St. Paul's Scene of Nuptials

St. Paul's Episcopal church was the setting for the marriage Thursday night of Miss Jean Lois Barnes, daughter of Wellington O. Barnes of Portland, to Wallace Joseph Doerfler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Doerfler of Salem. The 8 o'clock nuptials were performed by Alwyn E. Butcher, chaplain (Lt. Col.), USA, before a setting of white and salmon gladioluses. Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist.

Peter Sukalac gave the bride away. Her wedding gown was of mist blue net, the bodice embellished with metallic thread. The dress was designed with a short train, three-quarter length sleeves and a peplum. She wore a matching Juliet cap and carried red roses.

Mrs. Peter Sukalac was the bride's honor attendant and she wore a pink chiffon gown with satin bodice and a matching Juliet cap. She carried pink roses. Donald Doerfler was his brother's best man and ushers were William Townsend and Hillary Etzel.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Doerfler chose a duobonnet crepe gown enhanced with a gold thread and a net and sequin hat. Her flowers were gardenias.

A reception followed at the Doerfler home on North Lancaster Drive. Assisting were Mesdames Charles Perlot, James Gedamke, Misses Margaret, Anna, Anne Marie and Dellora Doerfler, and Eleanor Olson.

When the newlyweds left on their trip to the Oregon coast the bride donned a brown and gold stripe dress with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. After October 1 the couple will be at home at 140 North Lancaster Drive.

Some Housewives Make Pickles for Family's Sake: Old Recipes Given

By Maxine Buren
The Statesman Woman's Editor

While sugar's certainly at a premium in this canning country, many women, with tongue in cheek, put down a few of the old fashioned kind of pickles, just for old time's sake.

While the quantity of sugar in the following pickles seems large, the recipe makes a mighty big batch, so cut it in half or even thirds if you wish. Vary ingredients to suit the taste.

MUSTARD PICKLES

2 quarts large cucumbers (sliced before measuring)
1 quart each, tiny onions, small green tomatoes
2 large heads cauliflower
8 green peppers
1/2 cup salt
3 cups sugar
1 ounce turmeric
1/2 gallon vinegar
1/4 pound dry mustard
Halve the tomatoes, separate cauliflower and cut the green peppers. Put all but cucumbers in a large kettle, add scalding vinegar and bring to a boil, add dry ingredients that have been mixed to a paste with a little cold vinegar. Add cucumbers and bring to a boil, stirring, bottle hot.

Dills are a boon to the poor sugarless housewife who wants to feed her family pickles, for they take no sweetening at all.

DILLS

1 cup vinegar
1 cup salt
19 cups water
Bring to a boil and cool. Place cucumbers in half gallon jars with dill, a clove of garlic, a little horseradish leaf if possible. Pour syrup hot over cucumbers and tighten lids. Many women turn jars upside down and back every day for a week.

Meadowlark Post 6102 and auxiliary will hold a joint dinner meeting Wednesday night at the VFW hall at 7 o'clock. Each member is asked to bring a guest. Dancing will follow the dinner hour. Reservations must be made by Monday noon and members may call 5856.
