HOMES FOR AMERICANS 10, K 11, 11' X 13'6"

Design No EG-1tt, The American Builder magazine, 105 West Adams St Chicago, 3, Ill.)

AP Newsdeathres A modern touch is added to the typical Cape Cod cottage to give this house its open plan and large window expanse. Designed by Elmer Gylieck of Elgin, Itt., its cost is estimated at $7000 for most localities, exclusive of land. The sidewalls are faced with plywood and vertical battens lend accents. Gable ends are horizontal elapboards. Roofing is asphalt shingles. If built without a basement the stairball in the feft rear of the plan provides a utility room.
