

Marjorie Tye to Wed...

Today's romantic news concerns the betrothal and coming marriage of Miss Marjorie Tye of Salem, daughter of J. Edward Tye of Jamesport, Mo., to Oscar A. White, of Salem. The wedding is planned for mid-August and will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Olson.

Miss Tye received her bachelor of science degree at the University of Nebraska and her master's from the University of Washington. She has been with the Oregon State college extension service as home demonstration agent for the past five years, two years of that time in Marion county. Since July 1 she has been acting state specialist in clothing and textiles.

Mr. White is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Sigma Tau fraternity. He received his master's degree at the University of Oregon. He is engineer specialist for the Oregon state highway department. The couple will live in Salem following their marriage.

Summer Travelers...

Summer travelers leave the city each day for sojourns north, east and south. Miss Eleanor Trindle is entraining Wednesday for Santa Barbara, Calif., for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hammond Burnett (Helen Purvine). Later in August Mrs. Burnett and her sister, Miss Margaret Purvine of Berkeley, Calif., plan to come north for a visit with their mother, Dr. Mary B. Purvine.

Mrs. Wilmer C. Smith and daughter, Laura, will leave by plane Thursday for a two week's visit in Boston and Haverhill, Mass., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mullen. They will make the return trip by plane.

Bound For Canada

Miss Mary White and Miss Janet Bower are entraining Friday for a fortnight's sojourn into the Canadian Rockies. They will spend ten days at Lake Louise and Banff and enroute both ways will stop at the Vancouver Hotel at Vancouver, B. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk and son, Ronald, left Friday for a ten day stay at Paradise Inn at Mt. Rainier and other Washington points.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walton and children, Jeff and Elizabeth, have returned from a week's sojourn at Seal Rocks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars and Mrs. Flora Thomas are leaving today for a week's stay at Neakowin. Also at Neakowin for the week are Mrs. George Scales and daughter, Jeanne, and Miss Ruth Foster.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Miss Rabenau Engaged

Miss Shirley Rabenau and Samuel Tripp took the romantic spotlight Saturday night when they announced their betrothal. It was at an informal at-home at the Rabenau residence on North Summer street that the news was revealed to a group of their friends.

The brunette bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rabenau and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Del Tripp. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Rabenau attended Salem schools and graduated from Longview high school. She attended Willamette university and is a Pi Beta Phi. She is now employed at Ladd and Bush branch, United States National bank. Her fiance is a graduate of Salem high school. He plans to attend college in the east this fall. He served in the navy over three years as a radioman third class, two years of which was overseas duty. He is now employed at the S. S. Pacific R. R.

Guests learned the news when they found a clever verse written on napkins telling the couple's engagement. Bouquets of summer flowers provided the decorative note about the rooms.

Hidden to the announcement party were Misses Dorane Humphrey, Virginia Covert, Beverly McGilchrist, Shirley Parker, Maxine Smith, Thelma Wilcox and Olene Mehlhoff, Messrs. Bland Simmons, Jack Bartlett, Charles Winkler, Daryl Lewis, Edward Fitzsimmons, Lyle White, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. James Butte, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fitzsimmons, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau.

Visitors Arrive...

There is an influx of visitors in the capital during the summer season.

Miss Doris Riches of Boston is arriving in Salem Monday for a visit with her brothers, George and Lloyd Riches, and sister, Mrs. Marjorie Whiteley.

Expected the first of the week for a visit are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodbury (Minnie Shrode) of El Centro, Calif., who will be houseguests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Shrode for several weeks.

Miss Carol Young, daughter of the Hubbell Youngs, and Miss Emma Lou East, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. East, will arrive in Salem Saturday from San Francisco for a visit at their homes. Miss Young will return to her position in the bay city, but Miss East plans to remain in the north.

Golf looks to be a favorite hot weather sport. If these snapshots of women players tell a true story. The pictures were taken at the Salem Golf club on Tuesday, "Ladies Day."

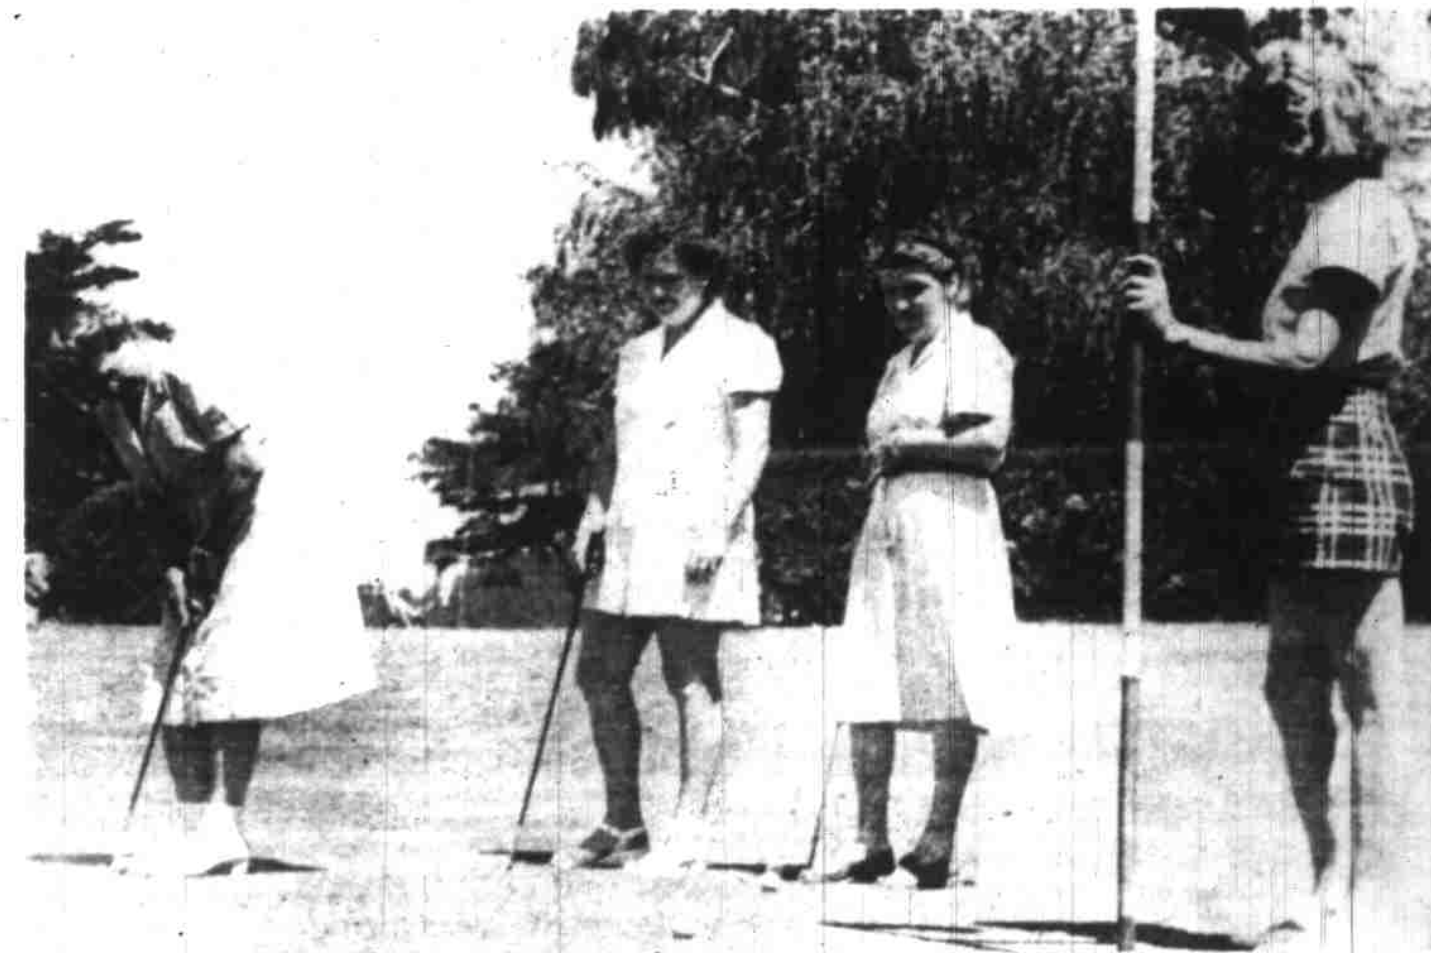

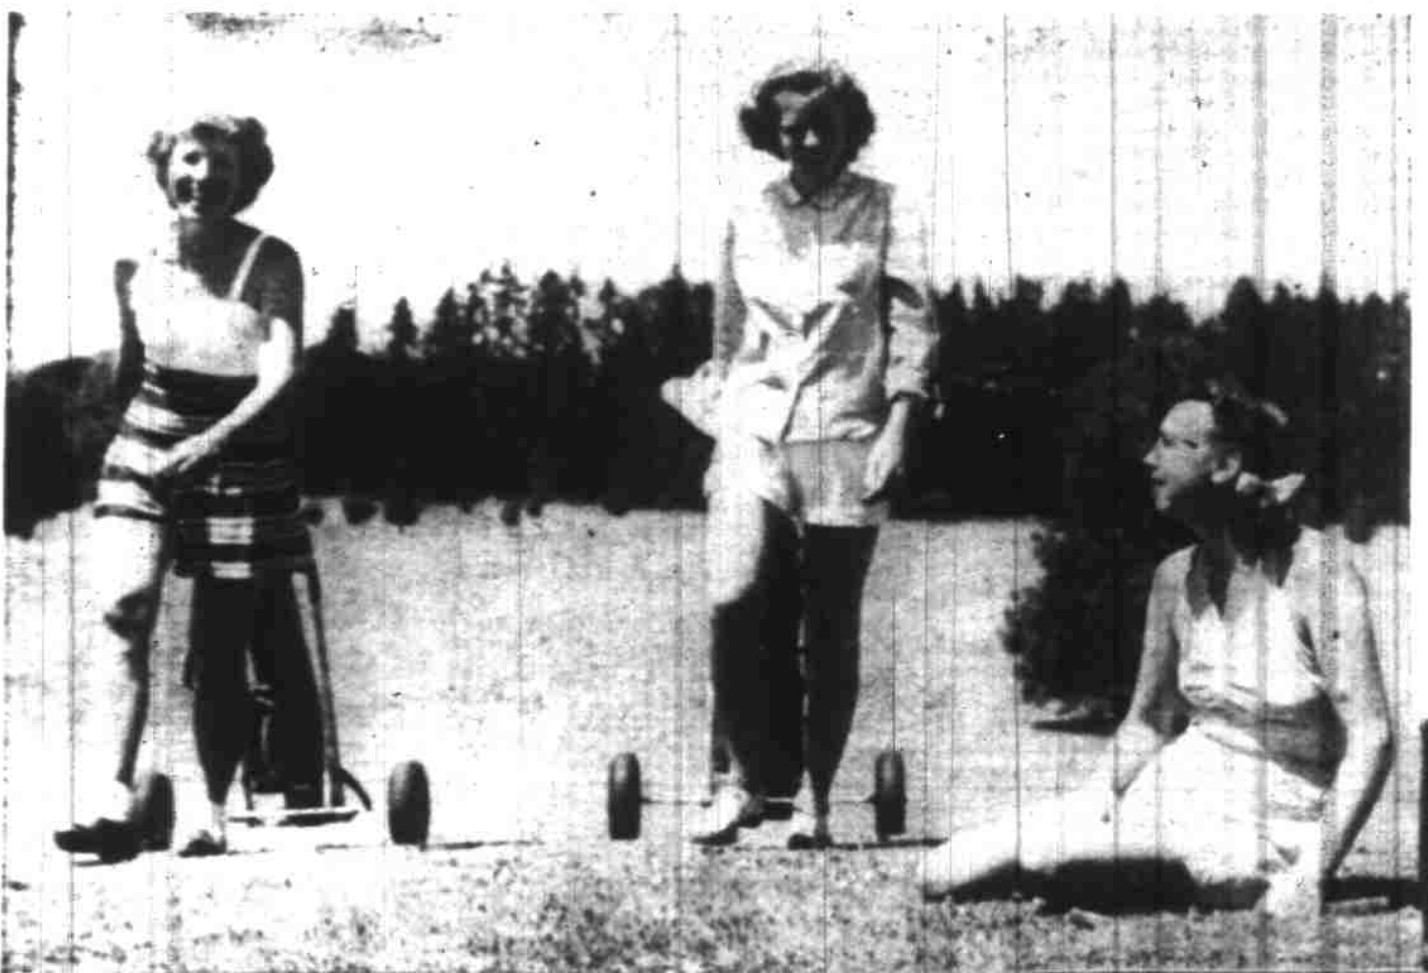

Mrs. Leon Perry in the upper picture, practices putting on the green before the clubhouse, and is watched by Mrs. Glenn O. Stevenson, Mrs. Kenneth Potts and Mrs. William H. Hammond.

At the left, Mrs. Reynolds Allen and Mrs. Claybourne Dyer come up the fairway pulling their caddy cars behind them. Mrs. Steve Kraus waits for them.

At the right, Mrs. Harry Wiedmer puts on the ninth green as Mrs. John H. Thompson and Mrs. Claude Johns watch and Mrs. Robin Day holds the flag.

In the lower lefthand picture Barbara Viesko makes a pretty drive off the first hole. In the background are Mrs. William T. Waterman, Mrs. Conrad Paulson and Mrs. Robert Joseph.

The lower righthand picture shows some of the younger women striding in after playing nine holes. They are left to right, Mrs. Stephen Fouchek, Mrs. Harry McBurnett and Mrs. Robert Burns. (All Photos by Statesman Society department.)

To Wed Today...

At the First Presbyterian church this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Zillah Frogley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Frogley will become the bride of Samuel Harold Schooley, son of Mrs. Pearl Coucy. Pink and white gladioluses and palms will be used at the altar. The Rev. Francis Chambers will perform the nuptials and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs will be the organist.

Of white satin is the bridal gown. The full skirt is fashioned with a short train and the fitted bodice is made with low scalloped waistline, long sleeves with points over the wrists and a sweetheart neckline.

A coronet of seed pearls will hold her fingertip length tulle veil in place. Her bouquet will be of stephanotis and bouvardia centered with an orchid. Mr. Frogley will give his daughter in marriage.

Miss Arlene Frogley will be her sister's maid of honor. She will wear a pastel blue gown with full net skirt and lace bodice designed with a lace peplum. The sleeves are short and the neckline is sweetheart style. She will carry pink bouvardia and yellow roses clustered in a large pink net bow.

Miss Verona Davis of Portland will be bridesmaid and her gown is of rose taffeta with pointed bodice, full skirt and short sleeves. She will carry a blue net bow with yellow roses and pink bouvardia.

Attend the Groom

Harvey Griffin will stand with the groom as best man and seating the guests will be Raymond Griffin and Marvin Little, Albany.

For the bride's nuptials, Mrs. Frogley has chosen a powder blue crepe dress printed in black and black accessories. Her corsage will be of stephanotis and pink roses. Mrs. Coucy will attend her son's marriage in a navy blue gown with sheer yoke and navy accessories. Her flowers will be pale pink carnations.

A reception will follow in the church parlors. Miss Jess M. White will preside at the punch bowl and Mrs. J. D. Strell. Acting as aunts of the bride, will be the cake serving. The bridesmaids will be Misses Anita Boyd and Lorraine Miller, Mrs. M. H. Jackson, Portland, and Mrs. Lewis Judson, Roseburg. Mrs. Warren James and Mrs. Milton Hartwell will pass the guest book and be in charge of the gift table.

When the couple leave for a motor trip north the bride will don an atomic blue dressmaker suit with a black felt rolled turban trimmed in black satin ribbon. She will have black patent accessories and white gloves. Pinned to the shoulder of her suit will be a white orchid. Mr. Schooley and his bride will live in Salem.

California Rites...

Details have reached Salem of the approaching marriage of Miss Claire Kingman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Kingman of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., and Lee Cameron McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McDonald of Salem, which will take place in the south on August 17.

The wedding will be at the First Methodist church in Redondo Beach at 3 o'clock with Dr. W. Irvin Williams of Long Beach, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, officiating.

Miss Mary Lee Kingman will be her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Evelyn Downer, Eagle Rock, Calif., and Miss Mary Deese, La Jolla, Calif., both classmates of Miss Kingman's at Pomona college. Gay Little of Palos Verdes Estates will be flower girl.

David Minar of Salem will stand with the groom. Ushers will be Alan Kingman, brother of the bride-to-be, William Burns, Salem, Ralph Matson, Seattle, Ray Loter, Portland, and Otis Wilson, Pacific Palisades, Calif.

A reception will follow at the Kingman home in Palos Verdes Estates.

Mr. McDonald plans to go south August 7 and his parents will follow on August 13.

Date Is Set...

Miss Civilla Reeber, who revealed her engagement to Joseph Franko of Aberdeen, Wash., in June, has announced that they will be married on Sunday, September 1. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Reeber and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Franko of Aberdeen.

The marriage vows will be exchanged at the studio of Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts with a reception following at the Reeber home on Stewart street.

Miss Reeber has just returned from a week's stay in Aberdeen at the Franko home. The couple will live in Aberdeen.

Evening Coffee...

Salem Spinsters will be hostesses to their mothers, honoring members and their mothers at an evening coffee at the Carl Nelson home on Wednesday night from 7 to 9 o'clock. The affair is a "gets-acquainted" party.

In the receiving line will be officers of the organization, Miss Lorraine Taylor, Miss Patricia Cannon, Miss Jean Taylor and Miss Donna Shafer, and Miss Beryl Holt.

Pouring will be Mrs. Daniel Fry, jr., and Mrs. Linn Smith. Miss Phyllis MacGregor and Miss Helen Shepard are co-chairmen.

The Social Whirl...

Luncheons, showers for brides-elect and informal picnics and gatherings highlight the social news for the coming week.

Mrs. F. W. Lehmer is planning two bridge luncheons for Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at her Royal Court apartment for the pleasure of a group of friends.

Guests, several of whom are coming from out-of-town, have been invited to one o'clock luncheons. Covers will be placed for eight at each affair and summer flowers will provide the decorative note.

Shower For Bride-Elect

Miss Virginia Case will be a shower hostess Wednesday night when she entertains in honor of Miss Leona Tingledad, bride-elect of William Stortz.

Bridge will be in play during the evening with a late buffet supper following. A kitchen shower will fete the bride-to-be. The hostess will be assisted informally by her sister, Mrs. Gordon Reed.

Bidden to honor Miss Tingledad are Miss Margaret Hughlett, Miss Marilyn Nelson, Miss Janice Patterson, Miss Vicky Jones, Miss Luella Nichols, Mrs. Douglas Baker, Mrs. Leighton Charles Fairham and Mrs. Gordon Reed.

Plans Told...

August brides-elect are completing plans for their weddings. Miss Jean Wolcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Wolcott, will be married on August 19 to Kyle Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith. The ceremony will take place in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church at 8 o'clock with Dr. Joseph M. Adams officiating.

Miss Grace Astford will sing and Miss Velma Folsome will be the pianist. Mrs. Stanley Wolcott will be her sister-in-law's only attendant and Mr. Wolcott will be best man.

A reception will follow the ceremony and after a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem.

Iwen-Jaskoski Rites

St. Joseph's Catholic church on August 14 will be the setting for the wedding of Miss Patricia Jaskoski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jaskoski, to William Iwen, son of Mrs. J. Miller of Aumsville.

The nuptial mass will be performed at 8 o'clock by Father T. J. Bernards. The bride-elect, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked her sister, Miss Margaret Jaskoski, to be her only attendant.

A wedding breakfast will follow the rites. Later in the day the couple will leave on a trip. They will reside in Salem. The groom-elect was recently released from the navy.

Harper-Turner Plans Told

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Emily Turner, daughter of the H. D. Turners, and Marvin Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Harper of Gervais, whose marriage will take place August 3 at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock. Dr. W. T. Milliken, grandfather of the bride, will officiate.

Singing will be William Fisher and Miss Sylvia Riechlow's matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be her sister, Miss Rena Harper, and Mrs. Frank Beckwith, Junior attendants will be Shirley Griener and David Turner, brother of the bride. Flower girls will be Sondra Cooper and Marlan Kemmel of Oceanlake. Stanton Anderson and Edward Carr will be ring bearers.

W. D. Turner of Corvallis will be best man and ushers are Sidney Harper, Frank Beckwith, Kenneth Steffin, Harold Tillman, Turner Boyd, Dale Jones, James and Loran Milliken.

A reception will be held in the church parlors. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem.