

Wedding in East Told By Parents

The wedding of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Upjohn to Lloyd Hunter at Elkton, Md., on August 7 is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Upjohn. The groom, a chief boatswain's mate in the navy, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hunter of Long Beach, Calif.

The bride, a graduate of Salem high school and Willamette university, is also a graduate of library school at University of California and has been assistant librarian at technical school navy pier, Chicago, and at the Brooklyn naval hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y., for the past two years.

The groom attended University of Southern California and was with a drug firm in Beverly Hills, Calif., prior to entering the navy.

Skaug-Fryer Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Fryer of Woodburn are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Fryer, to Clarence Skaug, son of Mrs. Dora Skaug, all of Salem.

Miss Fryer was with the WAC stationed in Washington, D. C., and since her discharge has remained her former duties with the state highway department. Mr. Skaug is again with the Oregon Paper and Paper company after his discharge from the army, being with the 8th air force in England.

Miss Griffin Now Mrs. Macklin

Miss Iwana Griffin, daughter of Mrs. Eve Griffin of Salem and J. A. Griffin of California, and Wendell Macklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Macklin were married August 3. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dudley Strain at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. Griffin.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother. She wore a gray pin stripe suit and corsage of gardenias and rosebuds. She was attended by Mrs. Marybeth Newland and Walt Hillpot attended the groom.

A reception was given following the ceremony. The couple went on a trip along the coast. They will live in Salem upon their return.
