Tip to a man who hasn't snagged a willow in a coon's age

Wherever you go, you get a Chevron Supreme Gasoline that's designed especially to fit the local climate and altitude. So even though the country changes, you get the same easy starting, smooth, sputterless driving, freedom from vapor-lock you're used to at home. Fishing jaunt or business trip—it's good going on Chevron Supreme Gasoline.

Snarling your line isn't the worst thing that can happen on a fishing trip. A balky car can put an awful damper on the fun. That's why it's a good idea to go all the way on Chevron Supreme Gasoline. This premium gasoline contains the same blending agents we use in aviation gasoline. And it's "tailored" to suit different driving conditions all through the West.
