

YWCA Corner

A new year of activity for Y-teen girls of the Salem YWCA begins with the annual fall membership drive, Monday, October 4. Marilyn Burris, vice-president of the cabinet, is chairman.

The cabinet, of which Donna Ludahl is president, also announces a girls' assembly at Salem high school on October 8 at 8:50 a. m., and an all-girls party, October 10, at the high school gymnasium.

Helen Shelton, program chairman, is in charge of the assembly, and Delia Saabye, social chairman, the party.

Another event being planned for October is the ceremonial for new members late in October with Patricia Long, worship chairman, in charge.

The series of chapter meetings for Y-teen girls will begin October 7, and on the second and fourth Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays during the school year. Y-teen groups already have begun activities at the schools for the deaf and blind and at Chemawa.

Junior high school organizations of the Y-teen program will begin early in October. Special hobby and interest groups are planned to include crafts, music, dramatics, etc.

The cabinet held an all-day work planning meeting last week. Mrs. Arthur A. Linderode, program director for the Y-teen girls, assisting.

STAYTON—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hendricks, route 1, Stayton, are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Edna, to George Butler of Sublimity, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Butler, Portland. The ceremony is planned for October 14 at 9 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church. The bride-elect is a clerk in the local postoffice and her fiancé operates a farm at Sublimity.

NEW ADDRESSES . . . It is hard to keep up with one's friends these days with so many moving and changing addresses. . . Some leaving apartments for houses and others moving into the country and still others leaving town. . . Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches and family moved Thursday to 385 North Summer street, the old John McNary home, formerly occupied by the L. C. McLeods. . . Mrs. McLeod and her daughter, Irene, moved earlier in the week to their newly purchased home at 365 North 15th street, formerly owned by O. H. Lipps. . . Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanzen will soon be moving into "the city" to their home on South High street formerly occupied by the Lloyd Riches' family. . . The Hanzens have sold their country place on the South River Road to the junior Herbert Stiffs. . . Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shepherd and children, Jeffrey and Nancy Dale, will be moving this week to their new home on Marion street, where Mrs. Chester A. Downs and her daughters have been living.

New abode for Mr. and Mrs. George Alan Arbuckle. . . they recently moved their belongings from their small apartment to an attractive five room cottage on D street.

Temporary headquarters for the Roger Ky Putnams and son, Rocky, will be the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift. . . Roger leaves this week for Portland to enter the University of Oregon Medical school and Eleanor and Rocky will be at the Swifts until later in the winter when they find living accommodations "up north". . . From the east coast comes word from Dr. Waldo O. Mills, jr. of how he has been "frantically house hunting" in Boston. . . After several months of hunting and still no living quarters he bought a home in a Boston suburb, Dedham. . . Waldo has a two-year fellowship in chest surgery at Overholt clinic, located in Brookline. . . Mrs. Mills and their little boy, John Mark, left Seattle by plane Wednesday night for Boston.

IN THE WILDS . . . Enjoying the opening of hunting season this weekend are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens and son, Robert, who are at their place at Black Rock. . . Their weekend guests include Richard and Marjorie Cooley. . . Abe Uglov, who has come out from Florida for the hunting season. . . Lee Russell and Russell Woodward. . . Judge and Mrs. Harry Belt have joined Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Combs of Lakeview for a ten-day hunting trip.

HOME AGAIN . . . Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, who have been in New York during the summer months, have returned and once again are settled in their West Leffelle street home, having rented it during the summer. . . The Geists spent several Sundays with the Clifford Hutchins, who will be remembered by many Salem people as a member of Willamette university faculty. . . The Hutchins live in a lovely suburban home in Bronsville. . . He is now with the National Recreation association in New York City. . . The Hutchins have two boys, the youngest ten months old. . . Mrs. Geist enjoyed the gorgeous store windows and had time for lots of antique shopping. . . Enroute home they stopped in Kansas and visited Lewis Penkaskie, former Willamette music school faculty member, who recently was released from the Red Cross.

MOON TO BUILD . . . Ralph and Jean Smither, who were married in early June, are busy drawing their house plans for their new home which they hope to start sometime in October on their newly purchased lot at Norway and 15th streets. . . The plans include six rooms—all on one floor and no basement.

CHIC FALL COSTUMES . . . Mrs. Bruce Williams in a handsome chrome grey costume suit, the ston jacket embellished with beaver lapels and collar. . . and her small off the face hat of grey. . . Mrs. Charles Wood in a most becoming brown faille ensemble and her open crown brown felt hat enhanced with burgundy, rose and green flowers at one side. . . Seen lunching. . . Mrs. Harry H. Weinstein in a smart platinum grey suit, the sleeves made with French cuffs and her smoke white felt hat with sweeping ostrich plume of the same shade down one side. . . Two good-looking wool frocks. . . Mrs. Carl Collins in a honey beige with gold studded belt and Mrs. Charles Pomeroy in grey with silver trim. . . and Mrs. Harold Busick in a black and white check suit, black long sleeved blouse and hat.

Hunts Hunting Calf Copped from Corral

SILVERTON, Sept. 27—Some-one else will eat the veal steak which Mr. and Mrs. Noah Hunt had planned for themselves for the winter unless the law catches up with the veal.

The Hunts bought a calf at the Garver & Graham beef cattle sale Tuesday. When they returned to the ranch Thursday afternoon to take the animal to their home it had been removed from the corral. Bill Graham, one of the partners, said the calf must have been taken at night as the best one had not been selected. The tag had been removed, however, and left near the corral.

A FLEA OR AN ELEPHANT

If you can see a flea on the top of the church steeple, you should be able to see an elephant when he is walking past you. BERNARDTY, TAILOR-FURRIER, maintains the largest stock of woollens in the entire Northwest and makes the finest ladies' and men's suits and topcoats you would care to see and inspect. The quality of these woollens and the workmanship is the very best yet the price these custom-tailored suits, and we do not mean a made-to-measure business, can be equally compared to the difference of the elephant and the flea. They are far stronger, fit better and last longer.

At BERNARDTY, TAILOR-FURRIER, you are not spending your money, but you are investing it and saving. BERNARDTY, TAILOR-FURRIER, custom-tailored suits will outwear any suit you have ever had. Furthermore all suits made by us are pressed absolutely free of charge and that will mean that you will always look presentable and the services of sponging and pressing your suit will almost pay in return for your investment.

So why not try BERNARDTY, TAILOR-FURRIER, for your next fall and winter suit or topcoat and be convinced.
