

Family Visits Council Bluffs On Vacation

SILVERTON — Joan Sater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater, will teach at Isquia, Wash., near Seattle. Miss Sater attended Pacific Lutheran college at Parkland, Wash., from where she was graduated in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kuk and family are driving to Council Bluffs, Iowa, for a visit. While away their house will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Farmington, here on vacation from St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Ole Sater, who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen, at Hillsboro is expected home Tuesday.

Charles Hoyt began crushing rock for the county on Coffee Bar, near St. Paul, this week. He expects to turn out 25,000 yards instead of the 18,000 first planned.

Mrs. L. A. Meyer and two daughters, Karen and Mary, will leave Sunday for Minnesota where she will visit her mother, Mrs. F. G. Rogers. Mrs. Meyer, a registered nurse, has been employed for several years in the local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Satterlee have reopened Lone Pine store after a month's vacation in the mid-west.

Mrs. Roland Shafer has returned here after visiting her husband, Lieutenant Shafer who received orders to leave soon for Japan for five months duty. Mrs. Shafer was at one time employed in the George Hubb company offices.

Mrs. Edward Ekman visited here Friday with her two brothers, Frank and George Hubbs. Mrs. Ekman, the former Blanche Hubbs, taught here and in Salem schools for a number of years. She and Ekman, also a former resident, have a residence in Eugene where he is employed.

Salem Groups To Attend Air Meet at Eugene

Salem's airport and chamber of commerce are to be represented at a statewide aviation meeting in Eugene August 9. The session has been called by the Oregon State Aviation council, a group formed to correlate aviation interests in the state.

Among those expected to attend the meeting are Wallace Hug, airport manager, and E. Burr Miller, president of the chamber of commerce.

The council has informed the local chamber that one of every 78 Oregon residents now is a pilot or student pilot and one of every 1583 owns his own plane. Discussions at the August 9 meeting will center around airport develop-
