Miss Janice Patterson A Bride

St. Paul's Episcopal chapel was the setting for an impressive wedding ceremony Tuesday night when Miss Janice Patterson, daughter of Major and Mrs. Frank B. Patterson, became the bride of William Burke Cate, son of Mr. L. M. Moberly of Middleton, Idaho. The nuptial vows were repeated at 8 o'clock with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. The altar was decorated with bouquets of white asters and snap dragons flanked by tall white tapers. Professor Maurice Brennen was the organist.

Major Patterson came down from Seattle, where he is stationed with the army, to give his eldest daughter in marriage. For her wedding she wore a white lace gown fashioned with low waistline to which was gathered a full, floor length skirt. The sleeves were long and trimmed with lace buttons and the high neckline was round.

Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from an open crown designed with a high pointed tiara of lace and tulle. She carried a white prayer book marked with white orchids.

Miss Jean Patterson preceded her sister to the altar and was her maid of honor. She wore a peach net frock made with a low waistline, full skirt, cap sleeves and a high round neckline. She carried a cascade bouquet of peach gladioluses and wore a flowered Juliet cap.

Brother is Best Man
Richard Cate of Middleton stood with his brother as best man. Seating the guests was Stanley Boyd.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Patterson selected a navy blue sheer suit with white lace trim and a navy hat with matching accessories. Mrs. Moberly, who came with her sons for the wedding, wore a black crepe ensemble with matching accessories. Their corsages were of fuchsias and rosebuds.

The Patterson home was the scene of the wedding reception which followed the nuptials. Mrs. Bessie Horner presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. E. E. Bragg cut the bride's cake. Serving were Miss Margaret Hughlett, Miss Donna Upjohn, Miss Barbara Belt, and Miss Mary Nims of Portland. Miss Virginia Case passed the guest book.

The newlyweds motored north to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., on their honeymoon. For traveling the bride donned a black suit with lace trim and white sheer blouse. Her hat and accessories were black and to her suit she pinned white orchids. On September 2 Mr. Cate and his bride will entrain for Boston where they will live for the ensuing two years while he is completing his education at Boston university.

Visitors Are Honored at Supper

Mrs. Kenneth Hanson and her mother, Mrs. Roy H. Mills, were hostesses for a smartly arranged buffet supper party Tuesday night at the former's home on Saginaw street for the pleasure of Mrs. H. Burnett of Santa Barbara and her sister, Miss Margaret Purvine of Berkeley, who are here visiting at the home of their mother, Dr. Mary B. Purvine.

Arrangements of pastel summer garden flowers provided the decorative note on the buffet table and about the rooms. Contract bridge was in play during the evening.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Burnett and Miss Purvine, Dr. Mary B. Purvine, Mrs. Daniel Schreiber of Independence, Mrs. Wayne Doughton, Mrs. William H. Trindle, sr., Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mrs. Robert W. Craig, Mrs. Manfred Olson, Mrs. Samuel J. Butler, Mrs. Leona Johnson, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Mrs. Roy H. Mills and Mrs. Kenneth Hanson.
