Another reas n for regarding real estate investment as safe is the fact

In an active real estate market it is natural for prices on some properties that in spite of much money to buy with caution and careful analysis of future trends is reflected in appraisals for loans and sales.

to get out of line. To set prices of real estate on a basis of what is being asked down the street sometimes gets the prices so high that sales are lost to other similar properties that are available at a lower price. Property priced in line Neat small home, furnished, large corner lot. 50/100, some trees. New kitchen range and new floor coverings—complete for $5300.

Large 6-room home, living-room, witchen with nook down, 3 bedrooms and full bath up, basement and furnace. Nice back yard, grand location—$12,600. With saving deposits increasing ($5,000,000 last week) and an increase of more than 14 billion in savings this year over last year, fear of immediate deflation in real estate values has little foundation. This is especially true since there is not a possibility of more than 1/3 of the houses needed being built in
