Big Shoot Opens! Salem's Jack Crane Takes Singles

PORTLAND, Ore, July 26-(P)-Joe Kahut, 178-pound Wood-

The 41st Grand Pacific Trapshoot tournament roared to a fast get-a-way over the Salem Trapshooter's club range yesterday with some 240 "pidgeon" pingers engaged in a first-day 16-yard singles event and special handicap. Four classes were included, A, B, C and D.

Salem's Jack Crane won the Class A 16-yard event following a shootoff with three other marksmen. All had hit 99 in the regular event to tie. Crane shattered 25 straight to snatch the shootoff. Ray Glass, sharp-eyed veteran from Eugene took the Class A handicap with a 96 score. In the Class C singles Clara Ray, local woman luminary, lost out by one target to her brother-inlaw, M. W. Ray of John Day. who took top honors with a 96.

A. Madon of Longview, Wash., had a $8 to cop class B honors and J. Gleason of Myrtle Point, had a $9 to lead the class D's.

Class B honors in the handicap event went to Vinning, with 93.

A. Nusom of Quincy, Ore., state champion, had a $9 to cop class C title. Appel's $9 was high in class D.

Governor Earl Snell fired the opening shot for the gala bang derby and made his stint successful by shattering his target. Today's program sees the title seekers start for the PITA championships in 16-yard, handicap and doubles events for men, women, and juniors. The entry list will likely reach well over 300 with today's firing. The big meet winds up Sunday. Today's pright for the control of the c
