon. This will be the last of the regular session until fall. Miss Margaret Hogg will preside at the Music Teachers meeting and immediately following, Miss L. E. a Belle Tartar will preside over the Federated clubs meeting.

Grand Officer To Be Honored

Mrs. E. W. Peterson, newly elected grand warder of the grand chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, will be the honor guest at the regular meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star Tuesday night at the Masonic temple at 8 o'clock.
