NELSON NEWS

The Portland premiere of "Canyon Passage" is being so widely and elev-erly advertised that it will bring thousands of people to Oregon. A great per-centage of those who come to see the premiere will become impressed and wift naturally look up Salem, the state capital,

As a result of our advertising covering two transcontinental railroad sys-ns we expect to have calls from a lot of people who want to see the valley and of course our share of purchasers. We are now compiling a new list of farm properties which will again be included in the railway bulletins. Owners who have properties they wish to sell this summer or fall shouldn't lose any time in getting their listings into our office so that they can be available for the coming army of prospects
