Loop Lead Narrowed to Four Points; Schubel Losing Hurler

SPOKANE, July 27-(Special)-Spokane's Indians rallied for four runs in the ninth inning here tonight to nose out the WIL leading Salem Senators 7 to 6 and narrow the Salems' margin over the second place Wenatchee Chiefs to four percentage points. Bill Schubel was charged with the loss, his third

The Senators built on early lead with a run in the third and four Bevos Stopped more in the fourth inning off Carl Sandell, who joined the Spokes yesterday from Rochester. The Indians came back with three in the sixth frame, and then knocked Schubel from the box in the ninth with their four-run splurge. Kowalski came in as relief hurler. The Salems connected for 12 blows off Sandell while Spokane totaled 14. Frank Lucchesi, back the Senators at the plate with three for five. The two clubs close their series with a regular Sunday
