Highlighting the news during the summer months is the arrival of visitors and departure of others on extended vacations.

Entraining July 1 for the east will be Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and daughter, Sally. Mrs. Smith will go directly to Gallatinburg, Tenn. to attend the Pi Beta Phi Settlement school committee meeting of which she is a member from July 4 to 18. While her mother is in Tennessee, Sally will go to Blue Ridge, North Carolina to visit her cousin, Mrs. E. S. Jackson. Then the two travellers will meet and go to Lynchburg, Virginia to visit on the campus at Randolph-Macon Women's college.

They will spend the remainder of the summer in Nashville, Indiana with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. H. H. Brooks, and will also visit in Indianapolis and Greencastle. The last of August they will leave for Chicago to meet Dr. Smith and from there will go to Mackinac Island, Mich. for a fortnight. They plan to be home in mid-September. While the Smiths are away their younger daughter, Margie, will be at Four Winds camp, Wash.

Farrells to New York

Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, jr. and daughter, Joan, are also leaving by train on July 1 for New York City, where they will enjoy a business and pleasure trip. Mr. Farrell will attend several meetings on the east coast. Enroute home the Farrells will stop in Denver for a visit with the Palmer Hoyts, former Portland residents. Their other daughter, Sally, will be at Four Winds camp during their absence.

Arrive for a Visit

Expected to arrive in the capital this week are Mr. and Mrs. William Mallotte Smith, who will be guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith. The Smiths have been at Fort Jackson, N. C. and are driving west. They have been touring the New England states. He has been released from the army, having served as a first lieutenant.

Mrs. Edward Frantz and her two boys of Nevada City, Calif. will arrive in Salem July 1 for a month's visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. M. Chapman. Mr. Frantz is attending the summer session at the University of California at Berkeley.

June Young Betrothed

Taking the romantic spotlight today is Miss June Florette Young, attractive brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell Young, whose engagement to Stanley Ralph Underwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley King Underwood of Los Angeles, was revealed Saturday night.

It was at a get-together of a group of college girls home for the summer, at the Paul Acton home that the news was told. Hostesses for the party were the bride-elect and Miss Jane Acton. Guests were invited to a 7:30 o'clock dessert supper and were seated at small tables centered with bouquets of roses, white iris and sweet peas.

Preceding the dessert hour the hostesses played a recording of a clever poem which told the betrothal news. The evening hours were spent informally.

Brides to the announcement party were the Misses Betty Zo Allen, Pat Brown, Marilyn Archibald, Carolyn Carson, Connie Cocking, Margie Cooley, Jean Fidler, Edith Fairham, Darlene Gardner, Janet Kirk, Addy Lane, Betty Manoles, Mary Lou McKay, Robert Meyer, Elizabeth Nelson, Helen Paulson, Jean Swift and Helen Shepard.

Miss Young just completed her freshman year at Oregon State college and is a member of Chi Omega sorority. She is a graduate of Salem high school. Her fiance, who has been taking his NROTC training at Oregon State college, was released last weekend from the navy. He is attending the summer session at Oregon State. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Miss Friesen to Wed

Adding her name to the ever-growing list of bride-elects is Miss Pearl Friesen, who told friends at a luncheon Saturday of her betrothal to Lauren Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Long of Cloverdale. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Emma Friesen and George Friesen of Eugene. No date has been set for the wedding.

The luncheon was held at the Friesen home on Marion street. The individual tables were centered with nosegays of pansies. On a larger table was an engagement ring with the names of the engaged couple, which told the news.

Covers were placed for the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Emma Friesen, Mrs. Darrel Farnell, Misses Lois Riedesel, Della and Vera Merk, Elsie Janzen, Ruby and Opal Friesen.

Miss Friesen is a graduate of Salem high school and is employed in the office of the Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. Her fiance is a graduate of Tillamook high school and was recently discharged from the navy. He is now in business with his father at the Cloverdale Cheese factory.

Commencement Guests

Distinguished guests on the Willamette campus for the commencement exercises June 29-30 will be Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam and Mrs. Oxnam of New York City. Bishop Oxnam is resident bishop of the New York area of the Methodist church and president of the Federal Council of churches. He will deliver the commencement address on June 30 in the Willamette gymnasium at 3:30 o'clock.

Bishop and Mrs. Oxnam will be house guests of President and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith at University House. They will arrive in the capital Friday and that evening will be honored at a dinner by the Smiths, Saturday noon. Mrs. Smith will entertain with her annual luncheon in honor of the wives of the board of trustees while the board is in session. On Sunday preceding the commencement Dr. and Mrs. Smith will entertain at dinner for Bishop and Mrs. Oxnam.

Reception for Seniors

A reception honoring graduating seniors of Willamette will be held at Lausane hall Saturday, June 29 from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock. Alumni, parents, trustees and friends of the university have been invited to the annual affair.

The faculty and their wives will be hosts for the reception with Mrs. R. M. Gatke in general charge. Greeting guests at the door will be Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Erickson, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Lockenour and Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Oliver. Introducing to the line will be Dean Olive M. Dobb and Mrs. W. E. Kirk. In the line will be President and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Bishop and Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Laughlin and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Luther.

Miss Lois Latmer and Miss Lorena Jack will be in charge of the dining room with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Schulze inviting guests. Potting will be Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. R. M. Gatke, Mrs. L. E. Sparks and Mrs. E. C. Richard.

Miss Janet Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson S. Rogers, whose engagement to Harrison Wilder, son of Mrs. Mae Wilder, was revealed Tuesday night at a party at the Rogers home. No plans have been made for the wedding. The couple will attend Oregon State college in the fall. (Kennell-Ellis).

Betrothal of Miss Barbara Bentley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bentley of Tule Lake, Calif., to Erwin C. Bahlborg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Bahlborg, was made known this week at a luncheon at Meier and Frank Tea Room in Portland. The wedding of the couple will take place later in the summer in Klamath Falls. (Kennell-Ellis)

At a Sunday tea Miss Virginia Elaine White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. White, told her engagement to James R. Crone, son of Mrs. Gladie H. Robinson of Portland and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson of Salem. The wedding date has not been set. The couple will matriculate at Oregon State college in September. (Bishop Moderne studio).

Wearing a diamond, is Miss Civilla Reeber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gertrud A. Reeber, whose betrothal to Joseph Franko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Franko of Aberdeen, Wash., was recently told at tea for which the bride-elect's mother was hostess. The wedding is planned to take place this summer.
