Miss Driggs Announces Betrothal

Romantic news today is the announcement of betrothal of Miss Jean Driggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Driggs, to Clifford Luehrs, son of Mrs. O. G. Luehrs of Salem, formerly of Ontario. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement was made known Friday night at a smartly arranged party for which the bride-elect was hostess at the home of her parents. A dessert supper was served with an informal evening following. Favours were glass horses to which were tied cards bearing the names of the couple. Bouquets of summer flowers and candles were used for decorating.

Attending the announcement party were Mrs. O. P. Driggs, Mrs. O. G. Luehrs, Mrs. John Copen, Mrs. Lois Barrick, Miss Janet Rogers, Miss Shirley Parker, Miss Jean Rowland, Miss Florence Lewis, Miss Marcella Gardner, Miss Delores Schmierer, Miss Maxine Wagner and Miss Rosalie Hurst.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Oregon State college. She is now employed at the state industrial accident commission. She is a past worthy advisor of Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Mr. Luehrs graduated from Oregon State college in 1942 and served during the war as a captain in the 96th division. He is now employed as a pharmacist in Salem.

A Buffet Supper

Mrs. Harold Phillippe was hostess for a buffet supper party Friday night at her home in honor of Mrs. E. E. Bergman, worthy matron of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and the women officers.

Bouquets of sweet peas and other summer flowers provided the decorative note on the tables and about the room. Contract bridge was in play during the evening.

Covers were placed for Mesdames E. E. Bergman, Fred Keeler, Gordon Barker, W. H. Gardner, G. A. Reeber, D. M. Eby, Charles Fowler, H. R. Robinson, Verdi Walser, Kenneth Smith, James Frizzell, Carl Anthony, L. M. Flagg, A. H. Barker, Granville Perkins, Herman Johnston, Miss Helen Buch and Mrs. Phillippe.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Crawford of Glenellen, Illinois are the house guests of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford. They are also visiting his sisters, Mrs. Wayne Henry and Mrs. L. R. Randall. They will leave the first of the week for the east. While here they have enjoyed trips to the coast, Timberline Lodge and other scenic Oregon points.

Mrs. Joseph N. Scott of Athena has arrived in the capital for an extended visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Cover.

Date Is Set For July Rites

Wedding bells will ring on July 12 for Miss Clarice Busselle and Fred S. Anunson, Jr. The news was told Friday night at a smartly arranged dessert supper party for which the bride-elect was hostess in honor of Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau (Marion Wampers), a May bride, at her home on Stewart street.

The ceremony will take place at the First Congregational church with a reception following. The couple's engagement was announced over a year ago.

Miss Busselle, the daughter of Mrs. Lloyd Demarest and E. T. Busselle of Tacoma, is completing her junior year at Willamette university. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Anunson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, recently returned to the states after two years of service with the navy radar in Hawaii. He has been released from the navy and will enter Willamette university in the fall. He attended Willamette for one year before entering the service.

Guests were seated at small tables and at each place were cards bearing the names of the couple and the date. Contract was in play during the evening. Bouquets of pastel summer flowers provided the decorative note and a shower honored Mrs. Feldschau. Attending the announcement party were Mesdames Lawrence Feldschau, Leighton Fairham, Douglas Baker, Misses Lorraine Murdock, Thelma Wilcox, Jean Rowland, Bernice Bowersox, Donna Shafer, Carmen Campbell, Maryann Wittliff, Sarah Ann Ohling, Frances Foote and Darlene Simmons.

Stated for Sunday, June 30 is the reception at the Masonic Temple for which the appointive officers of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star will give for the worthy matron and patron, Mrs. E. E. Bergman and Earl Wiper. Calling hours are from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Luncheon to Fete Miss Wallace

Miss Nancy Wallace, who will be married on June 29 to Lt. (jg) Robert Warren Gormsen, will be the honor guest at a one o'clock luncheon this afternoon when a group of her friends entertain at a no-host luncheon at the Marion hotel.

A bouquet of pastel summer flowers will center the large luncheon table. A kitchen shower will fete the bride-to-be.

Covers will be placed for Miss Wallace, Mrs. Robert Burns, Miss Kathleen Hug, Miss Patricia Viesko, Miss Mary Ana Bollinger, Miss Joan Beakey, Miss Sarah Ann Ohling, Miss Nancy Montgomery, Miss Miriam Becke, Miss Pegge Wienert and Miss Joy Randall.

Mrs. Howard Bergman, who is now living in Portland, is visiting with members of her family here this week while Mr. Bergman is in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt and son, Frank, of Longview, Wash., are spending the weekend here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Probert.

Miss Joan Beakey has returned from a week's sojourn at Wauna Lake Wash., where she was the guest of Miss Claire DuBois of Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Epley, Mr. Lamb To Wed

The First Congregational church will be the setting for a simple but impressive ceremony this morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Beverly Epley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Epley, becomes the bride of Wilmer E. Lamb, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Marvin Lamb, sr.

The Rev. Dudley Strain will officiate at the nuptials and Mrs. Jean Hobson Rich will be the organist. Arrangements of summer flowers in pastel shades will bank the altar.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a mist blue dressmaker suit with white hat and accessories for her wedding. Pinned to the shoulder of her suit will be a white orchid.

Miss Phyllis Graham will be the only attendant and she will wear a brown dressmaker suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas.

John Marvin Lamb, jr. will stand with his brother as best man. Keith Epley, the bride's brother, will act as usher.

The couple will greet their guests in the foyer of the church immediately after the service and later will leave on a trip to the Oregon coast. Mr. Lamb and his bride will live in Salem and both are employed at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.
