

Bridal Plans Told . . .

Several July brides-elect are making known plans for their weddings.

Miss Bernice Elgin and Robert H. Anderson of Portland will be married on Sunday afternoon, July 21 at the First Congregational church. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Harrison W. Elgin, sr., and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Anderson of Portland.

The 4 o'clock rites will be performed by the Rev. Louis F. White of the Knight Memorial church. Miss Addyve Lane will sing and Jean Hobson Rich will be the organist.

Harrison W. Elgin, jr. will give his only sister in marriage. She has asked Mrs. George Kellogg to be her maid of honor. Closing the aisle with ribbons just before the bridal party enters will be Mrs. James Taylor and Miss Mary Wright of Portland.

James M. Anderson of Portland will be his brother's best man. Ushers will be Robert Elgin, brother of the bride, Donald Hagg and Jack Wilkins.

A reception will follow in the fireplace room.

McGowan-Lamb Rites

Miss Harolaine Rae Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Lamb, will be married on Friday, July 26 to Troy E. McGowan, son of Mrs. Frank Holding of Half Moon Bay, Calif. Invitations to the wedding were in the mail this week. The ceremony will be held at the First Congregational church with Dr. Robert Moulton Garke officiating at 4 o'clock. Miss Beverly Kenney will sing and Jean Hobson Rich will be the organist.

Lighting the nuptial tapers will be Miss Anna Mae Englund and Miss Lorna Arnold. Mrs. Leonard Cain will be her sister's honor attendant. The bridesmaids will be four young high school graduates, Misses Barbara Upjohn, Betty Causey, Betty Twott and Elaine White. Sharon French of Longview, Wash., will be her cousin's flower girl.

William Stewart will be best man and ushers will be Dub Stewart and Leonard Cain.

The reception will be held in the fireplace room. The couple will go south on their wedding trip and will live in Palo Alto, Calif., while he is attending Leland Stanford.

Bound for Europe are these young matrons pictured above with their children. They hope soon to join their army husbands in Germany. Left is Mrs. Robert Edward Arn and Martha Ann, who have already left Salem for New York, and have sailed for Bamberg to join Major Arn, who is with the artillery in the regular army. Center is Mrs. Robert C. Taylor and two-year-old son, Robert, who are awaiting sailing orders for Frankfurt to join Lt. Taylor. If time permits Mrs. Taylor will drive to the east coast and will be accompanied by Miss Eileen Van Stanton. (Jesten-Miller photos). At the right is Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell and daughter, Susan, also awaiting sailing orders to leave for Kitzingen to join Lt. Mitchell. The Mitchells, who formerly lived here, have been at the Frank Earnest home since spring. (Kennell Ellis photo).

Visitors Arrive . . .

By Jeryme English

Summertime visitors are arriving daily and numerous parties are being arranged in their honor.

Coming Sunday for a visit will be Mr. and Mrs. William McAfee and son, Ward, of San Leandro, Calif., who will be the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood.

Parties for McAfees

Nearly every day of their visit is filled with social engagements. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Waterman will entertain for them Wednesday night. The hosts and their guests will play a round of golf at the Salem Golf club early in the evening, which will be followed by a buffet supper. Honoring the visitors will be Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Al Loucks, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bell and the Watermans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell will entertain informally at dinner for the McAfees on Friday night. Additional guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Loucks are planning a party for the visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Paulson will entertain in their honor next Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wood will be hosts for a buffet supper Saturday night for the pleasure of their house guests at their home on West Leffelle street.

Arrive From South

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrol Owen of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Howard Dickson (Patricia Lee) of San Francisco arrived Saturday. They drove north and Mrs. Dickson, who is now making her home in the bay city, will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee, for a fortnight. Mr. and Mrs. Owen will visit friends during their brief stay here.

Miss Lucy Staples of Alhambra, Calif., has arrived in Salem to spend the summer at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fitts. Miss Staples, who formerly taught in the Salem public schools, took graduate work at Occidental college the past year. She will teach in Alhambra the ensuing year.

Summer Vacationists

Salem folk going away, just about balance the number of visitors arriving in the city to vacation.

Miss Beth Siewert and Miss Marcella Schwartz left by plane Saturday for New York City and Washington, D. C. Miss Siewert expects to stay on the east coast visiting friends until the first of September, but Miss Schwartz will return in several weeks.

Mrs. Robert Ramsden and her father, Grant Day, are flying south to Los Angeles and Glendale, Calif., on Tuesday. They will be there several weeks and enroute north with stop in San Francisco where Mr. Day will attend the Shriners convention.

Leave for Canadian Rockies
