Solons Split With Tacoma, Creep Nearer Second Place

Kowalski Loser, Wyatt Winner; Popular Player Award Tonight; Mossor to Join Club This Week

By Al Lightner

The Solons could do no better than draw with the Tacomas in their nine-game final home series start at the ball yard last night, dropping the opener 4 to 3, and copping the nightcap in a breeze, 10 to 3, but they did manage to creep nearer the second place Bremertons. Thankfully helpful, the Brems were knocked over by Vancouver. So it now stands: Salem 6 games in arrears of leading Wenatchee, a mere half contest behind Bremerton and 2½ ahead of the visiting Tiges.

"Red" Harvel's marvels and the Gullic gang meet in a single shot tonight at 8:15, and during the session Salem's most popular player of the season will be handed his $100 victory bond by the Bishop studio people. That player will likely be Duane Crawford, the say - little - hit - plenty first baser who has a large lead in the race. Also, tonight may see Lefty Wandell Mossor in a Salem uniform—at long last and goody-goody. He has been ordered to join the Gullics just as soon as a slightly injured hand heals and was in Portland last night. The digit was hurt last Sunday in San Francisco. The talented lefty comes as last-ditch help for the struggling locals. Former Beaver Hank Souza joined the Salems last night and caught the first game.

It could have been a totally successful takeoff for the Solons and for 2033 customers last night, but Eddie Kowalski, the tough-lucky of the nine ran afoul his too prominent wild streak and dropped the opener to Enemy Righthander Bob Heddington. A pair of walks to start off the third heat, and then a single by Catcher Earl Kuper and a double by First-sacker Chuck Clifford accounted for two runs. Eddie got behind in pitching to Bobby Joratz in the fourth and the Tige outfielder smacked one of his softer serves over the right field wall for a third run. A double and two outfield flies proved the clincher in the seventh.

The home side had picked up a pair in the second on Crawford's single, Dick Wenner's double, Frank Lucchesi's infield hit and Souza's line fly to right. Another came in the fifth on Kowalski's single, a sacrifice and Crawford's bloop hit into left. But that was all off stingy Mr. Heddington.

Salem salted down the nightcap in the first inning when Hal Summers, with the bases loaded, powered a tremendous triple high against the distant center wall, off youthful Richie Colombo. But the Gullics made things more secure in the fourth with a six-run outbreak, which wasn't Colombo's fault at all. His mates kicked in three errors in the berserk frame and the locals managed to weave in seven assorted base hits. The biggest blow of the uproarous stanza was Wenner's soaring double high against the left barrier.

Lefty Ken Wyatt, although wilder than usual and in trouble often, breezed to his 13th victory in this one. He whiffed six and walked seven along with delivering a pair of Salem's 14 base hits himself. Kowalski's loss was his 13th, incidentally.

The 2033 gathering amounted to a running jump at the 100,000 goal which must be chicken or feathers this week. The grand total, with seven more games to go, reads 92,037. Doubleheaders are booked for Thursday and Sunday nights. . . . "Doc" Regele and Amby Moran, the latter back in the league again and the pair of 'em classed by the athletes as the two best boys in blue in the circuit, are doing the umpiring chores this week. Moran was a mite late in arriving, but is welcome. . . . The league's leading rapper, Dick Kemper, got to bat only once in the opener. He didn't like the way Regele called a beautiful block play at the plate by Souza in the third inning on Kuper and was promptly handed the well known thumb. . . . Tonight it's to be Lefty Carl Gunnarson for the Gullics and Hal Jungbluth for the enemy.

WIL Marks Tied, Broken

By The Associated Press

The Wenatchee Chiefs—with time running out in the WIL pennant chase — bolstered their loop lead last night as they trimmed the Victoria Athletics 5 to 2. The Chiefs nabbed the win in spite of the 16-strikeout-hurling of the A's Bob Jensen, who broke the league record when he upped his whiff total to 261. Umpires Dawson and Tuma were escorted from the field by police after they had called a decision against the Vics in the seventh inning. The Vancouver Capilanos scored 10 runs in the seventh inning and added another in the ninth to defeat the second-place Bremerton Tars, 11 to 10 in a wild hitting affair. Bill Barisoff hit his 37th homer for the Tars—equalling the loop record. Gus Hallbourg pitched the Spokane Indians to a 10 to 4 win over the Yakima Stars. The Spokes tallied eight runs in the initial four innings.

SPORTSLIGHTNER

by Al Lightner

Should Salem high's autumnal Viking blossom forth with footballing a la the pros, be not surprised. One of those sweltering in the Multnomah press coup during the Brooklyn-Chicago extravaganza Sunday night, but not too warm to jot down formations, plays, etc., was H. Hank Villa coaching boss. And those who saw the pros go at it know that Hank had some beautiful stuff to stencil . . . . Another coaching man, this one Ray (Red) Flaherty, skipper of the New York Yankees after leaving the Washington Redskins of the National loop, was doing considerable mapping of his own. In fact, every play used by either side went into Flaherty's notebook, and we definitely heard a low whistle from the former Gonzaga man every time Glenn Dobbs uncorked one of his aerial sparklers. Dobbs may not turn out to be the best back in the new All-America conference, but he'll most certainly be in better condition than the rest. A bench man when the Dodgers are on the defensive, but the signal-calling quarterback when the Brooks have the ball, Dobbs raced off and on the field at least 25 times during the game.

BILL AUSTIN

Speaking of footballers, Bill Austin fans may be quite disappointed next season. Victim of a torn cartilege in a knee during an OSC spring drill, Woodburn Bill now has one of those in-again-out-again maladies and doesn't expect to be at right tackle much when the Beavers play. He was to have had an operation on the knee this summer but lo, the docs were too busy to perform it. Tough too, since Bill is in good shape at a solid 200 pounds via working on a farm this summer.

Sooner or Later They'll Do It Every Time

This might be entitled, "You Ain't So Hot, Pop," or "Dickie Gets Well." Anyway, Pappa Don Hendrie, a golfer of sorts, has had a standing twenty-dollars-to-four-bits bet with son Dick that the senior member of the Hendrie tribe is the best golfer in it. Over the years Dick has never been able to beat his illustrious sire on the links — that is, up until last Sunday at Neskowin on the coast. 'Tis reported Dick waxed pappy but good, 3 and 1, and collected the twenty. He is now sixteen bucks ahead, for in the past Dick had to pay Donald $4 in lousy bets. From now on the father vs. son battle goes on a buck-across-the-board basis, says Donald.

The northern division of the County B league's loss, the southern division's gain. Both Lew Uhrhammer and Mike Glenn, coaching men at St. Paul and Gervais respectively, in past years, are now teamed up for Turner high, Uhrhammer as principal as well. Paul Reiling, erstwhile Mt. Angel skipper, goes into Gervais. St. Paul may not have a coaching staff, or even anything to coach, if a school condemnation isn't lifted.

When a Cop Is a Pal

Laff. It must be catching about the league this year, for Umps Gus Hanke and Hughie Day, the big bad chase 'em men of the WIL, had to have a cordon of cops for protection in Wenatchee the other eve after irate fans busted down the door of their dressing room. Along with our beleaguered townies, the guys who should be the happiest come September 8 are most assuredly the loop arbiters. What a year they are having. All of 'em know personally and thankfully, every cop in the northwest.

Any doubt that pay-for-play football's new All-America conference species can not hold its own with the glitter and glamor that is collegiate campaigning was most certainly erased from the minds of those 18,000 who watched the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Rockets Sunday night. True, no rah-rahs or ziss-boom-yea-coach were there, but the perfection the pros weave in with their rock-em and sock-em game left one with the opinion that here is footballing that can't be beat. Collegiate football at its best will have a bad time competing with it for crowd appeal.

TIERNEY WINNER

SEATTLE, Aug. 20 (AP) Billy Tierney, former Cleveland welterweight, won a 10-round decision tonight over Babe Picazo, a wiry Mexican from Oakland, Calif., for his third straight long victory in Seattle.

Salem Boxers Win 2 Games

The Salem Box girls' softball team, rapidly gaining for itself a reputation in state circles, decisively defeated a couple of downstate clubs over the weekend. The locals walloped Jantzen Knitting Mills 19 to 4 Sunday night in the Rose city and came back to hammer Oregon City 17 to 2 Monday evening in the Clackamas county town.

Next Friday night the Salem girls will enter an invitational tourney at Portland's Buckman field, being scheduled to meet the Devil Demos at 7:45.

Salem 19 22 5
Jantzen 4 5 5
Barrett and Wadsworth; Lemon, Olson and Gonzales.
Salem 17 14 4
O City 2 6 7
Barrett and Wadsworth; Misley, Miller and McCain.

All-Star Grid Classic Looms

Game Comeback Test For College Players

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 20 (AP) The 13th annual college all-star football game may be strictly a spectacle for some 95,000 fans at Soldier Field Friday night, but for the collegiate squad generally it will be a postwar comeback test of bread-and-butter significance.

At least 55 of the 68-member squad Coach Bo McMillan will send against the champion Los Angeles Rams of the National Football league are headed for professional play this fall. Most of them are rusty from military service and certainly not any younger than when they were campus hot-shots, two, three and even as many as seven years ago.

For instance, all-star Captain Martin Ruby won letters as a rip-snortin' tackle at Texas A & M in 1939-40-41.

The Rams, now en route from their Compton, Calif., base, will polish off practice at Soldier Field tomorrow afternoon and Thursday night. McMillan will stage an all-star dress rehearsal tomorrow night and Thursday afternoon.

Dusette-Gray in Mat Win

The big squeeze full nelson dealing duet of Georges Dusette and Karl Gray was too much for nasties Mike Nazerian and Bob Kennaston before a sizeable crowd at the armory last night and took the tag team mat main event in straight falls. Which was very much okeh with the customers. After both Dusette and Gray took turns plastering the meanies with their favorite weapons, it was Dusette with a nelson on Nazerian for the first fall in 20 minutes.

Not content to go at it one at a time, both Mike and partner tried the two-on-one "hold" in No. 2. Bedlam busted loose in both ring and audience, and ended when Referee George Poppenheimer disqualified the culprits. Dusette had another nelson on Nazerian at the time, however, so it made little difference. Naturally, Mike and Robert roared "foul" and "we wanna rematch."

In the prelims, Jack (Tiger) Kiser's dropkicks flattened aging Bulldog Jackson easily and Joe Wolfe bested Dr. John Bonica, two falls to one, in a pleasing scientific scramble.

Death Closes Career of 'Hurry Up' Yost

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Aug. 20—(AP)—Fielding Harris (Hurry Up) Yost, who built a national reputation as a football strategist during 39 years with the University of Michigan, died today of a gall bladder attack. He celebrated his 75th birthday April 30. Although he had been in failing health for several years, Yost's death came suddenly. He had walked around his Ann Arbor home this morning and was apparently gaining strength following a recent illness.

His career as a football coach began in an era of mustached players garbed in turtleneck sweaters and ended in a day of giant sadia and cheering multitudes.

Since 1940 Yost had been in virtual retirement, although holding the post of atheletic director emeritus at the Ann Arbor institution. His condition became serious enough this spring to warrant his hospitalization in Battle Creek, Mich. However, he was released within a few days and allowed to return to his home in Ann Arbor. Mrs. Yost, whom he married in 1906, was with him when he died. They have one son, Fielding H. Yost, jr.

Fielding Yost, renowned as a gridiron tactician, won the first Rose Bowl game with his Michigan squad in 1901, developed Michigan's famed "point-a-minute" team that rolled up 2841 points to 42 for the opposition during the years 1901 to 1905, and turned out 15 all-Americans during his long tenure at Ann Arbor.

He was a brother-in-law of Dan E. McGugin, widely-known Vanderbilt university football coach who died several years ago. A native of Fairview, W. Va., Yost payed baseball at Ohio Northern university, then Ohio Normal. There was no football team there but he 'discovered" the game at West Virginia university in 1894 and his career was shaped.

Pitts Reject Guild With Decisive Vote

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 20 (AP) Members of the Pittsburgh Pirates team today rejected the American Baseball Guild in baseball's first collective bargaining election by a 15 to 3 vote. Nineteen of 31 eligible players voted in the election, one vote was challenged. Ten players did not appear at the poling place in a downtown office building and two eligible to vote were not available because they were out of the city.

Guild organizer Robert Murphy has ten days to challenge the election—a challenge he undoubtedly will issue. Murphy, chewing a cigar, took his defeat calmly, saying: "The result came as no surprise to me since I've said within the last couple of days—off the record—the Guild couldn't possibly win."

NL Gap Narrows!

Cards Win, Brooks Lose; Ted Hits 33

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20 (AP) The St. Louis Cardinals slashed the National league leading Brooklyn Dodgers' advantage to one-half game tonight as they trimmed the Boston Braves, 4 to 1, while the Dodgers were losing to Pittsburgh. Howie Pollett allowed the Braves just three hits. The Dodgers could get but four hits off Nick Strincevich as the Bucs muzzled them, 10 to 0. The Chicago Cubs dished out a double beating to the Philadelphia Phils, 5 to 2 and 10 to 2, and the New York Giants took the Cincinnati Reds, 4 to 3, on homers by Goody Rosen and Walker Cooper.

In the American league the Boston Red Sox split a pair with the St. Louis Browns, winning the first game, 5 to 1, and dropping the aftermath, 5 to 4. Ted Williams hit his 33d homer of the year in the second game. At Washington Bobby Feller lost his third game in a row, as the Senators nosed the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 4 with the help of Indian errors. The New York Yankees bowed to the Chicago White Sox, 9 to 2, and the Philadelphia A's blanked the Detroit Tigers, 2 to 0, behind Bob Savage's three-hit hurling.

Ferrier Grabs PGA Limelight

'Big Jim' Medalist; Shoots Record 134

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 20 (AP) Big, blond Jim Ferrier shattered par, a national record and the hopes of rival stars today to win medal honors in the 1946 Professional Golfers association championship with a 36-hole qualifying score of 134. When the Australian-born sharpshooter, now playing out of San Francisco, rammed home the final putt for a 29-34—63 today he had accomplished these feats: 1. lopped two strokes off the old PGA qualifying score of 136. 2. Tied the Portland Country club competitive course record of 63 set last year by Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa. 3. His 29 was the lowest nine-hole score for a national PGA event; the 63 was the best single round for this tournament. He won himself $250 and a gold medal for fronting the field.

The first round leader, E. J. "Dutch" Harison of Little Rock, Ark., whose 65 nabbed the headlines, came back with a 71 today, good enough to help equal the old PGA qualifying record of 136 for two rounds but still two shots behind the flying Ferrier in the over-all total.

The 64 low scorers of the starting field of 122 qualified for match play competition starting tomorrow. Defending champion Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., was automatically qualified. Scores of 148 and under qualified for the championship proper. Among those just getting under the wire were the holders of the two most important titles in golf, U. S. open champion Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago and British open champ Sam Snead of Hot Springs, Va. Each had 147.
