Phyllis Taw, Mr. Nelson Married

Of interest to the groom's many Salem friends is the marriage of George William Nelson, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson of Salem, to Miss Phyllis Jean Taw, daughter of Mrs. Helen E. Taw of Portland, which took place on June 16 at St. Michael and All Angels church in Portland.

The Rev. Arthur Vall-Spinosa officiated at the afternoon rites at 4 o'clock. The groom's sister, Miss Elizabeth Nelson, sang and Mrs. A. Stone was the organist.

Henry Scott of Walla Walla, Wash., gave his niece in marriage. For her wedding she chose a white satin gown fashioned with a train, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. Her train length tulle veil with lace insets cascaded from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Mrs. William Caldwell was the matron of honor and wore aqua taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Bertie Lee Farnham and Mrs. Arthur Trebasser, who wore frocks of dusty rose taffeta. Their dresses were made identical with gathered skirts fashioned with bustles and elbow length sleeves. They carried pastel nosegays and wore matching pleated taffeta headresses.

Robert Packham stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Richard Hickman, William Caldwell, David Craig and Robert Johnson.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Margaret Newton, Gloria and Barbara McClintock, Miriam Shellenberger, Mariann Croisan, Joan Randall, Joan Lochead, Jane Carson, Suzanne Small, Dorothy Bergsvik, Avis Steimer, Madeleine Keene, Barbara Sundet, Peggy Paxson, Peggy Sears, Cathy Morah, Patsy Nickens, Gloria Myers, Dolores Clement, Dolores Hamilton, Pat Agee, Doris Dixon.

Miss Frances Ann Kells has arrived in the capital from New Haven, Conn. to spend the summer at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Kells. Miss Kells is a senior in sculpturing in the school of Fine Arts at Yale university. Her scholarship has been renewed for her senior year, and she will return east in September.

Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod will be a dessert bridge hostess this afternoon at her country home on the South River road for the pleasure of her club, Mrs. Gordon Wilson will be an additional guest.

Miss Nahey Stricklin is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stricklin, for several weeks. She has been at Dibble General hospital, Menlo Park, Calif. as an occupational therapist. She expects her new assignment some time this month.

Co-ed Tells Betrothal Monday

The traditional box of candy was passed at the Alpha Chi Omega house on the Willamette university campus Monday night revealing the engagement of Miss Maxine Wagner and Phillip Orange. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wagner of Fullerton, Calif., who moved from Salem a year ago, and her fiance is the son of Mrs. Adelaide Orange of Pilot Rock, Oregon. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Wagner is a graduate of Salem schools and is a senior at Willamette university. Her fiance is a sophomore at Willamette and a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity. He served in the navy for three years. In the fall Miss Wagner plans to take her laboratory technician training in Portland.

The betrothal news was made known at the formal Alpha Chi Omega banquet in honor of the graduating seniors Monday night at the chapter house. Miss Elaine Cloudy, toastmistress, received the candy telling the news.

Seniors honored were the Misses Wagner, Dorothy Hoar, Dorothy Kenney, Delvon Long, Pat Carter, Thyra Jean Curry, LaVerne Harnberger, June Eggerman and Mrs. Don Fox. Each senior was presented with a charm bracelet bearing the Alpha Chi Omega crest.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Sisson left last weekend for Seattle to take part in the commencement week activities at the University of Washington. Miss Sisson will graduate on Saturday and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown E. Sisson, are leaving Friday for Seattle to attend their daughter's graduation. They will all return on Sunday.

Miss Mabel Gaines entertained the officers of chapter G, PEO at a luncheon at her beach home at Roads End.

Miss Janet Rogers Is Betrothed

Adding her name to the ever-growing list of brides-elect is Miss Janet Rogers, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson S. Rogers. Her engagement to Harrison Wilder, son of Mrs. Mae Wilder, was revealed Tuesday night at a smartly arranged party at the Rogers home on Oxford street for which the bride-elect was hostess. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Small nosegays of tea roses, with cards bearing the names of the couple, were passed to the guests before the dessert supper. Bouquets of roses were arranged about the rooms. Contract bridge was in play during the evening.

Bidden to the announcement party were the mothers of the engaged couple, Mrs. Nelson S. Rogers and Mrs. Mae Wilder, Mrs. John Copenhaver, Mrs. Ralph Smither, Mrs. Richard French, Misses Lois Barrick, Shirley Parker, Mary East, Jean Rowland, Jean Driggs, Alice Dahlen, Alice Wilder and Roberta Rogers.

Miss Rogers is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Oregon State college where she was a member of Sigma Kappa. She is now taking her senior year at Willamette university.

Mr. Wilder, also a Salem high school graduate, attended University of Illinois and Syracuse university. He recently was discharged from the army after serving as a first lieutenant with the third army in Europe. Miss Rogers and her fiance plan to attend Oregon State college in the fall.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Strong of Chehalis, Wash. are arriving today for the wedding of their son, Charles, to Betty Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randall, which will be an event of Thursday night, Monday noon. Miss Randall entertained her bridesmaids at a luncheon at the Golden Pheasant.
