

New Willamette university faculty members and their wives are being welcomed on the campus this week with the opening of school. Pictured (above) on the law school steps are Dean and Mrs. Seward P. Reese and Professor and Mrs. Kenneth York. Colnel Reese is the new dean of the law school and came west from Indiana and New York. Professor and Mrs. York lived in Pueblo, Colorado, before he entered the marine corps. He will be a professor in the law school. (Kennell-Ellis).

President's Reception...

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

First large social function to be held this fall on the Willamette university campus will be the annual informal reception for which President G. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Smith will be hosts Monday night at University House. The affair is being arranged as a welcome to all freshmen, new students and faculty members. Calling hours are from 8 to 10 o'clock with 500 expected to attend.

Harold B. Jory will introduce to the receiving line which will include President and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Harold Jory, Dean and Mrs. Lawrence Riggs, Dean Olive M. Dahl, Dean and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist and Dean and Mrs. Seward P. Reese.

Presiding at the punch bowl in the dining room will be Mrs. Robert W. Fenix and Mrs. Chester F. Luther. Assisting about the rooms will be Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lantz, Dr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Schulze, Coach and Mrs. Walter Erickson, Dr. and Mrs. R. Ivan Lovell, Dr. Chester Luther and Robert Fenix.

Twenty upperclass coeds will assist in the serving. Bouquets of autumn flowers in brilliant hues will be arranged about the rooms.

In the circle are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Schacke and four-year-old daughter, Jo Ann, coming out of the Willamette university gymnasium. The Schackes came west this summer from Lawrence, Kansas, where he coached at the University of Kansas. He is assistant football coach and head basketball and track coach. The Schackes also have an eight year old son, Bruce, who attends Englewood.

Talking it over on Eaton Hall steps above are two new liberal arts faculty members and their wives, Professor and Mrs. Paul Beal and Professor and Mrs. Floyd W. Byrd. Beal will be professor of romance languages and Byrd a professor in the science department. The Beals came from Seattle and the Byrds from California. (Kennell-Ellis photos).

Leaning over the rail at the front entrance of historic Waller Hall are a group of new coeds on the campus. Left to right are Betty Paulsen, Beverly Kenney, Danetta Reese, a sophomore and transfer from Indiana university, Bernice Isham and Betty Lou Edwards, all from Salem. (Kennell-Ellis).

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

Four panhellenic house presidents discussing rushing rules one day on the campus are left to right, Melva Williamson, Monmouth, Delta Gamma; Barbara Crawford, Salem, Chi Omega; Elaine Cloudy, Ketchikan, Alaska, Alpha Chi Omega; and Lorraine Murdock, Salem, Pi Beta Phi. Sorority rushing was a highlight of freshman week which opened Thursday and pledges will be announced Monday morning. (Kennell-Ellis).

Travelers Head South, East...

Early fall travelers and vacationists continue to hold the social spotlight with trips planned east and south.

Miss Edith Schryver is leaving by plane Monday for Kingston, New York for a month's visit with her father, George J. Schryver. While in the east Miss Schryver will visit in New York City and other coast points. While she is away Miss Elizabeth Lord will have as her house guest, Mrs. George L. Converse of Walla Walla, Wash., who has often visited in the capital.

Miss Schryver was feted at a charmingly arranged au revoir party Friday night when Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson and her father, David W. Eyre, entertained at their North Summer street residence for a group of her friends.

Mrs. B. O. Schucking is expected home this weekend by plane from New York City, where she has been visiting with her brother-in-law, William Graf, for the past month.

Going East

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches entrained for New York City Saturday for a three weeks business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Raymond Walsh and Miss Lois Hamer are driving to the mid-west on Wednesday for a several weeks visit. Mrs. Walsh will be the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wells, in Sioux City, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Wells formerly made their home here. Miss Hamer will be in Waterloo, Iowa, visiting with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maison left by car Thursday for Coronado, Calif., for a two weeks stay with their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Kelton Lowery (Molly Jean Maison) and their little girl, Caroline Zoe.

Convention Bound

Planning to go east on October 10 are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCormick. Their first stop will be in Chicago where they will attend the National Association of Broadcasters meeting and from there will go on to New York City to attend the Television convention.

Mrs. Stanley Krueger and Mrs. I. N. Bacon left by train Saturday for San Francisco to attend the national American Legion and auxiliary convention. Mrs. Krueger is district president and Mrs. Bacon president of Capital Unit.

Miss Olene Mehlhoff, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mehlhoff, whose engagement to Lyle White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. White, all of Salem, is being announced this weekend. No plans have been made for the wedding.

The bride-elect attended Willamette university and is a Pi Beta Phi. She is now employed in the office at California Packing Corp. Her fiance has been in the navy three and a half years and is now attending Willamette university. His fraternity is Alpha Psi Delta. (Jesten-Miller).

Social Whirl...

Entertaining is informal these warm Indian summer days with bridge and study clubs beginning their first fall meetings.

The Marion street home of Mrs. John W. Harbison was the scene of a farewell luncheon Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. R. T. Boals, who is leaving for San Mateo, Calif., today to make her home with her son, Harland Boals. Cards were in play during the afternoon.

Guests included members of Mrs. Boals' bridge club and a few additional friends. Covers were placed for Mesdames R. T. Boals, W. W. Moore, Herbert Glaisyer, J. T. Whittig, H. G. Smith, Homer V. Carpenter, of Portland, N. J. Lindgren, L. M. Purvine, Max O. Buren, L. L. Laws, Walter B. Robinson, A. F. Marcus, John Harbison and Miss Alta Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins will entertain at dinner Monday night at their North 14th street home in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Tellwright of Portland. Mr. Tellwright is vice-president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. and will be the main speaker at the Community Chest kick-off breakfast Tuesday morning. Other guests at the dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague.

Study Clubs Begin

Mrs. William Everett Anderson will preside at a dessert luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her Court street home for members of the Modern Drama class. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. C. B. Spencer are leaders. This is the first meeting of the group this fall and Mrs. Herbert Rahe will review the plays she saw in New York this summer.

Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson will entertain at luncheon Monday afternoon at her country home on Schurman road for members of the Monday Study club. This will be the first fall meeting and the group will study "Spain" this year. Mrs. Thompson is president of the club.

To Wed Today...

At a quiet ceremony this morning at 10 o'clock a French girl, Mlle. Paule Guindolette, daughter of M. and Mme. Georges Guindolette of Paris, will be married to Lloyd M. Drayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Drayton of Salem.

The couple will exchange their vows at the Roberts' studio before members of the immediate family. Professor T. S. Roberts will play the organ music. The improvised altar will be banked with bouquets of gladioluses and chrysanthemums.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a gold wool dress with gold button trim for her wedding. She will wear a brown hat and accessories and her corsage will be of Tallisman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Pollock (Clare Marshall) of Portland will attend the couple.

A wedding dinner in honor of the newlyweds will be held at the Normandy Manor.

Mr. Drayton and his bride will tour the Canadian Rockies on their honeymoon. They will return to Salem to reside and will be at home at 340 North Capitol street.

The bride and her parents arrived in the states by plane in August and M. and Mme. Guindolette will remain here until after the first of the year. The couple met at a Red Cross dance in Paris while he was stationed there with the army. At the time Paule was a student and a Red Cross hostess.

Mr. Drayton was in the army four years, having received his discharge last February. He is now in the lumber business with his father at Brooks.

A Bridge Luncheon...

Mrs. Clarence J. Hamilton will preside at luncheon Thursday afternoon at her Glen Creek Drive home for the first fall gathering of her bridge club.

Bidden are Mrs. John Heltzel, Mrs. Elbert W. Roberts, Mrs. Donald McCargar, Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Theron Hoover, Mrs. William H. Hammond and Mrs. Edward Sox of Albany.