Stocks Take Turn Down

NEW YORK, Sept. 6 -(AP)- The stock market took another turn on the downside today in the week's final session but selling pressure was light throughout and, here and there, resistance was in evidence.

Brokers attributed further offerings partly to persistent nervousness over the recent sharpest relapse in 16 years, a little bearishness over the maritime strike and the desire to shorten accounts for protection during the long weekend. Transfers of 1.670,000 shares and already I get 14 answers!"

were the smallest of the week and compared with 2,360,000 the day before The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off 7 of a point at 67.2 It was another broad market. 1057 issues registering. Of these, 634 fell and 259 rose.
