Seen and Heard....

By Jerome English

NEW ADDRESS for Margaret Nunn, who has moved from her apartment in Oakland, Calif., to a small house at 478 Grand avenue. Margaret has been redecorating and remodeling for the past month, but has now moved in and is at home to friends. Her house is close to Lake Merritt, where she spends many an afternoon or evening in her sail boat. On the fourth of July Edith Clement, a former Salem girl, now working in San Francisco, spent the holiday with Margaret. They went sailing in the afternoon.

Now permanently settled are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Polts and sons, Ronald and Larry, who recently purchased a newly built home at 1515 Jefferson street. It began to look hopeless after they searched for a house for several months with no prospects in view. Finally they found a house on Court street to rent and the next week were fortunate in finding a home to buy. So Jean and Ken claim they are professional movers, having packed and unpacked twice in a week.

WEDDING ECHOES... Sweet and lovely was the Friday night marriage of Clarice Busselle and Fred Anusen... he as dark as she is blonde... Her becoming gown of white marquisette with wide lace bands on the skirt and train and her veil edged in the same lace... Clarice and her brother, Ted, who gave her in marriage, could almost be taken for twins as they walked down the aisle.

About bridesmaids... three young pretty coeds in pink and blue quaint frocks with bishop sleeves and carrying rubrum lilies and gladioluses... The two candle girls in blue nylon taffeta dresses fashioned with paniers in front... all the young girls who assisted, attractive in their long frocks... coming in together and taking a front pew... Especially liked Mary Ann Brady's singing, her songs so sweet... and the Rev. John L. Knight's service.

Reception notes... Happy wedding guests and so many young people... college friends of the couple and girls with their escorts... Blonde Jean Rowland in a grey tulleur and matching hat with her fiancé, George Schroeder, USA, out from New York on furlough... Betty Zo Allen and Carolyn Carson with their dates... Handsome Dick Slater home on leave from the navy... Adele Egan with her good-looking brother, Bill, just out of the service... George Causey and sister, Barbara... The attractive McClintock twins, Barbara and Gloria, whom we still can't tell apart... Identically dressed in pink print dresses and halo straw hats trimmed in pink flowers... Two of the Hale triplets, Doris and Patricia in polka dot dresses and white horse-hair hats.

Sitting with their father were the three Anusen girls... Jean (Mrs. Robert Brady)... Ruth (Mrs. Thomas Hill, jr.)... and Betty, (Mrs. Julian Wilke)... The Wilkes left Saturday morning in their new car for their home in Los Angeles... Julian is taking architecture at the University of Southern California... The bride's table... centered with the tiered cake and at one end on a large silver tray, the colorful pink peppermint ices, molded in round balls... printed in gold on the napkins... The Anusens, Fritz and Clarice... The newlyweds off to the beach and California on their honeymoon... and back again to Salem, their home in readiness for them.
