

Miss Bentley Weds Erwin Bahlburg

A number of Salem people were in Klamath Falls last week end for the marriage of Miss Barbara Bentley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin L. Bentley of Tulelake, Calif., and Erwin C. Bahlburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Bahlburg of Salem, which took place on September 1 at the First Methodist church in Klamath Falls.

The 4 o'clock nuptials were performed by the Rev. Hugh Bronson. Mrs. Elsie Webster of Tulelake was the vocalist, and Mrs. George McIntyre the organist. White gladioluses and asters were used on the altar, and the pews were marked with white aster tied with satin bows.

Mr. Bentley gave his only daughter in marriage, and her classic eggshell satin gown was decorated with a crown of white stephanotis. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with white and green orchids.

Miss Doris Trank of Maui, Hawaii, was the maid of honor, bridesmaids were Miss Florence Wagenet of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Shirley Sobrt of San Francisco. The honor attendant wore a pastel blue net gown and carried a pink nosegay of carnations and sweet peas. Her headpiece was of pink carnations with a short circular veil of net. The bridesmaids wore similar frocks of pink net and their flowers and headpieces were of blue.

Richard L. Cooley of Salem was best man and ushers were William White and Gordon King of Salem and Albert McBeck of Dallas.

Mrs. Bentley chose a royal blue gown with black accessories and corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Bahlburg attended her son's marriage in a must blue gown with cerise feather hat and corsage of rapture roses.

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors. Among those assisting were Mrs. L. O. Arens of Salem, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Wayne J. Page of Dallas, sister of the groom, who cut the cake.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip to California, the bride donned a chocolate brown gabardine suit with pastel green top coat. Her rose-beige hat was embellished with feathers and her accessories were brown. The couple will be at home in Salem after September 15 at 955 South High street.

Ceremony at Church

The marriage of Miss Earline Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gleason, to Melvin L. Gilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin J. Gilson, all of Salem, took place on Friday night at the First Baptist church with the Rev. Lloyd Anderson officiating. Miss Charlotte Jones of Dallas sang, and lighting the tapers were Miss Rosella "Habeck" and Miss Betty Boydston of Dallas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a white gown with satin bodice and full marquisette skirt with train. Her veil cascaded from a halo of seed pearls. She carried a white Testament marked with a white orchid.

Miss Demma Gammon was her cousin's maid of honor, and wore blue marquisette. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Caroline Strohmayer of Salem and Miss Margaret Pemberton of Dallas. They wore marquisette frocks in shades of pink. The girls all carried colonial nosegays.

Allan Richardson stood with the groom as best man, and ushers were Horace Beldon, James Nichol of Lebanon, Raymond Gilbert and James Purdy.

A reception was held in the church parlors, and assisting were Mesdames Floyd White, C. H. McCullah, Floyd McCellan, John Goffner, Stanley Morris, Thomas Stern of Portland, Misses Sylvia Arnold, Alice Rose, Jeanette Graber, Mary Copley, Ellen Morley and Florence Wallace.

For going away the bride chose a green suit with brown accessories. The couple will live in Dallas, where they teach music in the high school.

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Jason Lee church will meet Monday at the home of Miss Maxine Clark, 1495 N. Commercial st., at 8 p.m. Mrs. Joe Brooks and Mrs. John Arning are co-hostesses. Worship leader will be Mrs. Marjorie Wilbur and Mrs. George Knapp.

Guests Here For Fair

The state fair will draw many visitors in the capital over the week end and the horse show is being held over for Sunday night.

Mr. Roy H. Simmons, whose husband is manager of the horse show, presided at a luncheon on Thursday afternoon at the Marion hotel, in compliment to a group of equestriennes who are showing and riding their horses in the nightly shows. Covers were placed for seventeen guests.

Among those in Salem Thursday, for the fair and horse show were Bishop and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter and Miss June Brasted of Portland. Mrs. Baxter was smartly dressed in a three-piece forest green wool suit and matching hat and accessories. Miss Brasted, who has been in Portland for the summer, will return in another week to Oakland, Calif., where she is on the physical education staff at Mills college. Miss Brasted is a Willamette university graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McWain (Barbara Hollingsworth) of Portland were down for the show on Thursday night and visited with the Ralph Nohlgrens and his parents, the Homer McWains.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand have as their week end house guests for the fair Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Powers and children, Diane, Albert, jr., and Quincy, of Coos Bay, who arrived Friday. Guests of the Brands on Wednesday for the fair were Miss Mary Mattley and Miss Esther Hettlinger of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gilbertson had as their fair guests during the week her sister and brother-in-law, Colonel and Mrs. L. B. Washburne of Blue River.

Newlyweds Arrive

Captain and Mrs. Edgar S. Fortner, jr., have arrived in the capital and have been visiting at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Fortner. Mrs. Fortner is the former Joyce Wankel of Plentywood, Mont. The couple's marriage took place in Monterey, Calif., on June 22, after which they left for an extended wedding trip through the parks, Lake Tahoe, southern and northern California, Yellowstone and Montana.

The couple arrived in Salem in August and are temporarily residing at 150 Ewald avenue. Captain Fortner is on terminal leave and expects to enter the University of Oregon medical school.

Another son of the senior Fortners, Ben Hall Fortner, is leaving today for Cambridge, Mass., to enter pre-medical school at Harvard. He will enroll as a junior. During his service in the navy he attended Princeton and Purdue. He has been here with his parents this summer.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Davis

Mrs. Fred A. Davis was honored at a shower Wednesday night when Mrs. Stewart Popp, jr., of Seattle was hostess at the Woodburn home of her mother, Mrs. Louise Pfaffinger. The evening was spent informally and a late supper was served by the hostess.

Honoring Mrs. Davis were Mrs. Daryl Mason, Mrs. Robert Lindstrom, Mrs. John Dietz, Mrs. T. W. Lindstrom, Mrs. J. G. Bradford, Mrs. George Sennett, Mrs. Max Smith, Mrs. Jerry Lyons, Miss Lucille Bushnell and Miss Muriel Lindstrom.

Former Salem Girl Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith of Portland, formerly of Salem, announce the engagement of their daughter Jean Marie to Robert E. Reiman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Reiman of Corvallis.

Miss Smith and Mr. Reiman are both students at Oregon State college. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta and he is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Rites Read On Friday Afternoon

Blonde Dorothy Vandeneinde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneinde, became John F. Steelhammer's bride Friday afternoon at a 3 o'clock ceremony at St. Vincent of Paul Catholic church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Steelhammer, sr., of Salem.

Father Alcuin Hiebel of Portland performed the nuptials before a gathering of relatives and friends of the couple. The altar was banked with an arrangement of all white flowers.

Mr. Vandeneinde gave his youngest daughter in marriage. For her wedding she chose a becoming sand grey dressmaker suit with which she wore a dark brown felt hat with brown satin ribbon bows and brown accessories. For "something old" she carried her great grandfather's pearl inlaid prayer book, which was marked with green cymbidium orchids.

Miss Patricia Vandeneinde was her sister's only attendant. She wore a brown suit with matching velvet hat and brown accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow cymbidium orchids.

Carl Steelhammer was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Rodney Vandeneinde, brother of the bride, and John Ryan of Portland.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Vandeneinde selected a spice brown suit with brown felt hat enhanced with veiling. To her suit she pinned a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. Steelhammer wore a blue gown with black accessories and an orchid corsage for her son's marriage.

The Vandeneinde home on E street was the scene of the wedding reception. The newlyweds received their guests before the fireplace, the mantle of which was decorated with all white flowers. Bouquets of white stock, asters, dahlias, gladioluses and tuberous begonias were arranged about the rooms. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Frank Healy, Mrs. George L. Arbuckle, Mrs. T. J. Brabec, Mrs. Charles E. Wagner and Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home on Bellevue street.

Couple Will Live Here

Miss Joyce Elinor Thornton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Kellogg of Portland became the bride of Leonard Eugene Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo L. Skinner of this city, at a double-ring ceremony performed Sunday afternoon August 25, at the Englewood Christian church in Portland by the Rev. James Earl Ladd.

The bride wore a wedding dress of white marquisette. Her fingertip length veil was edged with lace and fell from a headpiece of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet fashioned of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Anna Lee Thornton was her sister's only attendant. She wore a blue marquisette dress and carried a nosegay of deep blue asters. Gaylord Skinner of Vancouver, Wash., was best man for his brother.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Gaylord Skinner, Mrs. W. B. Moore and Miss Wanda Skinner assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner have returned from a short honeymoon and are now at home in Salem.

Army Couple to Be Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chambers will be hosts for an informal party Monday night at the G. Frederick Chambers home in compliment to Captain and Mrs. Roswell L. Beach. Captain Beach is just home from Okinawa. Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with an evening of contract following.

Honoring Captain and Mrs. Beach will be Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Albin Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Quackenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Chambers and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer F. Smith and daughters, Nancy and Jean, are home from a fishing and camping trip in the Thompson valley. They went south a week ago to attend the Bahlburg-Bentley rites in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stegner are leaving by plane today for Detroit, Mich., where they will visit in Minneapolis and Detroit for the remainder of the month.
