40,203 Watch Ukes Run Wild

Intercepted Passes Costly to Beavers

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28—(AP)—The fleet, hard-hitting Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles unleashed a versatile running and passing attack today to smother the Oregon State college Beavers, 50 to 7, in Pacific Coast conference game.

A crowd of 40,203 watched several Bruin backs, big and little, tear up and down the coliseum turf in an eight-touchdown parade that could easily have been a dozen if the Uclans hadn't fumbled frequently. Ernie Case started the debacle on the Bruins' second scrimmage play by tossing in the flat to Cal Rossi who ran 78 yards to score behind great downfield blocking.

After end Burr Baldwin, outstanding lineman on the field, scored on a 20-yard jaunt with a blocked punt, the Beavers came back to march 50 yards for their lone tally in the first quarter. Don Campbell, sub half, backed over from the one, after tossing a 26-yard pass to fullback Bob Reiman.

UCLA then took control to make the score board ring like a cash register as follows: Touchdown No. 3 Skip Rowland, three yards over center. 4—Case tossed 40 yards to Rossi, who ran eight. 5—Art Steffens intercepted Don Samuels' pass and ran 25. 6—Ernie Johnson, one yard over goal line, after reeling off runs of 11 and 27. Bert in the first quarter with another intercepted pass. 8—Bill Nagel, fourth string quarterback, tossed 14 yards to sub end Dean Witt.

The last three scores came in the final period as the demoralized Bruins, minus star center Bill Gray, who was injured earlier, broke apart at the seams. Despite the drubbing, the Beavers registered 16 first downs to the Bruins' 19. Most of Oregon State's advances, however, came on passes in midfield. The Bruins rolled up 599 yards, running and passing.

SPORTSLIGHTNER

If you aren't allergic to 225-mile rides to watch football games, you can see Ex-Williamette Ted Ogdahl and Al Walden in action today for their San Diego Pro Bombers. The Bombers' tangle with the Tacoma Coast Pro League eleven in Tacoma this afternoon. Incidentally, Al Walden is advertised as the smallest player in the pay-for-play sport.

Many calls have come in the past couple of weeks, all asking, "What's happened to Bill Bevens—he isn't pitching any more?" We've checked all handy sources but haven't found the answer, yet. Could he be New Skipper Johnny Neun doesn't like the color of Willie's eyes—or maybe the Erixon stretcher is merely saving up for his Waters park stint on Sunday afternoon, October 13.

Speaking of the Yankees, the "once-a-Dodger-always-a-Dodger" stance isn't even remotely related to the residents of Yankee stadium. Boss Larry MacPhail got shut of Bill Dickey and Red Guffing so fast that most fans overlooked the fact that both amounted to two of the greatest of the great on the fabulous Yankee club of old. There seems to be nothing more useless to a ball club than an old worn-out player, no matter how great he might have been. One more left in a fast-fading baseball season: As a sorearm pitcher with Hollywood last spring, Bill Barisoff was snubbed by Yakima Stars. Consequently, he was released. But as a made-over outfielder who knew how to swing a bat, Barisoff was sold to the majors for $12,000 by Bremerton. Which makes Brem Skipper Red Sambo Gibson a pretty smart cookie, and sure of his job at least another year.

Paul Same Gent Who Biffed Hoag Before
Yes, the Jackie Paul booked to battle with Duane Hoag in Tex Salkeld's fistful revival here next month is the same swinger who went it with the Portland buzz-saw in his last appearance at the armory last spring. There seems to be some doubt about it around town, but he's the same gent. And for the benefit of those with short memories, Paul was just about too much for Mr. Hoag that trip. He had the Portlander well on the way out a number of times, but got too careless and lost finally. It was a dourybrook for fair, as those who saw it will attest, and certainly no love was lost between the two battlers. The October 9 retake should be another lulu from any angle, and this time they'll have 15 rounds in which to mess one another up.

Who doesn't know what M. Salkeld has cooked for his later shows, but his first one should be a dandy, senior grade.

Parrish Equipped With Topnotch Assistant
Should they pay off this fall on the reputations of assistant coaches, it'll be Parrish in a breeze in the local junior high football race. Pioneer Boss Bob Metzger has at his helper one Leonard Warren, who only last autumn was line coach under Al Simpson for that prep powerhouse that was Medford's Black Tornado. Simpson swore by Warren as a line tutor, and if you'd care to spend the time digging up statistics on the stability of the Tornado forward wall you would discover why. Warren joined the Salem school system this year when he heard that Simpson was coming to coach the Viking footballers. Simpson took the more glamorous Southern Oregon Normal post instead and Warren stayed here.

Re the SONS, here's a one-paragraph scouting report on them for the Monmouth Normals, who play the Simpsons in Ashland October 19 (it comes via letter from Simpson himself): "Squad green and small. Fair backfield, poor line. Have one good 'T' quarterback. We are practicing on the lawn on a slight hill, so if you see some of our boys with one leg longer than the other you will know why." (End scouting report.)

FREP GRIDER DIES
OSSEO, Wis., Sept. 28—(AP)—Willis Sielaff, 17, a tackle on the Osseo high school football team, was found dead in bed this morning. Dr. R. M. Leasum, Osseo, said the youth had suffered a brain hemorrhage, apparently the result of an injury during a football game Friday.

Hogan Holds Golf Lead
DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 28—(AP)—Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., U. S. Open money winner pro, led an attack on par today at the Dallas open championship to retain the lead after 54 holes of play. Hogan's game slipped to a 73 for the par-70 Brook Hollow course but an opening day par 76, plus yesterday's sub-par 69 gave him the edge over the field with a total of 211 strokes.

Stanford Raps Vandals 45-0!
PALO ALTO, Calif., Sept. 28—(AP)—Stanford's red shirted Indians, returning to college grid competition after a four-year lay-off scored a 45 to 0 victory today over a bulky, confident Idaho team.

The game was under way scarcely five minutes when a disastrous fumble by Idaho's highly-rated fullback, Miklich, gave Stanford the ball on the Vandals' 15 yard line. Merriman and Quist punched the line for three yard gains and then Merriman broke through right guard for a touchdown.

From then on it was a rout, with Stanford's fast backs scoring touchdowns in every period. Idaho never was able to start a coordinated drive. The Vandals' passing was wild and their ground attack punishes.

Riggs, Kovacs in Finals
CHICAGO, Sept. 28—(AP)—Bob Riggs and Frank Kovacs meet tomorrow for the Great Lakes professional snail's tournament championship. Riggs moved through today's semi-final round by eliminating Welby Van Horn, 6-0, 6-4, and Kovacs defeated Carl Earn, 8-0, 6-3.

Power Substation Cut in at Scio; Supply Normal
STAYTON—Main line power supply here is now up to standard requirements, all the voltage dip during the recent "heavy" pull having been eliminated by the age of the substation office at the 66,000 volt substation at Scio. The heavy 19,000 volt line between Stayton and Scio is not yet in operation, Harry J. Rowe, manager of the Stayton office of the Mountain States Power company, says. This line, he explains, will further stabilize supply and guard against disruptions during storms.

ZALE HURT IN BOUT
NEW YORK, Sept. 28—(AP)—Tony Zale, who successfully defended his middleweight title with a sixth-round knockout of Rocky Graziano last night at Yankee stadium, probably will not fight again this year because of a chipped bone in his right thumb, Zale's manager, Art Winch, announced today.

Hunters Crowd Woods
By the Associated Press
Oregon's backwoods were dotted with red hats today, as the state's nimrod pushed over mountains and trails in the opening of the 28-day deer season. No hunting fatalities were reported during the first day, Saturday, although an 11-year-old Indian boy was killed earlier this week near Klamath Falls by a companion practicing marksmanship for the deer season. Highways leading into the best deer areas were crowded this week-end. Bend was filled with nimrods, and cars from all over the west passed over the usually quiet Santiam-McKenzie junction in Sisters at the rate of more than 300 an hour. Restaurants and service stations in small forest towns many hunters. At Grants Pass, so many jammed. Applied for licenses that the supply temporarily ran out.

UNLUCKY DODGER

PISTOL PETE REISER, Brooklyn's in-again-out again outfielding star, is out again after injuring his right leg in a first-inning smashup against the Braves. Here he is shown being nursed from the field. Reiser has been one of the mainstays of Brooklyn's drive for the National league pennant. —(AP Wirephoto).

Ducks Nose Out Staggs, 7-6

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 28—(AP)—The vaunted University of Oregon football team scored only once today and barely took a 7 to 6 game from Alonzo Staag's College of Pacific Tigers. Ten thousand home-owners saw Halfback Jimmy Newquist go over for six points in the second quarter from the 6 on a reverse from Jake Leicht. The point was drop-kicked by Leicht.

The non-conference game then dragged drably until the fourth when Pacific started a drive from its own 30 stripe. Bill Millhup threw a 49-yard pass to Fran Zhoran which left the oval on the Oregon 28. Two plays advanced it only two yards but Bruce Orves pitched the pay-off pass to John Rohde. Jim Torvick's kick was low.

Both Coaches Tex Oliver of the Ducks and Amos, Alonzo Staag of the Tigers substituted often as he in attempts to uncover best working units. Long games were absent in the game on the whole as both lines halted the array of talented backs on the field. Oregon managed to run off almost twice as many offensive plays as the Stockton, Cal. team but didn't have what it took to get into pay dirt more than once.

All-American Nominee Leicht was injured in the second quarter and taken from the field, but his injuries were not serious.

Cardinal-Dodger Pennant Picture:

NEW YORK, Sept. 28—(AP)—This is what happens if the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn finish the National league race tied for first place tomorrow: 1. The world series, now scheduled to open Wednesday at either St. Louis or Brooklyn, would be delayed until Sunday, October 6. 2. The first game of a three-game playoff between the Dodgers and the Cardinals would be held at St. Louis on Tuesday, 3. The second game of the playoff would be held at Brooklyn on Thursday and the third game, if necessary, at Brooklyn, on Friday.

The custom of having a best man at weddings is believed to be a survival of primitive marriage by capture, when a man seized a woman and carried her away by force.

Eight-Man Mat Lineup Named for Tuesday Go

The eight misters who are to make with the mat mayhem in the single-night Junior heavy elimination tournament at the armory Tuesday night were named yesterday by Matchmaker Elton Owen. Pete Belcastro, Sammy (Red Devil) Cohen, Jack Lipscomb and Karl Gray were booked for action earlier last week, and yesterday Owen named in the following order: Indian Ike Cassell the super-nasty, Billy Fox the more-popular-every-trick scientist, Jack (Tiger) Kiser and Burlly Buck Davidson, the later the rough and tough likeable who has been away from these parts many months. The eight gladiators amount to some of the best talent on the coast and will square off at least seven single-fall or 15-minute limited matches. All will draw at 8:20 p.m. Tuesday for first-round opponents. A brand new trophy goes to the winner, also, with a main event date with the "Gray Mack" the following week. Mr. Stoneface is due back in the circuit next week.

A brand new referee will be making his debut here Tuesday also. Tired of "guys who can't handle 'em" and minus a ref since the departure of George Poppin, he has taken on the job. Billy McEwin is his new hope. If Mac can hack it appropriately Tuesday he has a steady job, according to Owen.

Montreal Cops Win In 'Series' Opener

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 28—(AP)—Montreal's Royals of the International League defeated the Louisville Colonels of the American association 7-5 here tonight in the first game of the 1948 little world series.

Bosox Pitching Has Big Edge

NEW YORK, Sept. 28—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox, with Dave (Boo) Ferris, Tex Hughson and Mickey Harris all rested up and raring to go, will boast a huge advantage over either the St. Louis Cardinals or the Brooklyn Dodgers in the all-important matter of work series pitching.

Seldom, in fact, has the representative of either league appeared on the surface so thoroughly to outclass its series opponent on the mound — not even the Detroit Tigers, who have had a losing season natural for California. The Badgers' strong favorites at the kickoff, scored in the opening quarter, outplayed the Bears in the second period but had the count tied by California in the third.

Who's Huntin' Who, Anyway?

COQUILLE, Ore., Sept. 28—(AP)—Oregon's deer season opened today and Mrs. Betty Haag met a mean one out on her Fairview ranch. She wasn't hunting deer but a spotted horn buck chased her into the woods. It also set off after passersby who stayed in their automobiles. The buck stared down the dogs and wouldn't let the cows out of the barn.

"What'll I do?" Mrs. Haag phoned the state police. "Shoot him," was the instruction. She did.

Badgers Rout California 11

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 28—(AP)—Wisconsin's cardinal-jerseyed football squad ran wild in a fourth period scoring display today to rack up three touchdowns and defeat the University of California Bears 28 to 7.

A shirt-sleeved crowd estimated at close to 50,000 fans sat through summer heat to watch the Badgers, in their initial appearance in this section, make it a losing season natural for California. The Badgers' strong favorites at the kickoff, scored in the opening quarter, outplayed the Bears in the second period but had the count tied by California in the third.

Hogan Holds Golf Lead

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 28—(AP)—Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., U. S. Open money winner pro, led an attack on par today at the Dallas open championship to retain the lead after 54 holes of play. Hogan's game slipped to a 73 for the par-70 Brook Hollow course but an opening day par 76, plus yesterday's sub-par 69 gave him the edge over the field with a total of 211 strokes.

'Tis Only The Beginning, But Lo, the Grid Upsets!

NEW YORK, Sept. 28—(AP)—This fall's college football campaign is only two Saturdays old but already there has been action enough to prove that the ups and the downs of the teams in the coming season will equal those of a backyard see-saw.

Missouri, humbled a week ago by Texas in a 42 to 0 fray, this was a good enough to hold Ohio State, a Big Nine title speculation, to a 13 to 13 draw that was satisfying to the 65,000 Ohioans who watched their favorites pull into the deadlock in the waning moments. It was like that all over the football map. A week ago Army trounced Villanova, 35 to 0. This week the Cadets had to rely on Arnold Tucker's passes for a 21 to 7 verdict over an untried

Oklahoma machine while Villanova lost to Navy 7 to 0. Notre Dame made the vaunted Buddy Young of Illinois just another charmer in a football suit as the Irish methodically ground down the Illinois 26 to 6 and kept intact a record of never having lost to the Big Nine team since starting the series in 1938. This year's fray attracted 75,119. An 83-yard run by Emil Sitko in the second quarter set up the first Irish score and started the Illinois to defeat again.

Alabama's 7 to 6 squeeze past Tulane and Columbia's very troublesome afternoon with Rutgers, 13 to 7. While the Notre Dame-Illinois collision drew all the pre-game raves — and the day's top crowd — there were spectators galore at all the others. President Truman, the nation's No. 1 fan, flew to West Point and was one of the 25,000 spectators that watched the Blanchard Cadets sputter to their 20th triumph. Other top crowds saw Michigan spill Indiana, Big Nine defending champions, 21 to 0. A packed house of 74,000 saw that one. A throng of 60,000 sat through the rain at the Alabama-Tulane test and 41,000 were in the stands as Iowa State paid the penalty, 41 to 9

Women's Links Title to Babe

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 28—(AP)—Babe Didrickson Zaharias, of Denver, Colo., added the national women's amateur golf championship to her long string of "firsts" for America's women athletes today, by defeating Mrs. Clara Sherman, Pasadena, Calif., 11 and 9.

A drizzling rain that fell throughout the way slowed play around the greens. Never down to an opponent in four days of match play over the links, deeply trapped 6,232-yard course, the great Babe made a walkway of the finale.
