

Rushing Will Open on WU Campus

Highlighting social activities during freshman week on the Willamette university campus is panhellenic rushing which opens tonight with open houses. All freshman women and new coeds are invited to the four sorority houses, Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma and Pi Beta Phi between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock, each house designated a certain hour.

Slated for Friday are noon luncheons and firesides in the evening. Firesides are calendared for Saturday night and on Sunday afternoon there will be dessert luncheons and in the evening preferential formal dinners. Rushes will pick up their bids at 8:15 Monday morning, which will be followed by pledge breakfasts at the houses.

Chresto cottage is headquarters for Panhellenic and officers are Pat Miller, Chi Omega, president; Geraldine Nelson, Alpha Chi Omega, rush chairman; Nancy Hoak, Delta Gamma, secretary and Georgia Hull, Pi Beta Phi, treasurer. Rush chairmen for the houses are Betty Louise Simola, Alpha Chi Omega; Nancy Montgomery, Chi Omega; Eileen Lyle, Delta Gamma; and Carolyn Brady, Pi Beta Phi.

Fraternity Parties

Fraternity rushing starts Friday and continues for a week. Alpha Psi Delta has two events slated with a dance at the Mayflower hall Friday night and a barbecue October 1 at the William L. Phillips home with a group of Phi Delta Theta alumni present. In charge of arrangements are Warren James, Joseph Law and Dave Putnam.

Kappa Gamma rho men have planned a rush party for October 3 at their former chapter house on Court street. In charge are Mark Hatfield, Frank Newell and Bob Fletcher.

Sigma Tau has scheduled a party for October 2 at Chresto cottage with Dick Spooner and Val Sloper in charge.

Luncheon Closes Golf Season

Ladies Day play at the Oak Knoll Golf club was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon with the annual luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. V. V. Grant was toastmistress and making toasts were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn and Mrs. William Beckley.

The Oak Knoll trophy was awarded to Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., of Dallas, runner-up. The match was decided in the 18th hole.

New officers were elected and include Mrs. Cecil Dunn, president; Mrs. V. V. Grant, vice president; and Mrs. William Ott, secretary.

Others attending were Mesdames E. W. Crusen and Fred E. Barnes of Sweet Home, guests, Jack Eakin, Jr., Virginia Bell, Theone Grenfell, Earl Fulgham, Otella Mardis, Randolph Hilton, Harold Ramstad, Clifford Hood, Al Cleveland, Harold Homes, Leland LeFores and Joe Vine.

John Jamison Takes Bride

An event of August 24 was the wedding of Miss Darlene Liberty of Somerset, Wisconsin, to John F. Jamison. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Linahan at St. Joseph's church.

The bride wore traditional white satin. She was given in marriage by her father, John Liberty of Somerset, Wis.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. R. W. King of Jefferson, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was his brother, Russell Jamison of Salem.

A reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. R. H. Whitby, in Salem. Out of town guests were the bride's father, two brothers and her sister and husband, who motored from Somerset for the ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Marker assisted the hostess.

After a brief honeymoon at the coast the newlyweds will make their home for an indefinite period at 1348 Mill st., Salem.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons on the birth of a daughter Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimons and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckley.

House guests of Mrs. Reuben F. Boise a few days are Mrs. Rudolph Prael and Mrs. Otto Prael of Portland, Wednesday the visitors, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Boise motored along the Oregon coast.

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Mrs. Hill Fetes Board Members

The last executive meeting of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club under the leadership of president, Mrs. Dorothy Hill, was held Tuesday night when she entertained with a dessert supper at her home on State street.

Members present were Mrs. Lorna Lucas, Mrs. Alta Myers, Miss Lena Blum, Mrs. Bessie Kayser, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Miss Lillian Kayser, Mrs. Ethel Galinger, Mrs. Louise Jones, Miss Beverly Hartzel, and Miss Estelita Smith.

Plans are being completed for the annual installation banquet to be held at the Golden Arrow October 8, at 7:30. Officers will be elected at the October 1 meeting with a 7 o'clock breakfast at Nohlgren's.

Delta Zetas Meet At Erickson's

Mrs. Bjarne Erickson and Mrs. B. L. Bradley entertained the Delta Zeta alumnae at a dessert supper Tuesday night at the former's home on South Cottage street. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Virgil Sexton named president and Miss Beverly Branch, treasurer. During the evening the alumnae mended and repaired the Salem high school band uniforms.

Attending were Mesdames Charles Feike, Edmond Carleton, Maurice Buchanan, George Duke, Esther Easton, Hugh Morrow, V. Freisen, Lloyd Sanders, Virgil Sexton, Miss Beverly Branch, Miss Geraldine Kem and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele of Portland are in the capital for a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton. Mr. Steele is here on business with the Pacific Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard are leaving Friday for Seattle to spend the weekend and attend the University of Washington-St. Mary's game on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank McColloch of Portland, formerly of Salem, has been visiting in the capital a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan.

Dear Little Tuber Can Become Fine Dish When Dressed Up; Big Crop Due

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Women's Editor

"Dear Woman's Editor: What shall I do with potatoes?"

And, according to the experts, there will be a mighty lot of potatoes to use this winter because the crop is plenty big.

Most persons like mashed, boiled and baked potatoes, and welcome an occasional baking dish of scalloped potatoes.

French fries were frequently on menus during normal times when fats are available, and when a heavy kettle of oil could be kept just for deep fat fried food.

Mashed potatoes can take on a festive look when baked, they're called rightfully

DUCHESS POTATOES
2 cups hot rice potatoes
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
Whip together, pile lightly in a pan or make in shapes with a pastry tube, and cook at 350 until delicately browned.

Then there are

POTATO PANCAKES
3 medium sized raw potatoes, grated
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon cream
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
Mix, cook by spoonfuls in a heavy frying pan, turning once.
Other recipes to vary the potato fare include:
Stuffed potatoes, with cheese, tuna or chopped green peppers.
Chantilly—Fold half cup grated cheese into whipped potatoes and brown.
Spanish—Fold chopped pi-

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Mrs. Hill Fetes Board Members

The last executive meeting of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club under the leadership of president, Mrs. Dorothy Hill, was held Tuesday night when she entertained with a dessert supper at her home on State street.

Members present were Mrs. Lorna Lucas, Mrs. Alta Myers, Miss Lena Blum, Mrs. Bessie Kayser, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Miss Lillian Kayser, Mrs. Ethel Galinger, Mrs. Louise Jones, Miss Beverly Hartzel, and Miss Estelita Smith.

Plans are being completed for the annual installation banquet to be held at the Golden Arrow October 8, at 7:30. Officers will be elected at the October 1 meeting with a 7 o'clock breakfast at Nohlgren's.

Delta Zetas Meet At Erickson's

Mrs. Bjarne Erickson and Mrs. B. L. Bradley entertained the Delta Zeta alumnae at a dessert supper Tuesday night at the former's home on South Cottage street. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Virgil Sexton named president and Miss Beverly Branch, treasurer. During the evening the alumnae mended and repaired the Salem high school band uniforms.

Attending were Mesdames Charles Feike, Edmond Carleton, Maurice Buchanan, George Duke, Esther Easton, Hugh Morrow, V. Freisen, Lloyd Sanders, Virgil Sexton, Miss Beverly Branch, Miss Geraldine Kem and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele of Portland are in the capital for a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton. Mr. Steele is here on business with the Pacific Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard are leaving Friday for Seattle to spend the weekend and attend the University of Washington-St. Mary's game on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank McColloch of Portland, formerly of Salem, has been visiting in the capital a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan.

Dear Little Tuber Can Become Fine Dish When Dressed Up; Big Crop Due

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Women's Editor

"Dear Woman's Editor: What shall I do with potatoes?"

And, according to the experts, there will be a mighty lot of potatoes to use this winter because the crop is plenty big.

Most persons like mashed, boiled and baked potatoes, and welcome an occasional baking dish of scalloped potatoes.

French fries were frequently on menus during normal times when fats are available, and when a heavy kettle of oil could be kept just for deep fat fried food.

Mashed potatoes can take on a festive look when baked, they're called rightfully

DUCHESS POTATOES
2 cups hot rice potatoes
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
Whip together, pile lightly in a pan or make in shapes with a pastry tube, and cook at 350 until delicately browned.

Then there are

POTATO PANCAKES
3 medium sized raw potatoes, grated
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon cream
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
Mix, cook by spoonfuls in a heavy frying pan, turning once.
Other recipes to vary the potato fare include:
Stuffed potatoes, with cheese, tuna or chopped green peppers.
Chantilly—Fold half cup grated cheese into whipped potatoes and brown.
Spanish—Fold chopped pi-

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Mrs. Hill Fetes Board Members

The last executive meeting of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club under the leadership of president, Mrs. Dorothy Hill, was held Tuesday night when she entertained with a dessert supper at her home on State street.

Members present were Mrs. Lorna Lucas, Mrs. Alta Myers, Miss Lena Blum, Mrs. Bessie Kayser, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Miss Lillian Kayser, Mrs. Ethel Galinger, Mrs. Louise Jones, Miss Beverly Hartzel, and Miss Estelita Smith.

Plans are being completed for the annual installation banquet to be held at the Golden Arrow October 8, at 7:30. Officers will be elected at the October 1 meeting with a 7 o'clock breakfast at Nohlgren's.

Delta Zetas Meet At Erickson's

Mrs. Bjarne Erickson and Mrs. B. L. Bradley entertained the Delta Zeta alumnae at a dessert supper Tuesday night at the former's home on South Cottage street. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Virgil Sexton named president and Miss Beverly Branch, treasurer. During the evening the alumnae mended and repaired the Salem high school band uniforms.

Attending were Mesdames Charles Feike, Edmond Carleton, Maurice Buchanan, George Duke, Esther Easton, Hugh Morrow, V. Freisen, Lloyd Sanders, Virgil Sexton, Miss Beverly Branch, Miss Geraldine Kem and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele of Portland are in the capital for a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton. Mr. Steele is here on business with the Pacific Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard are leaving Friday for Seattle to spend the weekend and attend the University of Washington-St. Mary's game on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank McColloch of Portland, formerly of Salem, has been visiting in the capital a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan.

Society.... Clubs Music.... The Home

MAXINE BUREN
Women's Editor

JERYME ENGLISH
Society Editor

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Luncheon Closes Golf Season

Ladies Day play at the Oak Knoll Golf club was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon with the annual luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. V. V. Grant was toastmistress and making toasts were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn and Mrs. William Beckley.

The Oak Knoll trophy was awarded to Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., of Dallas, runner-up. The match was decided in the 18th hole.

New officers were elected and include Mrs. Cecil Dunn, president; Mrs. V. V. Grant, vice president; and Mrs. William Ott, secretary.

Others attending were Mesdames E. W. Crusen and Fred E. Barnes of Sweet Home, guests, Jack Eakin, Jr., Virginia Bell, Theone Grenfell, Earl Fulgham, Otella Mardis, Randolph Hilton, Harold Ramstad, Clifford Hood, Al Cleveland, Harold Homes, Leland LeFores and Joe Vine.

John Jamison Takes Bride

An event of August 24 was the wedding of Miss Darlene Liberty of Somerset, Wisconsin, to John F. Jamison. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Linahan at St. Joseph's church.

The bride wore traditional white satin. She was given in marriage by her father, John Liberty of Somerset, Wis.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. R. W. King of Jefferson, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was his brother, Russell Jamison of Salem.

A reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. R. H. Whitby, in Salem. Out of town guests were the bride's father, two brothers and her sister and husband, who motored from Somerset for the ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Marker assisted the hostess.

After a brief honeymoon at the coast the newlyweds will make their home for an indefinite period at 1348 Mill st., Salem.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons on the birth of a daughter Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimons and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckley.

House guests of Mrs. Reuben F. Boise a few days are Mrs. Rudolph Prael and Mrs. Otto Prael of Portland, Wednesday the visitors, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Boise motored along the Oregon coast.

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Mrs. Hill Fetes Board Members

The last executive meeting of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club under the leadership of president, Mrs. Dorothy Hill, was held Tuesday night when she entertained with a dessert supper at her home on State street.

Members present were Mrs. Lorna Lucas, Mrs. Alta Myers, Miss Lena Blum, Mrs. Bessie Kayser, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Miss Lillian Kayser, Mrs. Ethel Galinger, Mrs. Louise Jones, Miss Beverly Hartzel, and Miss Estelita Smith.

Plans are being completed for the annual installation banquet to be held at the Golden Arrow October 8, at 7:30. Officers will be elected at the October 1 meeting with a 7 o'clock breakfast at Nohlgren's.

Delta Zetas Meet At Erickson's

Mrs. Bjarne Erickson and Mrs. B. L. Bradley entertained the Delta Zeta alumnae at a dessert supper Tuesday night at the former's home on South Cottage street. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Virgil Sexton named president and Miss Beverly Branch, treasurer. During the evening the alumnae mended and repaired the Salem high school band uniforms.

Attending were Mesdames Charles Feike, Edmond Carleton, Maurice Buchanan, George Duke, Esther Easton, Hugh Morrow, V. Freisen, Lloyd Sanders, Virgil Sexton, Miss Beverly Branch, Miss Geraldine Kem and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele of Portland are in the capital for a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton. Mr. Steele is here on business with the Pacific Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard are leaving Friday for Seattle to spend the weekend and attend the University of Washington-St. Mary's game on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank McColloch of Portland, formerly of Salem, has been visiting in the capital a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. McLellan.

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Luncheon Closes Golf Season

Ladies Day play at the Oak Knoll Golf club was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon with the annual luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. V. V. Grant was toastmistress and making toasts were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn and Mrs. William Beckley.

The Oak Knoll trophy was awarded to Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., of Dallas, runner-up. The match was decided in the 18th hole.

New officers were elected and include Mrs. Cecil Dunn, president; Mrs. V. V. Grant, vice president; and Mrs. William Ott, secretary.

Others attending were Mesdames E. W. Crusen and Fred E. Barnes of Sweet Home, guests, Jack Eakin, Jr., Virginia Bell, Theone Grenfell, Earl Fulgham, Otella Mardis, Randolph Hilton, Harold Ramstad, Clifford Hood, Al Cleveland, Harold Homes, Leland LeFores and Joe Vine.

John Jamison Takes Bride

An event of August 24 was the wedding of Miss Darlene Liberty of Somerset, Wisconsin, to John F. Jamison. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Linahan at St. Joseph's church.

The bride wore traditional white satin. She was given in marriage by her father, John Liberty of Somerset, Wis.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. R. W. King of Jefferson, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was his brother, Russell Jamison of Salem.

A reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. R. H. Whitby, in Salem. Out of town guests were the bride's father, two brothers and her sister and husband, who motored from Somerset for the ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Marker assisted the hostess.

After a brief honeymoon at the coast the newlyweds will make their home for an indefinite period at 1348 Mill st., Salem.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons on the birth of a daughter Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimons and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckley.

House guests of Mrs. Reuben F. Boise a few days are Mrs. Rudolph Prael and Mrs. Otto Prael of Portland, Wednesday the visitors, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Boise motored along the Oregon coast.

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Luncheon Closes Golf Season

Ladies Day play at the Oak Knoll Golf club was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon with the annual luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. V. V. Grant was toastmistress and making toasts were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn and Mrs. William Beckley.

The Oak Knoll trophy was awarded to Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., of Dallas, runner-up. The match was decided in the 18th hole.

New officers were elected and include Mrs. Cecil Dunn, president; Mrs. V. V. Grant, vice president; and Mrs. William Ott, secretary.

Others attending were Mesdames E. W. Crusen and Fred E. Barnes of Sweet Home, guests, Jack Eakin, Jr., Virginia Bell, Theone Grenfell, Earl Fulgham, Otella Mardis, Randolph Hilton, Harold Ramstad, Clifford Hood, Al Cleveland, Harold Homes, Leland LeFores and Joe Vine.

John Jamison Takes Bride

An event of August 24 was the wedding of Miss Darlene Liberty of Somerset, Wisconsin, to John F. Jamison. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Linahan at St. Joseph's church.

The bride wore traditional white satin. She was given in marriage by her father, John Liberty of Somerset, Wis.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. R. W. King of Jefferson, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was his brother, Russell Jamison of Salem.

A reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. R. H. Whitby, in Salem. Out of town guests were the bride's father, two brothers and her sister and husband, who motored from Somerset for the ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Marker assisted the hostess.

After a brief honeymoon at the coast the newlyweds will make their home for an indefinite period at 1348 Mill st., Salem.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons on the birth of a daughter Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimons and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckley.

House guests of Mrs. Reuben F. Boise a few days are Mrs. Rudolph Prael and Mrs. Otto Prael of Portland, Wednesday the visitors, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Boise motored along the Oregon coast.

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Luncheon Closes Golf Season

Ladies Day play at the Oak Knoll Golf club was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon with the annual luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. V. V. Grant was toastmistress and making toasts were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn and Mrs. William Beckley.

The Oak Knoll trophy was awarded to Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., of Dallas, runner-up. The match was decided in the 18th hole.

New officers were elected and include Mrs. Cecil Dunn, president; Mrs. V. V. Grant, vice president; and Mrs. William Ott, secretary.

Others attending were Mesdames E. W. Crusen and Fred E. Barnes of Sweet Home, guests, Jack Eakin, Jr., Virginia Bell, Theone Grenfell, Earl Fulgham, Otella Mardis, Randolph Hilton, Harold Ramstad, Clifford Hood, Al Cleveland, Harold Homes, Leland LeFores and Joe Vine.

John Jamison Takes Bride

An event of August 24 was the wedding of Miss Darlene Liberty of Somerset, Wisconsin, to John F. Jamison. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Linahan at St. Joseph's church.

The bride wore traditional white satin. She was given in marriage by her father, John Liberty of Somerset, Wis.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. R. W. King of Jefferson, sister of the groom.

Serving as best man was his brother, Russell Jamison of Salem.

A reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. R. H. Whitby, in Salem. Out of town guests were the bride's father, two brothers and her sister and husband, who motored from Somerset for the ceremony. Mrs. T. E. Marker assisted the hostess.

After a brief honeymoon at the coast the newlyweds will make their home for an indefinite period at 1348 Mill st., Salem.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons on the birth of a daughter Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimons and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckley.

House guests of Mrs. Reuben F. Boise a few days are Mrs. Rudolph Prael and Mrs. Otto Prael of Portland, Wednesday the visitors, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Boise motored along the Oregon coast.

Philharmonic Plans Told

Interest has been revived in the Salem Philharmonic orchestra, after four years of inactivity. At a meeting of the association board on Monday night, Charles Huggins was elected president, Judge George Rossman, first vice-president; Karl Becke, second vice-president; Mrs. George Schwarz secretary and Leo Page, treasurer. Recruitment of in and out of town musicians will begin as soon as the committee has been named. Several conductors are being considered for direction of the orchestra.

The Philharmonic, made up mostly of non professional musicians, was active for many years in Salem and became a fine orchestra before the war, when the work was suspended. Edouard Hummann was conductor at that time.

Party to Fete Mrs. Heath

Event of Saturday night will be the informal party for which Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Moody and Miss Dorothy Cornelius will be hostesses at the Kelly home on South 17th street in compliment to Mrs. Paul Heath.

After an informal evening a shower will honor Mrs. Heath and the hostesses will serve a late supper to twenty-four guests. Bouquets of autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Bride-elect Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Harold W. Shogren will be a party hostess Friday night when she entertains at her North 23rd street home in compliment to Miss Charlotte Kallander of Portland, formerly of Salem, who recently announced her engagement to Grant Theummel of Portland.

Guests have been invited to a dessert supper with several hours of contract bridge following. A miscellaneous shower will fete the bride-to-be. A pink and white color scheme will be carried out in the appointments and assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Wayne Doughton and Miss Eleanor Trindle.

Honoring Miss Kallander will be Mesdames Manfred Olson, Kenneth Hanson, Wayne Doughton, Harrison Egin, Jr., Ralph Nohlgren, William Trindle, Jr., Wheeler R. English, Carlton McLeod, William Kennedy, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Kay Barngrover, Miss Bernice Orwig and the hostess.

Luncheon Closes Golf Season

Ladies Day play at the Oak Knoll Golf club was brought to a close Wednesday afternoon with the annual luncheon at the clubhouse. Mrs. V. V. Grant was toastmistress and making toasts were Mrs. Eldon Vaughn and Mrs. William Beckley.

The Oak Knoll trophy was awarded to Mrs. Jack Eakin, Jr., of Dallas, runner-up. The match was decided in the 18th hole.

New officers were elected and include Mrs. Cecil Dunn, president; Mrs. V. V. Grant, vice president; and Mrs. William Ott, secretary.

Others attending were Mesdames E. W. Crusen and Fred E. Barnes of Sweet Home, guests, Jack Eakin, Jr., Virginia Bell, Theone Grenfell, Earl Fulgham, Otella Mardis, Randolph Hilton, Harold Ramstad, Clifford Hood, Al Cleveland, Harold Homes, Leland LeFores and Joe Vine.

John Jamison Takes Bride

An event of August 24 was the wedding of Miss Darlene Liberty of Somerset, Wisconsin, to John F. Jamison. The double