

Salmon Holds Hitting Perch With .391 Mark; Amaral 2nd

Base-hit bashing Woody Salmon, recently returned Salem Senior catcher, continues to lead the Western International league in hitting, according to figures released by Howe News Bureau through games of Sunday, July 13. Salmon's average at that time was .391, seven points ahead of Danny Amaral of Bremerton. Glenn Stetter of Wenatchee continues in third place with .379.

Solons Spear 10-9 Victory

Solons leads in runs scored with 46 and in hits with 110. Bill Harris of Bremerton is tops in homers, 24, runs batted in, 91, and total bases, 200. Ed Murphy, Victoria, is king base stealer with 20. Max Cadinha of Spokane and his 10 wins, 2 losses leads the pitchers. Bremerton is tops in both team hitting and fielding. Salem is last in fielding and third from the bottom in hitting.

center wall for the ball game. It was the first homer of the series and it was a man-sized wallop. Fallin had some pitching to do and his defense, with Wheeler looking right pert at short, had some sharp fielding to do to hold the lead, but it was held. The defense fell down with two errors in the seventh to allow the last Bluejacket run.

Bremerton bashed the most hits, 14 to 10, but Summer's big swing in the sixth was the all-conqueror of the bunch. . . . Five double plays in the thriller, and three by Salem when they were needed. . . . Fallin's win was his third and every one of the 1977 was glad to see him get it. . . . Still wearing the big shoulder chips, the ump's "ran" Bill Reese just as he came to bat in the eighth, and Bill didn't have time to say more than "heck" to the guy. . . .

Spokes Wallop Chiefs, 9 to 6

By The Associated Press
Wenatchee's Chiefs lost ground to the extent of a game last night as they fell before the Spokane Indians, 9 to 6, in ten innings. Steiner's double in the 10th with the bags loaded was the payoff blow for the Indians.

A five-run outburst in the fourth inning gave Tacoma enough rallies to trim the Victoria Athletics but they went on to add a few more and win 10 to 4. Hunk Anderson hurled his second win of the week as the Vancouver Capitanos nosed the Yakima Stars 8 to 7.

Baryard anticipates a return to WU in the fall. Walden is in the gasoline business in LaJolla, Cal. Olson is working for the state highway commission. Blake is in business in Portland after serving as a British flyer during the war. Birnie is after his master's degree at Oregon and will coach at Corvallis high. Versteeg is a doctor in the navy. McAdams runs a restaurant in Chico, Cal. Becken is at Willamette doing post-grad work. Jones is on the police force in Portland. Balkovic is with the state probation office in Portland. McKenzie is a labor organizer in Eugene. Grannis is in the electrical business in Peoria, Ill. Cranor is a chemist for Oregon Pulp & Paper and Reynolds is about to become a lawyer at WU.

Yes, Spec is a busy man these days—but not too busy to talk football and the men who once played it for him.
