frightful slump, made two errors, twice tried to knock all the air out of the park with his bat and failed to get a hit in four ups. George is the loose-jointed lad who, at last look, was so far ahead in the Bishop Studio popular player contest they may as well coneede the prize to him now. But Freddie Fan forgot all about George's eapabilities with wood and glove that night and could be heard bleating the likes of, "G'wan back to Portland, ya bum . . . Boo! You house you! . . . Hey. Vice, why'n' cha give up?" . . . Yea, verily, the 28-(A) A heavy thunderstorm bill at 1:30 to button up what will meball fan is an odd character. But on top of it all. Willamette, WIL and PCL pitcher of days gone by, had just turned down an attractive offer from the Spokes to join the club a few days before the wreck. Had he accepted. Duke might have been on the bus with some of his prewar Spokane buddies ... Silverton's John Day, the big lefty pitcher just out of the army who will one day surely be grabbed up by a pro ball club, the other night nixed an offer made to him by a big league scout. Day says he wants to spend one year at the U of Oregon before he takes to pro baseballing . . .
